Sororities To Continue 'Chat Dates'

Second "chatter dates," the final rushing event this week, will begin this afternoon and continue until tomorrow night.

The procedure for these "chatter dates" will be the same as for the last round, Barbara Nicholls, Panhellenic Council president, has announced. Sororities should return invitations to the Panhellenic post office in Women's Building by 8 a.m. today.

Post Office Opens Early

Rushes may receive invitations from 10:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. The post office will open 30 minutes earlier today than it did Monday to accommodate the large numbers of women waiting to receive invitations. This extension was made necessary by the congested conditions which occurred Monday.

Hours Announced

Rushes may accept five invitations. The hours will correspond to those of Monday and yesterday. The first "chatter date" today will be held at 2 p.m. and the last at 7:15 p.m. Tomorrow's will last from 1 p.m. until 7:15 p.m. School clothes should be worn. Invitations must be answered promptly, Miss Nicholls emphasized. Mrs. R. Mae Shultz, assistant dean of women, will be available to answer questions. The next rushing function will be parties on Monday night. Rushes may accept two invitations.

Leisner to Speak At Graduate Club

The English Graduate Club will present a program of poetry by Dorothy Roberts Leisner, State College, at 8 p.m. tomorrow in 214-215 Hetzel Union.

Mrs. Leisner will read and comment on her selections. Some of her published poems have appeared in two collections, "Best Poems of 1955" and "Best Poems of 1954," annual volumes issued by Stanford University.

The program is open to the public.

New Units to Offer Coeds More Comfort

Coeds moving into the new residence hall units will find the latest in comfortable and convenient campus living.

The four buildings, composed of two units joined by a glass-enclosed stairwell, will each contain two sorority lounges, a large recreation room, a common lounge, four study lounges, in addition to the well-equipped, well-appointed member of the Health Service. living rooms.

From the recreation room on the ground floor, stairs lead into a common lounge directly above it on the first floor.

From this lounge, doorways lead onto the hall which separates the two sorority lounges, both lounges being located in only one unit of each building.

Lounges Partitioned

The sorority lounges are partitioned from the living quarters so that the sororities may entertain men students. Each lounge is to be equipped with a kitchenette.

The residence rooms are located on four floors of the units.

The walls of the rooms are of painted concrete block. The beds are studio-style, located on adjacent walls under combination side-boards and bookshelves.

Rooms Have 2 Closets

On the wall to the left of the door are two wardrobe closets. Further along the wall is one of the desks and the built-in chest-of drawers.

The other desk is on the opposite wall at the foot of the bed.

The fourth wall contains a large four by six foot window, and mounted on the wall so that they are situated over the desks are two built-in overhanging desk lamps. A wall telephone is also mounted there.

4 Lounges in Units

There are four study lounges in the buildings, one of them on the third floor of the units which contain sorority lounges, and one on each of the upper three floors of the other units.

The one central dining hall is located in the middle of the four buildings. Access to it is gained through covered walks from each of the four residence halls.

There are four rooms in it, each serving one of the residence buildings.

The eight living units are named after the following persons:

Unit Honors Haller

Barbara S. Haller, mother of a former dean of the College of Chemistry and Physics, who was advisor and honorary member of Mortar Board and Chi Omega sorority; and Dr. Hannah McK. Lyons, from 1931 to 1939 a member of the Board of Trustees.

Others are Cordelia L. Hibbs, from 1947 until her death in 1955, assistant to the Dean of Women in charge of housing, and also advisor to Mortar Board and Kappa Phi and Dr. Anna O. Stephen, from 1941 to 1945 and from 1947 until her death in 1953, a staff

Also honored are Rebecca Ewing and Ellen Cross, first two women students at Penn State; Anna M. Cooper, first lady principal, serving from 1878 to 1883; and Jane W. Hoyt, preceptress who was the first person in charge of women students.

Will House 1064 Coeds

The buildings, which will house 1064 women residents, were scheduled to open next fall. But interruptions by the weather and a month-long strike have altered these plans.

Two of the buildings will probably open in the fall, but dining facilities and the other two halls will not open at least until the following spring semester.

Oklahoma Lit Prof To Speak on Paris

Ernest Erich Noth, editor and manager of Books Abroad and professor of comparative literature at the University of Oklahoma, will speak Tuesday at the University.

His lecture, which is scheduled for 3 p.m. in 121 Sparks, will be "Paris: A Writers' Workshop."
