Marboe Given Research Lab Directorship

Robert F. Marboe, associate professor of engineering research, has been appointed assistant director of the Ordnance Research Laboratory at the University.

He will be in charge of all engineering service activities of the laboratory, including the operation of the field stations at Key West, Fla.; Newport, R.I.; Keyport, Wash. and Black Moshannon State Park.

In World War II

Marboe joined the staff of the Ordnance Research Laboratory in 1946. After his graduation from the University of Minnesota in 1939 with a bachelor of chemical engineering degree, he was employed by the Standard Oil Company of Indiana until the outbreak of World War II.

Commissioned as an ensign in the Naval reserve in October, 1942, he served throughout the war as a line officer on a destroyer escort.

Only Over-All Lab

The Ordnance Research Laboratory is the only academic activity in the United States devoted to the over-all research and development of underwater ordnance, especially torpedoes.

community "as well as other citizens who might be helpful."

The committee, composed of Dr. A. Chester Richer, professor of soil technology, Sheldon C. Tanner, professor of business law, and Dr. Robert G. Bernreuter, director of the division of counseling, summarized its findings to President Walker as follows:

"The committee finds, from the overwhelming weight of evidence, that such charges, both signed and anonymous, are false. We find no evidence whatever of deliberate or intentional wrongdoing.

"The most that can be said of the evidence is that there may have been a few minor infractions due to errors in judgment and a few honest mistakes such as would inevitably occur in the administration of any college in the University.

"After weighing all the evidence, it is our opinion that the derogatory and defamatory charges found in the record were made with deliberate intention to discredit the College of Physical Education and Athletics and the University without cause."

Teenager Edits Kentucky Paper

HYDEN, Ky. (AP)—Denzil Allen, 16, is editor of Kentucky's youngest full-scale weekly newspaper.

He had already completed a year of college when he joined the Leslie County News, which began publishing in May.

He puts out a 6-page edition each Thursday and is part owner of the paper.

At college, he assisted Dr. Leonard Roberts in collecting mountain folklore for his book, "South From Hell Fer Sartin." He also reported for his college newspaper.

By taking Saturday classes and correspondence courses, he plans to get a degree.

Refugee Care May Be Cut

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Jan. 3 (AP)—The head of the UN's Middle East relief agency warned today that care for nearly a million Palestine Arab refugees will be cut severely unless the UN acts urgently to raise more money.

Co-Edits

Sigma Phi Alpha has elected Leslie Hoffman, president; Frank Moore, vice president; John Reilly, secretary; and Carl Sword, treasurer. Charles Kurtz and Richard Frederick have been elected to the executive committee. The new caterer is Eugene Snyder.

New officers of Alpha Chi Sigma fraternity are Donald Kauffman, president; Kenneth Christiansen, vice president; Carroll McDonnell, treasurer; James Stratton, recorder; Albert Hoffmann, reporter; John Diefenbach, caterer; Ronald W. Smith, professional chairman; David Griswold, social chairman; Robert Knee, alumni secretary; and William Sekeras, historian.

Jacqueline Sando has been pledged by Gamma Phi Beta. Her name was omitted in an earlier list.

The new officers of Alpha Epsilon Phi are Mimi Lyon, president; Betty Lou Adelson, vice president; Helen Isaacman, treasurer; Phyllis Stein, assistant treasurer; Phyllis Rubenstein, corresponding secretary; and Elaine Katz, recording secretary.

New initiates of Alpha Chi Rho are James Scott and Dennis Duffield. Newly pledged is James White.

Expert to Resume Digital Computer Discussion Series

Dr. L. H. Thomas of the Watson Scientific Computing Center, Columbia University, will speak on "Methods of Solving Partial Differential Equations" at 7 tonight in 121 Sparks.

The speech is part of a series of talks on digital computers and their applications to scientific and business research which began last night and which will extend over the next two weeks.

Dr. Mary Lister, assistant professor of mathematics, will speak on "Introduction to Digital Computers" at 9 a.m. tomorrow in 109 Osmond.

Dr. Lister is in charge of arranging the series of lectures designed to help acquaint faculty members with the use of computers, such as Pennstac, which have been completed recently at the University.

Clear, Cool Water

Water Cut for 9 Hours in Dorms

Residents of Watts, Jordan, McKee and Irving dormitories returning to the University early Wednesday, found plenty of water in the street but none in their dormitories.

A 12-inch water line leading to the four dormitories burst around noon Wednesday and residents were without water until 9 p.m.

A spout of water erupted in the yard beside Irvin Hall opposite the University tennis courts. Workmen tracked the leak to the main line located approximately six feet under the surface of Curtin Rd.

Dug Trench
To locate the exact spot of the leak, workmen were forced to dig a trench approximately 30 feet long. An iron clamp was placed over the break.

Thomas B. Kneen, director of the utility division of the physical plants department, said the break was probably caused by a defect in the pipe.

"The funny thing," he said, "is that the break occurred in the top of the pipe rather than the bottom."

Froze on Street
Before workmen could locate the break, water from the leak flooded and later froze over a section of the road, creating hazardous driving conditions.

At approximately 1 p.m. cars driven by Louise Douglas of RD 1 State College and Eva O. Kremp of State College, skidded on the ice at the scene and collided. No injuries resulted.

Total damage was estimated at $350.
