

2nd Dock Strike Persists; U.S. Denies Atlantic Ports Paralyzed Charges Of Aggression

NEW YORK, Feb. 13 (AP)—The second dock strike in three months today held tight grip on Atlantic ports from Maine to Virginia.

Mile upon mile of busy waterfront subsided to almost ghostlike silence.

The International Longshoremen's Assn. said its renewed contract strike was 100 per cent effective among its 45,000 dockers. No one disputed the estimate.

Deferred Pay For Schools Gains Support

HARRISBURG, Feb. 13 (AP)—Rep. Andrews S. Moscrip (R-Bradford) said today the Republican-controlled Legislature should pay $33.5 million in deferred state aid to school districts even if it means new taxes.

"I don't see any way of getting out of it," he said. "It's a moral obligation that must be paid. Some school districts, if they don't get it, will just have to give up."

Rep. Johnson, House Republican floor leader, conceded the $33.5 million subsidy was not figured in a recently unveiled GOP plan for no new taxes to balance the budget.

"The matter of the $33.5 million appropriation will be the first order of business at the Republican caucus Monday," Johnson said.

"Actually, I have not had the opportunity to really give the proposal much study," he added.

The two lawmakers made their statements at the close of a "working day" Wednesday session which saw 153 of 209 representatives answer the roll.

Religious Film To Be Shown

The motion picture, "Fire on the Heather," the story of Scotland's heroic struggle against religious tyranny, will be shown at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Schwab Auditorium.

The dramatic sequences recreate the failure of Roman conquest in the Border Country, Columba's introduction of Christianity to the King of the Picts, John Knox' battle for reform during the reign of Mary Queen of Scots and the bloody era of the Covenanters seen through the martyr's eyes of John Brown of Priesthill.

"Fire on the Heather" climaxes with a demonstration of Scotland's efforts to return to the faith of her fathers, as the Billy Graham crusade in the city of Glasgow is visited for a glimpse of the crowds in Kelvin Hall. The film is sponsored by the Bible Fellowship, and there will be no admission charge.

After 1861 students left school periodically to enlist in the army for the Civil War. So many had left by 1863 that classes were suspended from June to September.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Feb. 13 (AP)—The United States today denounced Soviet charges of U.S. aggression as "absurd" and a "mockery" of the purposes of the United Nations.

A delegation spokesman made his comment as the United States completed hurried preparations to blast back at the Soviet Union in the Steering Committee of the UN Assembly.

In a letter to the Assembly president, Prince Wan Waithayakon, of Thailand, the Soviet delegation accused the United States yesterday of aggressive actions around the globe.

It said these actions "create a threat to peace and security" and asked the Assembly to consider the complaint without delay.

The Western reaction was quick. The U.S. delegation spokesman retorted that they felt that at the present time the General Assembly is dealing with an agenda containing too crucial matters, to tax it with these charges.

Episcopalians Name Rector

The Rev. John R. Whitney, associate rector, will succeed the Rev. Jones B. Shannon as rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in State College on March 1.

Reverend Shannon will become executive director of the national Episcopal Church's Society for College Work.

Reverend Whitney received his B.A. in economics from Brown University, his M.A. degree from Alfred University and received his B.D. degree from the Virginia Theological Seminary.

He is chairman of the State College Hungarian Guest Committee, chairman of the University Christian Association personnel committee and a member of the executive council of the Episcopal Diocese of Harrisburg.

He has been associate rector of St. Andrew's since coming to State College in 1953.

McDonald Leads Race

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 13 (AP)—David J. McDonald, a career unionist bidding for election to a second term as president of the United Steel Workers, today held a commanding lead on the basis of incomplete unofficial reports from local and district union offices.

Peace talks were not broken off. But they lacked the optimistic zip of yesterday's prestrike negotiations. The nation's top labor peacemaker, James F. Finnegan, national director of federal mediation, remarked:

"Things are rocking along satisfactorily but no speed records are being broken."

Effort Fails
Finnegan flew in from Washington Monday in a vain effort to head off the strike. It got underway, however, with the expiration Tuesday night of an 80-day Taft-Hartley injunction that interrupted last November's waterfront strike.

