Chapel Choir Plans Concerts--

(Continued from page one) Taylor said. The first tour did not include Scotland or Munich, Germany. This year's group will stop at different cities in England and will not stay as long in Italy.

The choir receives no subsidy from the University or from the state government, and accepts no monetary payments for the concerts it gives. The trip is financed individually by the choir members themselves. No admission is charged for any concert. If a collection is taken during a concert, the money is given to a local charity.

The Rev. Luther Harshbarger, University chaplain, will accompany the choir.

Dairy Club Elections

The Dairy Science Club will elect officers for next semester at its meeting at 7 tonight in 117 Dairy. Further nominations may be made from the floor.
