

2 Gridders Cop IM Boxing Bouts

By BILL JAFFE

Football players-turned-boxers provided the most exciting action in the quarterfinal round of the intramural boxing tournament on the Recreation Hall canvas Wednesday night.

Of the 11-man card, eight boxers won by decisions while three were awarded forfeit victories. The winners of the matches will advance to the semi-final round of the tourney.

Ex-grididders clinching wins were Joe Sabol, Treta Delta Chi, at 175 pounds and Jim Lockerman, Delta Upsilon, in the heavyweight division. The lone loser was Jack Calderone, Lambda Chi Alpha, who was defeated by Sigma Alpha Epsilon's Russ Mandeville in the unlimited class.

Other fraternity winners were John Heffron, Theta Kappa Phi, over Ed Dempsey, Theta Xi; and George Hunter, Delta Sigma Phi, over Dick Kovacs, Alpha Chi Sigma.

Independent pugilists scoring decisions were John Collins defeating Stokes Lazarus; Fritz Kripe dropping Bob Drotar; and Frank Lobb punching his way to victory over Bob Corekin.

Scoring forfeit decisions were Mourey Movsovich, Phi Sigma Delta, over Jim Cline, Phi Kappa Sigma; Craig Kauffman, Kappa Sigma over Jim Lysek, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; and independent Dan Speace, over Bob Taft.

Sabol used a good two handed attack to outscore his opponent, Dick Dill, Theta Kappa Phi, in the initial round. The 175-pounders were fast and evenly matched in the final round but a sharp uppercut by Sabol had a telling effect on Dill.

Lockerman was a clear cut winner over Truman Burch, Theta Chi. Lockerman mixed-up his punches well, but most effective were his short jabs to the head and a powerful right and blow to the mid-section.

Mandeville Hits Hard

The real crowd pleaser of the evening saw a sharp-boxing Mandeville clearly outclass Calderone. Mandeville waited for his openings and landed several solid blows to Calderone's head and stomach.

In the first round, Calderone went flying out of the ring and landed on the Rec Hall floor when Mandeville sidestepped his wicked, wild left hand thrust. A fast pair of hands and a steady left jab kept Calderone in trouble the rest of the way.

In the first bout, Dempsey lost his first fight in three outings when Referee Don Watkins stopped the action in the second round. Heffron took an early lead and was in command the entire way.

Hunter Wins in 30 Seconds
Hunter wasted no time disposing of Kovacs in 145-pound bout. Hunter rushed in with three booming shots at Kovacs' head and the bout was stopped with less than thirty seconds gone.

Indie Collins used a two-handed barrage and a few brief flurries to defeat Lazarus in 145-pound action.

In another 145-pound clash, Knipe proved that steady punching is better than a few seconds of slugging, when he scored a decision over Bob Drotar.

In 155-pound slugfest, Lobb defeated Corekin in the last bout on the night's program. Lobb garnered an early lead and held on to stave off Corekin's last round bid for victory.

Cubs Seeking Centerfielder

CHICAGO, Dec. 12 (AP)—The trade-minded Chicago Cubs today brought up Pacific Coast League All-Star shortstop Kendall Wise from Los Angeles in a move apparently aimed at acquiring a new centerfielder.

In exchange, the Cubs gave catcher Joe Hannah.

Although the Cubs have an established second-base combination in shortstop Ernie Banks and second sacker Gene Baker, rumors persisted Baker might be trade bait for a centerfielder.

Outfielder Frank Thomas or Lee Walls of the Pittsburgh Pirates is said to be coveted by Cub General Manager John Holland.

WALLY STILL ON WRESTLING SCENE!

The office was crowded; people were milling about everywhere, and when I heard a knock at the door I thought it was another student with a routine complaint. But surprises never seem to end.

The door opened and a voice, which is recognizable anywhere on the four corners of the world, said: "Have any aspirins for Charley (Speidel); he probably needs them."

"Wally," I cried out, "I thought you dropped out of school."

"Sure, I did," he answered, "but you forgot wrestling season starts Saturday and I haven't missed a meet in six years. Flunking nine credits isn't going to stop this boy from missing any meets."

"Wally the Wrestling Fan," I repeated, "I'm sure glad you're going to be here for the Colgate meet. Did you see Speidel yet?"

"Yea, Charley and me we discussed the prospects but you know him," Wally replied, "he talks to you for two hours and you know less than when you started. But I think in a few more weeks I'll be able to get the real dope."

"What do you think of the team," I asked.

"Well," Wally snorted, "to tell you the truth I've seen them practice only three times, but as far as I can see Charley will have a top-flight team and should lose only one or two meets at the most."

