

Pianist Will Present Variety in Program

The works of two contemporary composers as well as classical compositions will be presented at 8:30 tonight in Schwab Auditorium by Moura Lympany, English pianist.

The concert is the fourth in the State College Concert Series.

Miss Lympany will open her recital with Chromatic Fantasy and Fugue by Johann Bach.

Panhel—

The revision provides that no sorority may hold one of these offices for two consecutive years, but no rotation system will be used to fill the offices. No sorority represented by the office of president or vice president will be eligible to nominate girls for the above offices.

Other revisions to the constitution will clarify the rules governing the time a colony must be recognized as such before it may become a national sorority. Previously, rules concerning this matter were not clearly stated in the constitution.

Under the new revision, a colony may apply for admission to Panhel as a non-voting member after it has been approved by University subcommittees. At this time Panhel may accept or reject the colony's application. Once Panhel accepts the application the colony may apply to a national sorority for membership, but may not be installed until one year from the date Panhel accepts its application.

Library Jammed--

dents in the Library almost equals the nightly crowd during the earlier part of the semester. Remember, seats will all be the same price—first come first served, but library officials believe there will be enough room.

This will be followed by Frederic Chopin's Sonata in B minor, Opus 58.

Selections of Liszt

After intermission, Miss Lympany will continue by playing two compositions by the Hungarian composer, Franz Liszt. They are "Les Jeux d'eaux a la Villa d'Este" and "Harmonies du Soir."

Turning to contemporary music, she has selected Bagatelles Nos. 12 and 14, Opus 6 and Allegro Barbaro, both by Bela Bartok, a contemporary Hungarian pianist and composer.

Four Preludes

Her final selections will be four preludes by Sergei Rachmaninov, the 20th century Russian pianist and composer. They include Opus 32, Nos. 5 and 10; and Opus 23, Nos. 4 and 2.

Miss Lympany, who has been acclaimed as one of England's outstanding pianists, has been presenting piano concerts in the United States since 1948. Since her debut in Town Hall, New York City, she has given recitals and appeared as soloist with major symphony orchestras throughout the country.

Before World War II, Miss Lympany made concert tours in Italy, France, Belgium, and Holland. She appeared in Holland as a child star under the direction of Basil Cameron. During the war, she returned to England, her native country, to continue her concert work. Through her concerts at this time she achieved her present reputation.

20 Students Will Study In Germany

A group of 20 selected American college students will visit Berlin again this summer under the sponsorship of Classrooms Abroad to study the language, culture, art and civilization of Germany during a six-week stay in the former capital.

Headed by Dr. Frank D. Hirschbach, member of the faculty of Yale University, the group will undergo intensive language training during the ten-day boat trip to Bremerhaven.

Classes to Read Texts

Graded classes in Berlin under the supervision of native German professors will deal with the reading of classical and modern texts, the daily press, publications on contemporary problems, conversation and composition, pronunciation and grammar.

Students will also hear lectures on German literature and history, meet with outstanding personalities who reside in Berlin and have full auditing privileges at the Free University.

Will Live With Families

Members of Classrooms Abroad will live with German families and will have ample opportunities to meet young Germans from student, religious and political organizations. They will visit theatres, concerts, movies, operas, museums, libraries, factories, youth organizations, refugee camps, the East Sector and the East Berlin University, Potsdam and other sights.

Tour to Follow Visit

The Berlin stay will be followed by a two-week tour of Germany, Austria and Switzerland on which the group will be accompanied by German guides. Full information on the 1956 trip and plans for the 1957 trip can be obtained by writing to Classrooms Abroad, 525 George St., New Haven, Conn.

The World at a Glance Dulles Dislikes Middle East Plan

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said today the proposed Democratic substitute for the administration's Middle East program wouldn't do the job.

He said it would fail to grant President Eisenhower "any authority" for the use of armed forces to protect a Middle Eastern state against Communist armed attack.

Dulles made a seven-point assault on the "short-term" resolution which was passed along by House Speaker Rayburn (D.-Tex.) as the work of a prominent Democrat Rayburn would not identify.

The secretary's criticism came shortly after Sen. Scott (D.-N.C.) told the Senate that Dulles should resign.

U.S. Demands Creation Of Special UN Group

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Jan. 9 (AP)—The United States disregarded mounting Soviet bitterness today and demanded creation of a special UN committee to seek out the truth on the Hungarian situation.

Allies Urge Talks On Suez Situation

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Jan. 9 (AP)—Britain and France, irked at what they complain are Egyptian delaying tactics, were reported today pressing Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold for new talks at an early date on a Suez settlement.

Atlanta Segregation Uprising

ATLANTA, Jan. 9 (AP)—Gov. Marvin Griffin tonight put the state militia on a standby basis shortly after six Negro ministers launched an organized attack on segregated seating on Atlanta city buses.
