

Semester News in Review

COACH RIP ENGLE was carried off the field by his team after the stunning Ohio State upset.

PRESIDENT DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER walks beside his brother, Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, at the dedication of the Helen Eakin Eisenhower Chapel.

Collegian Photo-Page

By Bavar, Harrison, Patton, Walker

THIS SHOT should bring back pleasant memories of customs to second-semester students. This frosh is perched on the bulletin board on the Mall.

DR. MILTON S. EISENHOWER takes a last look at campus from the President's Mansion before leaving for Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore.

DR. ERIC A. WALKER became president of the University when Dr. Eisenhower went to Johns Hopkins.

SAM VALENTINE, captain of the 1956 football team, became the ninth Penn State All-American.

JOHN VALENTINE counts the vote which outlawed fraternity drinking by freshman minors. IFC President Daniel Land looks on.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA, national service fraternity, collected clothing for Hungarian refugees.