

Half-Holiday Favored By Soph Group

The Sophomore Class Advisory Board unanimously went on record Wednesday night as favoring a permanent half-holiday in the University calendar.

Similar motions on a permanent half-holiday were passed by other organizations last semester.

The board also voted to crown a sophomore queen at the "Flirtation Fling," the sophomore dance to be held March 9. Any sophomore woman is eligible and the finalists will be chosen by the board.

Applause Will Decide
The queen will be chosen according to the amount of applause she receives from the students attending the dance.

The board decided that cocktail dresses and suits will be proper dress for the dance.

Tickets may be obtained at the Hetzel Union desk at a later date and one person in the couple must be a University student of sophomore standing.

Chairmen Listed
John Sopko, sophomore class president, appointed the following students as chairmen of the dance committee: Barbara Blake, queen chairman; Samuel Parsons, band chairman; Noel DeCavalcante, publicity chairman; Juri Niiler, intermission chairman; Florence Kushner, refreshments chairman; David T. Allison, checking and public address chairman; and Valentina Kopach, decorations chairman.

Spring Week--

val but Cabinet postponed the decision.

Spring Week is scheduled to begin with preliminaries for the He-Man contest Saturday afternoon April 27. A motorcade, including finalists for the Miss Penn State and He-Man contests, several University organizations and high school groups from Central Pennsylvania, will precede the coronation of Miss Penn State, Monday, April 29.

Miss Penn State was crowned last year by Pamala Ulrich, Miss Pennsylvania, and Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, former president of the University.

The Spring Week carnival will be held Tuesday and the Mad Hatter's parade Wednesday. The two days are interchangeable in case of rain.

The music festival will take place Thursday and the week will be climaxed by the Senior Prom Friday.

Wanted: Old Collegians

The Daily Collegian needs about 60 copies of Tuesday's paper for files and certain subscribers.

The circulation staff has requested anyone with copies to bring them into the Collegian office and place them in the circulation staff's box.

Ham Radio Station Work on Display In Waring Lobby

The amateur radio station, W3YA, is the subject of an exhibition in the lobby of Waring Hall.

The exhibition combines historical information about the station with a display of electronic devices used by the station in radio transmission.

A large map of the world is displayed with a series of cards that indicate contacts the station has made with all parts of the world. These cards have been accumulated by the station in its nearly 50 years of operation.

One part of the display features a card mailed by a Hungarian amateur who heard the station in contact with another European station last December. The card indicates that even while Hungary was in the midst of a revolution, people were still listening to the free world.