"He hasn't anything to worry about in the lower weights with Sid Nodland, Johnny Johnston, John Pepe, and Dave Adams, but in the heavier weights he has trouble, now that Oberly and Krufka are gone."

"Sid is a smart boy in that 121-pound class and it'll be him or Hulings from Pitt in the championship. I don't think he'll lose a match all year, and the same goes for Johnston."

"In his first year last season Johnny was tops and I predict that he'll beat that Peery kid from Pitt when they meet in March. He lost by only one point last year and remember that was because he lacked a few seconds of riding time."

"But," I interjected, "what if one of them is injured; then what's Charley going to do?"

Wally glared, tried to bum a cigarette from a writer, and did everything possible to change the subject. But I insisted he answer. "You're too confounded pessimistic," he ripped back, "why all you dirty $?*$" writers think of is to put me on the spot. I'm sticking by the fifth amendment."

"Okay, I'm sorry," I answered, "but continue your rundown of the team."

"I don't know if I should," he replied angrily, "but if you insist, all right. Pepe will be tougher than ever at 137. He's stronger and smarter and should give Charley some enjoyable moments. Adams will be king at 147, unless Charley moves him up to 157, then he'll have to work harder because he'll be facing a lot of heavy boys. Remember the only man who could beat him consistently was Ed Eichelberger, of Lehigh, and he was the best wrestler in the country."

"From 157 up it's anybody's guess as to who will start Saturday. A few football players might break in, but you know that Les Walters lost in the eliminations this week, so he's out for the Colgate meet at least. Bruce Gilmore, a top wrestler at Reading High School, has a chance for one of the spots, but as I said before only Charley knows. He doesn't even tell his men until a few minutes before they have to wrestle. I guess he figures everyone's out to get him."

"Well, that's how the team shapes up," Wally said, "and it's about time for me to shove off. See you at the meet and please, let's not have another set of sequence shots of Charley again this year."

"Okay," I said, "I'll try to be more original."

Forfeits Mar Fraternity, Indie IM Cage Contests

Two forfeits marred the otherwise exciting action in intramural basketball activity Tuesday night. Both independent and fraternity cagers highlighted the card.

The Cougars trounced the Tribe, 38-21, to open the indie schedule. Bob Thomas led the Cougars with 13 points and Ron Engle paced the losers with 5 points.

The Penn Haven cagers defeated the Shuffltboarders, 29-19, as Jim Hart scored 15 tallies for the victors. Johnson's 5 counters led the losers.

The Clowns win easily
The Clowns clobbered the I.I.'s in a runaway contest, 32-14. Logan with 13 led the Clowns while the I.I.'s point producing leaders were Dick Kmetz and John Falon with 4 apiece.

The Gunners won a forfeit victory from the Hotshots.

In fraternity action, Phi Kappa Psi, paced by Bob Metzger's 10 points, edged Phi Kappa Tau, 23-19. Bob Schaeffer led Phi Tau with 10 markers.

Alpha Sigma Phi Wins
Alpha Sigma Phi rolled up a 41-23 triumph over Theta Xi. John Jones and Joe Rohrbach each bucketed 11 tallies for Alpha Sig and Gordy Krieger led the losers' scoring with five.

Dave Watkins' 16 points blazed the trail for Alpha Chi Rho's 36-19 crushing of Zeta Beta Tau. Julius Falk's 9 markers led ZBT.

Phi Gamma Delta bombed Sigma Phi Alpha, 43-25, as George Welker dropped 13 Phi Gam points through the hoop. Gene Snyder and Dick Frederick paced the losers with 8 each.

Sigma Nu won their game with the greatest of ease by a 1-0 forfeit over Alpha Gamma Rho.

EDIBLE SPORT SHIRTS?

Among the sort of sport shirts that Van Heusen refuses to make are the following:

Sport shirts that light up in the dark: These are the kind that flash messages, like "Hey, baby, you're a honey," or "Pass the ashtray, please." Useful for parties, faculty teas and cotillion balls. But they tend to commercialize the graceful art of conversation.

Sport shirts with road maps on them: Too dangerous. Say you're driving from campus to the big city. You don't know whether to turn left or right at the turnpike, so you look down at your shirt to check. Crash!

Edible sport shirts: Too misleading. You're sitting under a hazy tree with your favorite J-ed. She rests her head gently on your chest. You think she's fond of you. Suddenly you hear "munch, munch," and there goes your delicious shirt! It was it she craved, not you!

But the sport shirts that Van Heusen does make are fascinating. Dashing checks, interesting plaids, splendid stripes, solids in some very unusual colors. Their cut is free and comfortable . . . their style is original and flattering. Thumb through the collection that your campus haberdasher proudly displays.
