

Hancock, Schwendeman to Start

Lion Cagers Host Tough Bison Five

By VINCE CAROCCI

Sophomore's Tom Hancock and Greg Schwendeman will make their first starting appearance of the season when the Nittany cagers test a tough Bucknell squad tonight at Recreation Hall.

The Lion-Bison freshman teams will play in a preliminary contest at 7 p.m. The varsity encounter will start immediately after the frosh game.

Coach John Egli, after watching his player-experiment in action for the past three practice sessions, decided to go with the gamble in hopes of reinstalling the early-season drive into the cager offense.

Hancock will replace veteran Bob Ramsay at center, while Schwendeman will start at guard with Steve Baidy probably switching to forward in place of Ron Rainey.

Captain Bob Leisher will handle the other guard slot with sophomore Bob Edwards joining Baidy at forward.

Egli realizes that he is taking a gamble in benching Rainey, the team's leading scorer, but he feels that now is the time for drastic action with Penn and West Virginia on tap this weekend.

According to Egli, both Schwendeman and Hancock were impressive in practice. Schwendeman, although weak on defense because of his height—he's only 5-9—has been playing top offensive ball of late. His accurate set shooting won the Army game and almost pulled a victory out of the fire against Navy.

Hancock, one of the top rebounders on the club, was the key figure in the second Rutgers win with his rebounding and scoring. According to Egli, he is improving steadily with experience and should be ready to handle a starting berth.

Egli was impressed with the cager's aggressiveness during the past three practice sessions. He singled Baidy out as the most consistent aggressive player on the team, but commended all the players for their drive during the workouts.

The Lion mentor is looking for a close contest with the Bisons. "Bucknell's going to be tough... this is probably their best club in years," he said.

The Bisons, 11-5 on the season, who have played some of the top teams in the east in Pitt, Lafayette and West Virginia Tech, were upset by Wagner last Saturday night, 70-57.

Hal Danzig, 6-6 center, and Joe Bacelli have been Bucknell's two leading scoring threats with Co-Captain Marty Tannenbaum a close third. All three are expected to be in Coach Ben Kribb's starting lineup tonight.

The remainder of the Bison lineup will probably be selected from Bob Ericson, Ellis Harley, John Strizzi or Dick Kniffen. Any or all of the aforementioned group could break into the starting lineup.

Varsity 'S' to Meet

The Varsity "S" Club will hold its first meeting of the spring semester tonight at 10 p.m. at Delta Tau Delta.

Athletic winners, whether members or not, are invited to attend.

Town House advertisement with details about a meeting and event.

Frosh Five Face Bisons In Home Cage Opener

Penn State's freshman basketball team makes its initial appearance before the home fans against Bucknell tonight at 6:30 on the Recreation Hall court.

The Lion frosh enter the contest with an 0-1 record, after dropping a 74-48 decision to Navy last week. Bucknell has lost but two of its games, having played several more tilts than has Penn State.

Coach Don Swegan will send the same lineup against the Bisons that started in the Navy encounter. Paul Sweetland will handle the center post, Lou Meyers and Frank Magalski will open at forwards, and Wally Colender will play one of the guard slots, while Larry Freedman and Mel Ramey battle for the other. Ramey's bid comes on the strength of his fine second-half performance against the Middies.

Magalski and Meyers have given the Lions both speed and additional board strength. Magalski's biggest offensive weapon is a two-hand set, while Meyers employs an accurate hook shot.

Colender is the team's best shot from the floor, and did a fine job on defensive rebounding at Navy. Freedman and Ramey, the Lion playmakers, have shown fair jump shots.

Brown Heavy Pick To Retain Title

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 12 (AP)—Joe Brown's right hand and Wallace (Bud) Smith's legs are the main factors in tonight's 15-round lightweight title match in which Brown is a top heavy favorite to retain the crown he took from Smith in August.

Chris Dundee, co-promoter with the International Boxing Club, expects a sellout crowd of 4,000 and a $20,000 gross gate at the Miami Beach auditorium which will be housing its first championship fight.

See the CENTURY and other VH shirts at Hur's Mens Shop

Hur's is conveniently located on E. College Ave. to serve you everyday in all of your clothing needs.

HOW WAS THE CROOK TOOK?

