

Dorms Awarded Prizes For Yule Decorations

Eight cash prizes and four honorable mentions were awarded in the Nittany dormitories and West Halls Christmas display contests.

Separate prizes were awarded in the Nittany area for outside and inside decorations. In the outside decoration contest, Nittany 30 won the first prize of $25 with its portrayal of Santa's workshop.

On the lawn was a sleigh, a decorated tree, and a peppermint-striped North Pole. Each window bore the name of one of Santa's eight reindeer.

Nittany 30 also tied for second place in the indoor contest. The theme of Santa's workshop was continued with figures of Santa, Mrs. Santa and the elves working busily on Christmas toys.

Nittany 31 Places Second
Second prize of $15 in the outside contest was awarded to Nittany 31 for its church scene. The dormitory had been converted into a gray stone "church" complete with a steeple. The unit took first place in the indoor contest with its manger scene. In the manger were paper-mache images and a starry ceiling.

Nittany 26 and 35 tied for third place in the outside contest. Nittany 26 injected a humorous note by depicting Santa's accident. Santa had missed the rooftop of the building, and his sleigh and bundles of gifts lay strewn about on the ground.

Nittany 35 had decorated a Christmas tree and placed paper mache figures around it. The two units were split the prize of $10.

Manger Scene Wins
In the indoor contest, Nittany 31 won the first prize of $25 for its manger scene.

Second prize of $15 was awarded to Nittany 23 and 30. On the wall of Nittany 23 was a 15 by 8 foot mural of the Christ Child surrounded by eight angels. The mural was designed and painted by John Marko, freshman in applied arts from Beaver Falls. There were also three decorated Christmas trees.

Nittany 30 portrayed Santa's workshop. The prize was split between the two units.

Nittany 36 Places Third
Nittany 36 won the third prize of $10. A living room scene was depicted.

Honorable mention in the inside contest was given to Nittany 21 and 28.

Judges for the contests were Melvin Weaver, Stephen Baker, Charles Welsh, George Smith, and Thomas Long.

Sixteen of the 24 units competed.

In the West Halls window display contest, Thomas Kirshner, fourth floor Hamilton Hall, won first prize of $25. Kirshner painted a Madonna and child.

Watts Hall won second prize of $15 for its over-all effect. The Nativity Scene, constructed by third floor Hamilton Hall, received third prize of $10.

Honorable mention was given Paul Reber, fourth floor Hamilton

—Daily Collegian Photo by George Harrison

BABY, TELL SANTA what you want for Christmas, Hugh Welsh, freshman in hotel administration from Pittsburgh, says to pretty Joan Windish, freshman in education from Coraopolis. This scene took place Sunday night in Nittany 30, which won top honors for its display.

Hall, for a lamp scene; and Barbara Jacques and Gretchen VanKirk, "B" level Thompson Hall for a stained glass window.

Judges for the contest were Professor Milton S. Osborne, Professor George S. Zoretich, assistant professor of fine arts, Sara Brown, Sheila Stohl, and Daniel Thalimer.

The decorations will not be taken down until the end of this week.

Co-Edits

Sigma Chi has elected Edward Lyman, consul; Thomas Zimmerman, pro-consul; Robert Scrabis, annotator; John Haas, assistant magister; Edward Junker, assistant quaester; James Jordy, tribune; Kenneth Ring, associate editor; George Sifter, historian; Philip Reese, caterer; Leonard Bell, house manager; James Corrigan, IFC representative; Robert Kamps, chaplain; and Thomas Zimmerman, chorister.

The newly elected officers of Sigma Sigma Sigma are: Mary Stollmeyer, president; Janice Krug, vice president; Patricia Graham, treasurer; Barbara Albeck, corresponding secretary; Sylvia Breneman, recording secretary; and Patricia Thomas, keeper of grades.

Sigma Sigma Sigma has initiated Marie Cohen, Marianne Genetti, Catherine King, Lois Snyder, Kathryn Stauffer and Lucy Wadsworth.

The new officers of Phi Kappa Sigma are David Powell, president; Richard Lindfors, rushing chairman; Robert Betts, secretary; Jacob Shook, treasurer; Chester Buckenmaier Jr., pledge master; Robert Betts, social chairman; Philip Bailey, scholastic chairman; Harold Pellow, house manager; William Hutchison, corresponding secretary; Harry McKee, caterer.

New officers at Alpha Epsilon Pi are Morris Finkel, president; Solomon Vinokur, vice president; Sidney Grobman, treasurer; Harry Reibold, secretary; Philip Petter, member-at-large; Sanford Engber, house manager; Arnold Kravitz, caterer; Morton Halper, assistant treasurer; Melvin Getzoff, corresponding secretary; and Merwin Neerenberg, sentinel.

she's dreaming of a Very gay in a practical way...

A blouse to every taste!

- Ivy League Shirts
- Cotton Frilly Blouses
- Dacron, Tailored, and Dressy Blouses

warm christmas

Smart Shop

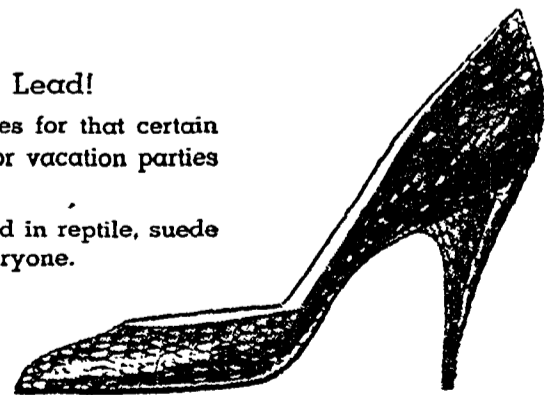

123 S. Allen Street

FOR THE BEST CHRISTMAS YET

Foot Finery Takes The Lead!

At Simon's you'll find the perfect shoes for that certain occasion, whether you are planning for vacation parties or long hikes from dorm to classes.

These high fashion shoes are presented in reptile, suede and calfskin. There is a shoe for everyone.

Handbags — The Perfect Accent

These bags range in style from subtle sport items to sparkling, glittering evening bags. There are leather bags, cloth bags, vinyl bags, big, small, medium bags — bags, bags, bags! Here is a good gift suggestion — for the girl that has everything — a fashion first handbag to match her new pair of Simon's shoes.

Simon's

109 S. Allen St.

Hallmark Date Book

For you... to make remembering easy. A Hallmark Date Book... a handy reference for all special occasions of the year. Just ask for one!

10 Hallmark cards for only 29¢

A choice of many clever designs distinctively Hallmark in creation... 10 cards all alike conveniently cello-packed. When your friends receive your Hallmark Christmas greeting, they'll know that "you care enough to send the very best."

McLanahan's