

'Satchmo' Concert Tickets Now On Sale at HUB

Tickets for the Louis Armstrong dixieland concert are now on sale for $1.50 at the Hetzel Union desk and the Music Room.

Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong and his All-Stars will present the repeat concert at 2:30 p.m. Sunday in Recreation Hall.

"Satchmo" played to two standing-room-only crowds in Schwab Auditorium during the spring semester of 1955. His performances drew 2400 spectators and more than 500 were turned away.

Armstrong and his All-Stars will play the traditional New Orleans dixieland. The All-Stars consist of Edmond Hall, clarinet; Billy Kyle, piano; Barrett Deems, drums; and Squire Gersh, bass. Velma Middleton will be featured as vocalist.

Appeared in 'High Society'

The same group recently returned from a tour of Europe and previously Armstrong appeared in the movie High Society with Bing Crosby and Grace Kelly.

"Satchmo" who specializes on the trumpet, is also a singer and a public personality. He has been referred to as a one man show of warm inventiveness and sheer personality.

It was after 1929 that he settled down to record steadily with the musicians who worked with him nightly. Before that he recorded with three special groups, the Hot Five, the Hot Seven, and a band built around himself and Earl Hines. His original records made jazz history.

Incredible Trumpeter

Some of his most outstanding recordings have been "Confessin'," "Body and Soul," and "I Can't Give You Anything But Love." Armstrong's record of "Lazy River" exhibits some of the most incredible trumpet ever recorded.

Hall has played the clarinet with such traditional jazz groups as Eddie Condon and Wild Bill Davidson, and Kyle has accompanied Anita O'Day, a jazz singer, and has played with Bill Bradley. Deems, noted for his technical brilliance and showmanship, has played with Charlie Barnet. Young, who has been with Armstrong for three or four years, has played with George Auld and Boyd Raeburn. Gersh is new to the group.

Kyle, Deems and Young played with Armstrong two years ago.

Symbol Thought Original

The Pennsylvania State University is believed to be the first school to adopt the mountain lion as a symbol.

Players to Present 'Heartbreak House'

The third Players' production of the season, "Heartbreak House" by George Bernard Shaw, will begin its five-week run at 8 p.m. Friday at Center Stage.

Described in the Saturday Review of Literature as "dramatically entertaining and intellectually stimulating," "Heartbreak House" portrays life in Britain at the beginning of World War I.

The play is primarily a character study concerning people who are in general charming and intelligent but incompetent. They all hope that their ideals will be realized in their lives but without any effort on their part.

'Pygmalion' More Popular

Although "Heartbreak House" has never enjoyed the popularity achieved by Shaw's "Pygmalion," "Candida," "Saint Joan," or "Major Barbara," it has been steadily gaining favor as having present day meaning. The show combines both the humor and the significance representative of Shaw's works.

Players are presenting the play in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of Shaw's birth.

Cast Members

Members of the cast include Ronne Neuhight, freshman in education from Philadelphia, Guinness; Judith Utterback, sophomore in business administration from Erie, Mrs. Hushabye; Rosemary Keating, junior in home economics from Wilkes-Barre, Ellie; Ardith Free, junior in arts and letters from Kennett Square, Lady Utterword; Richard Trudgen, sophomore in business administration from Titusville, Hector; Robert Uetz, freshman in arts and letters from Philadelphia, Randall.

Richard Swire, sophomore in arts and letters from Philadelphia, the Burglar; John Stroud, junior in labor management relations from Tarentum, Mangan; Charles Antalosky, sophomore in chemical engineering from St. Clair, Mazzini; and Walter Vail, graduate student from Upper Darby, the Captain.

"Heartbreak House" is directed by Warren S. Smith, associate professor of theater arts.

TIM to Discuss Reorganization, Charter Change

A petition calling for reorganization of Town Independent Men and revision of the group's constitution will be presented at the TIM meeting at 7 tonight in 203 Hetzel Union.

The petition will suggest that a council be formed to serve as the group's voting body in place of the system now used, in which all members have the power to vote.

Council members would be nominated by petition and would be elected in the spring semester.

Robert Bray, senior in business administration from Altoona, will present the petition to TIM.

In other business, James Wambold, sophomore in mechanical engineering from Allentown, will be appointed representative-at-large to the Association of Independent Men.

He will replace Imerio Matos, who resigned as representative, according to James Tipton, TIM president.

Two Instructors Join Army Staff

Two more instructors have been added to the Army Reserve Officer's Training Corp staff.

Assigned to permanent duty at the University were Capt. John P. Anderson of the Signal Corps and M/S Robert Lott.

Captain Anderson graduated in 1942 from Holy Cross University and has done graduate work at the University of Minnesota and Illinois Institute of Technology. He came here from the Far East where he was with the Military Assistance Advisory Group in Taiwan, Formosa.

Captain Anderson saw service in both World War II and in Korea. He was assigned here to instruct freshmen.

Sergeant Lott, a veteran of 16 years service in the Army, came here from the Armored School at Fort Knox, Ky.

CENTRE COUNTY FILM LABORATORY 122 W. Beaver Ave.

ONCE in a great while the camera can catch a person in an unguarded moment. For example it happened last year on the Kappa Alpha Theta composite. However, trying to capture an unguarded moment from an individual is infinitely easier than attempting the same from a group—especially when they see the camera all set up—or did they?

WHAT we believe to be an unusual example of an unguarded moment concerning 50 Delta Tau Deltas and their dates will be unveiled in one of our display cases today.

WERE we possessed of propriety and discretion, something like this would never be permitted before the public eye.

SO, we pledge to remove the print from the display case as soon as Delta Tau Delta publicly (Collegian or WMAJ) pledges $15.00 toward Hungarian relief, which we'll gladly match. The print is then theirs to keep.

FOR those who've been waiting to see the face of the most devastatingly beautiful blonde we've ever photographed, a full length portrait of her appears in our ad in today's Froth.