QUIMBY, WISC. (March 3). Police today arrested the foul felon who heisted the cash register at Jones' Gas Station. When arrested, the base servant of the devil kept muttering, "Drat the shirt, drat the shirt."

Let's look at the events leading up to this story. After the holdup, the police quizzed Victim Jones. Jones couldn't identify the yegg. "The wanton jackdaw who cabbaged my cash wore a mask," said Jones. "The only distinguishing feature about him was his shirt. A beauty! The collar was absolutely free of wrinkles. Oh, he was a neat one!"

Meanwhile, the scoundrel, knowing that his wrinkle-free and enviably-neat collar was a dead giveaway, tried desperately to slip some wrinkles into it. He stamped on it with hobnail boots. He slugged away at it with a club. But not a wrinkle! So later, as he skulked down Main Street, his shirt was noticed, admiringly, by a detective and he was arrested lickety-split. Good work, copper!

By now you will have guessed that the miscreant wore a Van Heusen Century Shirt. But of course! It's the only shirt in the world with the soft collar that won't wrinkle ever. It never needs starch, so it's always comfortable. The Van Heusen Century also lasts up to twice as long as ordinary shirts, yet costs no more. $4.00. Phillips-Jones Corp., 417 Fifth Ave., New York 16, N. Y.

Syracuse, Cornell, Pitt Matmen Win

If the weekend wrestling results are any indication of the strength of the remaining opponents on the Penn State wrestling schedule, then the Lions are in for trouble.

All three of the foes came through with impressive victories. Syracuse, who the Lions face this weekend at Syracuse, defeated Army, 17-11; Cornell swamped Brown, 20-6; and three-time Eastern champion Pitt beat Lehigh, 15-9.

In other eastern results Harvard edged Columbia, 15-11; Rutgers beat Colgate, 22-8; Princeton trounced Penn, 25-5; and Franklin and Marshall topped Springfield, 17-9.

Falls were as scarce as snowballs in June at the Syracuse, Cornell, and Pitt meets. Syracuse and Colgate recorded only one fall apiece against their respective opponents and Pitt and Lehigh scored all of its points on decisions.

Deitmeyer, Syracuse's heavyweight, picked up the five points for the Orange while four of his teammates were winning decisions rather handily. Ed Carlin, 123, George Creason, 130, Lavanhar, 157, and White, 177, were the other winners for the New York school.

Cornell lost only the 137 and 147 pound matches in its runaway over Brown. Carmon Molino registered the only fall for the Big Red when he threw Dick Wood in 2:12.

Frank Smith, Brown's captain at 137, maintained his undefeated streak when he defeated Chuck Gratto. Smith is rated a dark horse for the Eastern Tournament.

Vic DeFelice, Bob Bubbs, and Bob Richardson were the only losers in the Panther triumph over Lehigh.

DeFelice was the biggest loser, having his 137-pound unbeaten skien stopped by Joe Gratto, 16-6. Bill Hullings, Ed Peery, Ted Bienkowski, Dave Johnston, and Ron Schirf won decisions for the Pittsburghers.

Handball Entries

Entries for the 1957 handball singles tournament are due at 4:30 p.m. today in 202 Recreation Hall.

An organization may enter four men in the tournament, while independent students may enter as unattached individuals.

HERE IS THE THIRD TIE-BREAKER IN OLD GOLD'S

TANGLE SCHOOLS

PUZZLES

TIE-BREAKING PUZZLE NO. 3

CLUE: This West Coast state university, chartered in 1868, has campuses at various locations throughout the state. Degrees in oceanography are among those conferred by this institution.

CLUE: Named for its founder, who also founded the Western Union Telegraph Company, this eastern university has many schools, among which is one for hotel administration.

ANSWER 1 _____

ANSWER 2 _____

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____

College _____

Note: Above puzzle requires 2 answers. Hold answers for mailing instructions.

All participants who completed the initial set of twenty-four puzzles correctly are required to solve a series of eight tie-breakers, in order to compete for the prizes in the tie.

Remember—first prize is a tour for two around the world and there are 85 other valuable prizes.

NO OTHER CIGARETTE CAN MATCH THE TASTE OF TODAY'S OLD GOLDS

Regulars—Kings—or Filters, today's Old Golds taste terrific... thanks to an exclusive blend of the finest nature-ripened tobaccos... so rich... so light... so golden bright!