Mediators conferred with both sides during the afternoon. Sessions broke up in early evening on a slightly rising note of hope.

Hopes Rise
Alexander Chopin, chairman of the shippers' bargaining group, told reporters:

"With any reasonableness on the part of the union we can reach a contract tomorrow."

And ILA Counsel Louis Waldman said:

"I feel more optimistic in view of all that happened during the day that the matters outstanding will be resolved shortly."

Latest word from Washington was that the government had no present plans to intervene in this strike, as it did in November.

Civil Rights Debate Prolonged by Rebs

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13 (AP)—Southerners, battering at civil rights legislation as evil, dangerous and a "bunch of garbage," wrung from a House Judiciary subcommittee today a 12-day respite before hearings are halted.

The time element is important to chances of passing such legislation. Delaying tactics at every turn are a Southern stratagem.

Twice before the subcommittee had yielded to Dixie protests and kept the hearings going. Now, instead of ending tomorrow, another round of testimony is set for Feb. 25-26.

Egypt Perplexes Diplomats

WASHINGTON (AP)—Diplomatic vately, however, that Egypt has quarters reflected confusion today not given any specific assurance on the critical question of whe- and it is too early to tell what ther Egypt will go along with the reaction of President Abdel the Dulles plan to persuade Israel Gamal Nasser's government will to withdraw troops from occupied, be, Egyptian areas.

At the State Department it is said that essential element of the proposition were given to Egypt—some American officials believe—or want to believe—that Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud has already given assurances of Fawzi at the United Nations in cooperation.

LITERATURE CAN BE SCREAMS!

To save you tiresome days of reading, days that can be more happily devoted to healthful winter activities like skiing, tobogganing, and three card monte, this column today presents digests of some classic novels that are sure to come up in your lit courses.

The Scarlet Letter

This is a heart rending story of a humble Boston lass named Hester Prynne who is so poor that she does not have enough to eat, nor a roof to cover her head. But she is a brave, brawny lass and she never complains and by and by her patience is rewarded: in the summer of 1859 she wins a football scholarship to Alabama.

Hester works hard and makes the varsity and wins her letter. Everybody says she is a shoo-in for All-Conference honors, but along comes the War Between the States, and football, alas, is dropped for the duration.

She was a Shoo-in for All-Conference honors.

Poor Hester goes back to Boston. It is a bitter cold winter, and poor Hester, alas, does not have a roof over her head, and the only warm clothing she owns is the football sweater from Alabama, but that, alas, has a big scarlet "A" on the front of it, and she can hardly wear such a thing in Boston where Union sentiment runs so high.

Poor Hester, alas, freezes to death.

Little Women

The Marches are a very happy family—and for no reason whatsoever. They are poor as snakes; they work from cockcrow to evensong; their dear old father Philip is away with the Union armies; and their mattresses are lumpy.

Still, nothing can dampen the spirits of madcap Meg, jocular Jo, buoyant Beth, animated Amy, and crazy old Marmee, as the merry March girls lovingly call their lovable mother.

Well sir, one Christmas the March girls get an invitation to a ball. But Beth reminds the sisters that they can hardly go traipsing off and leave poor Marmee alone at Christmas time. The sisters swear a lot, but they finally agree with Beth.

Marmee, however, will not hear of it. "Land's sake, little women!" she cries. "You must go to the ball and have some fun. There will be punch and ginger snaps and confetti. Best of all, there will be morris dancing. Oh, how your father and I used to love that!"

"I never knew father could dance," cries Meg.

"Oh, yeah?" cries Marmee. "You should have seen Philip morris!"

"Was Philip a good morriser?" cries Jo.

"The best," cries Marmee. "Philip could morris in long size and regular and was full of natural goodness and fresh and firm and unfiltered too."

The girls are cheered to hear this and go to the ball. Marmee stays home all alone, but soon gets a wonderful surprise: Philip comes back from the war!

When the girls return from the ball, they find Marmee and Philip morrissing, and they cry "Huzzah!" and throw their bonnets in the air, where they are to this day.
