

APhiO to Present Klein In Hypnotic Performance

Howard Klein, nationally-known hypnotist, will present a hypnotic show at 8 p.m. Saturday in Schwab Auditorium. The show, to be sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, national men's service fraternity, will include a contest to select the girl with the most hypnotic eyes.

3 Educators To Return To Bolivia

Three Bolivian educators who have been studying American teaching methods and educational administrative procedure since July 30, mostly at the University, are due to return soon to their native country.

Abdon Caballero and Francisco Illanes, of Cochobamba, and Roberto Quiroz, of La Paz, in addition to a study made of the elementary education and teacher program at the University, also visited public schools throughout Pennsylvania.

Their program began with attendance at the Summer Institute of International Understanding held on campus. In September, Caballero and Illanes went to Kane to participate in the public school program there, while Quiroz remained on campus to develop curriculum materials to be used in Bolivia.

The three spent November visiting State College elementary schools to observe the instructional program, administration, and other aspects. Quiroz visited Columbia schools for two weeks in December, teaching Spanish classes there.

At the same time, the two others began a visit to the Lewis-town public schools which they will conclude Jan. 18.

They spent the Christmas holiday season in Washington under the auspices of the International Cooperation Administration. They are due to leave the end of this month.

Nightly Air Time Extended by WDFM

A one-half hour extension of broadcasting time Sundays through Fridays and two more hours on Saturday night has gone into effect for this semester at station WDFM.

This is one of many such extensions since the station started in December, 1953, with two hours on the air.

"Sign-on" is scheduled for 6:50 p.m. daily. "Sign-off" Sunday through Friday is at 11:30. This half hour extension will lengthen the nightly classical music shows.

Campus Beat Planned
The Saturday night "sign-off" is at 1 a.m., marking the end of a new four-hour dance music show, "Campus Beat." It will be heard for the first time at 9 p.m. Saturday and will feature music and popular records for fraternity parties and other campus social events. Interviews of student "personalities" and news of current University events will be heard.

Other new programming includes the "Simmons Lecture Series," tape recordings of visiting lecturers over the past 10 years. They were made by Dr. Philip A. Shelley, head of the Department of German.

Groups to Compete
A competition between fraternities and sororities, "Greek Quiz," will be conducted from 9:30 to 10 p.m. Mondays. Questions for the show will be collected from University professors and trophies will be awarded at the end of the semester to the fraternity and sorority with the highest score. Monday night Pi Kappa Phi beat Kappa Sigma in the first competition by a score of 46-30.

"The Keyboard," another new program, will be a 15-minute interlude from 9:45 to 10 p.m. Fridays of piano and organ music performed by professors and students.

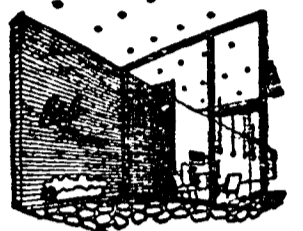

"Hi-Fi Open House" will now be heard from 7 to 9 p.m. Saturdays. Only the latest classical music that comes into the station will be played.

Professors from the Department of Romance Languages will participate in the station's activities with another new show, "Review of the European Press." Dr. Florindo V. Cerreta, instructor in romance languages, will be in charge.

Creative Dancing Show Will Be Held Tonight

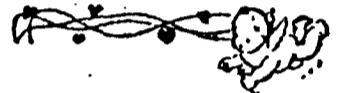

Expressions in creative dancing will be presented by Mrs. B. J. Dittmar and members of her dancing class at 7 tonight in Atherton Lounge.

The dancing program will be given during the monthly meeting of the Association of Childhood Education.

Through the Looking Glass

by Jan

Gentle Reader:

"This little volume has been published in a desire to celebrate love from January to December; for true sentiment need know no single Valentine's Day, but rather should flourish and deepen each day of the year. May cupid speed it on its journey, and Saint Valentine, patron saint of lovers, bless the true in heart."

"Love Poems and Love Letters for all the Year," begins like this. It is one of the colorful and charming Peter Pauper editions that Ethel Meserve now has for just $1.00. There is another, "Cupid's Almanack," which is a collection of epigrams, both are lovely gifts for your valentine.

Lover Come Back

The perfect time of the year to patch up a lover's quarrel is now! When else could you find the perfect saying on a clever greeting card to express your sentiments. Ethel's has a fast diminishing collection of cards that are the last word in Valentine greetings. From a sophisticated "Slim Jim" card to jacey "Hearts and Flowers," you'll find them at Ethel's now. She even has a slew of funny valentines to send to all your friends. Hurry down today and take your pick.

Many Splendored Thing

A "Merry Mouse" is another gift item that you can't pass up. For just $2.50, Ethel's has a mouse for jewels. Further explanation? It's a stuffed animal about 7 inches high with large felt ears and arms that stand away from the body. You can clip earrings on the ears, sling bracelets over the arms and put pins all over the body. It even has a tag on its arm that says "To My Valentine."

P.S. Ethel also has the jewelry to go on the mouse.

Come in and browse today for your Valentine. Remember, February 14 is the big day.

112 E. COLLEGE AVE.

Tickets are being sold this week on the mall and at the Hetzel Union desk. Regular admission tickets are $1 and reserved seats are $1.50.

Coeds and others wishing to enter the contest may register at the HUB desk. The first 100 to register will receive a reserve seat ticket for the show. Photographs of the entrants are not required. Registration will close at 5 p.m. tomorrow.

15 to Be Chosen
Fifteen girls will be selected from the entries Thursday night by a screening committee of APhiO members and their advisers.

The entrants have been asked to appear at 7 p.m. Thursday in rooms 214, 215, 218 HUB for the preliminary judging.

The 15 entrants chosen by the screening committee will appear during the hypnotic show to be judged by a panel of five.

The judges will select five finalists, each to receive a trophy. The winner will be crowned "The Girl with the Most Hypnotic Eyes."

Fund to Get Proceeds
Proceeds from the show will benefit APhiO's scholarship fund.

Howard Klein is billed as the nation's foremost hypnotist. During World War II, when Klein was serving with the U.S. Army Medical Corps, he was asked to hypnotize a captured captain of a German submarine. The captain reportedly revealed vital secrets while under hypnosis.

It is claimed that the hypnotist has stopped persons from over-eating, excessive drinking and smoking, stuttering, fear of water, fear of animals and other deeply rooted phobias.

Klein will demonstrate during his show Saturday night, using any volunteers from the audience, the cure for excessive tobacco smoking.

Chess Club Sets Tournament Date

The Chess Club will begin its annual club championship tournament on Feb. 13.

The tournament will last for seven weeks with one game played every Wednesday night. There will be a trophy for first place and several additional prizes.
