

Cagers Face Penn Tonight

By VINCE CAROCCI
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 15—Penn State's scrappy basketball team embarks on the first lap of a two-game weekend here tonight when it battles Pennsylvania at the Penn Palestra.

The Lions will return to University Park tomorrow morning for an 8 p.m. engagement with Rod Hundley and the West Virginia Mountaineers at Recreation Hall.

Although the Mountaineers pose a threatening problem to Coach John Egli and his quintet, Penn is the foremost problem on their minds right now.

Despite the fact that the Lions romped over the Quakers, 85-59, in their first meeting of the year in the Richmond Christmas Invitation Tournament, Egli realizes that Penn can be tough, especially on its home floor.

"Penn has potential," he said. "They were more worried about playing a grudge game than a basketball game the first time we met and fouled us. We beat them from the foul line."

Egli was undecided as to his starting lineup for the Quaker contest. He said he would probably start Bob Edwards at center, Tom Hancock and Ron Rainey at forward, and Steve Baidy and either Dick Schwendeman or Captain Bob Leisher at guard.

Egli said he probably wouldn't be certain until shortly before game time.

Schwendeman has been playing standout ball for the Lions in their last three games. He hit on two clutch set shots in the late minutes of the Bucknell

Greg Schwendeman
Tiny set-shot artist

Tom Hancock
Tough rebounder may start

game to tie the score and give the Lions the opportunity they needed to win.

According to Egli, Schwendeman, when he takes his time, is as good a shot as any man on the team. He is gaining more confidence with the additional experience he receives and is one of the best hustlers on the club.

Although Leisher's heady, quarterbacking floor game has not slacked off noticeably, Egli feels that the Lion captain may be a bit tired. "The rest might do him some good," Egli said.

The Lions played a tough defensive game against the Bisons Wednesday night and Egli expects to go with his standard 3-2 sliding zone. He will switch to a 2-1-2 if necessary, he said.

Penn, who will carry a 5-11 record into the game—the Lions are 12-6—works a fast breaking offense with a lot of drive. The Quakers are capable of playing either a zone or man-to-man defense.

Coach Jack McCloskey is expected to go with Captain Lou Bayne (6-2), Dick Csencsitz (6-4), Alex DeLucia (6-1), Gerry Nensel (5-11) and Howard Gathright (6-3) in his starting lineup. John Mangan (6-3) or Allen Schwait (6-3) could possibly break into the first five.

Fraternity 'B' Bowling Action Featured by Ties, Shutouts

Two ties, three shutouts, and a forfeit spotlighted bowling results in the league B of the fraternity division Wednesday night.

Coming from behind to score a draw was Alpha Chi Sigma in its battle with Triangle. A Chi Sigma won the third game and total pin count to tie Triangle, led by Al Mikeska and Howard Reich, who posted 196 and 496 scores respectively.

Theta Chi and Phi Epsilon Pi battled to a 2-2 stalemate. Theta's Jim Starr was high single game man with 189 while Milt Poulshock rolled a 459 series for Phi Ep.

Scoring 4-0 wins were Phi Kappa, paced by Dennis Uhrin and Bob Kunda, over Kappa Sigma; Delta Theta Sigma tripped Phi Mu Delta, with Joe Frith and Bob Miller leading the victors; and Alpha Sigma Phi, sparked by the fine performance of Bob Johnson, downed Delta Chi.

Posting a forfeit victory was Sigma Chi over Alpha Epsilon Pi, 4-0.

Webb, Rivers Meet Tonight

NEW YORK, Feb. 14 (AP)—Spider Webb, another successful graduate of the 1952 U. S. Olympic boxing team, seeks his 10th consecutive professional victory tomorrow night in a ten-rounder with muscular Neal Rivers, 22, at Madison Square Garden.

Spider, 25, is a 3-1 favorite.

Webb, a native of Tulsa and now a Chicagoan, has compiled an impressive 19-1 record in an Army-interrupted career. In less than two years of actual pro battling, he has zoomed to a No. 4 ranking among the challengers for champion Gene Fullmer's crown.

WIMMER'S
SUNOCO

E. College
1/2 block from
Simmons

Calcium Chloride on the streets and roads is injurious to paint and chrome.

... So during this snowy period we will expertly scrub the exterior of your car for $1.00.

WIMMER'S SUNOCO

Phone AD 8-6143

Big Ten Champion Wolverines Meet Lion Trackmen Tonight

By GEORGE FRENCH
Chick Werner will send his varsity track squad against a powerful Michigan aggregation tonight in Ann Arbor.

Michigan has won the Big Ten indoor and outdoor championships for the past two years.

Clyde Thomas, runner-up to Bob Kyasky in the Army meet, senior Dick Winston, and sophomore Chet Cotton will face Big Ten runner-up Jimmy Pace in the 60-yard dash.

Fleet-footed Jim Norton and senior Dave Nash will be the Lion's entrants in the 440.

Ed Moran, holder of the freshman record in the 880, State College's Clem Schoenebeck and senior Ron Lewis will give the Nittanians a strong combination in the 880-yard run.

Schoenebeck, cross-country captain-elect Fred Kerr and cross-country captain Don Woodrow will run the mile with Kerr and Woodrow representing Penn State in the two-mile run.

The 60-yard high and low hurdles will probably be the Lion's strongest event. IC-4A champion Rod Perry, Winston, second to Perry in the Army meet, and sophomore Ted Lopushinsky will attempt to give Werner 18 points in the two events.

Bob Parker, who tied for first against the Cadets, Thomas, and Perry will be the Nittany entrants in the high jump with Winston and Thomas going in the broad jump.

Perry and football tackle Frank

Urban will put the shot against the Wolverine's 59-foot shot putter Dave Owen.

Harry Fuehrer and Ogier Norris will represent the Lions in the pole vault.

Lewis, Nash, Norton and Moran will compete against Michigan's crack mile relay.

Werner's two-mile team of Kerr, Lewis, Woodrow and Moran will run in tomorrow night's New York Athletic Club Relays at Madison Square Garden. Last Saturday the team placed second behind St. Johns in the Millrose Games.

CHALLENGING OPPORTUNITIES

- IN • Avionics • Inertial Systems
- Computers • Missile Guidance
- Jet Engine Fuel Controls

WITH THE ELECTRONICS DIVISION OF

General Motors

Please contact your Placement Director today to arrange for interviews with General Motors recruiting representative

Mr. C. E. Sundeen

who will be on the campus

Friday, February 15

AC SPARK PLUG

THE ELECTRONICS DIVISION

GENERAL MOTORS CORPORATION

MILWAUKEE 2, WIS.

FLINT 2, MICH.

WEST PENN POWER

Nothing but electricity will stretch a dime so far

Ever notice how far your money goes for electric service? If yours is the average home, electricity works for you around the clock for just a couple of dimes or so a day.

What's more, electricity is even cheaper now than it used to be. The average American family is getting about twice as much electricity for each dime today as it did a generation ago.

Can you say that about anything else you buy?

Valuable Wrestlers

Charley Ridenour, now head coach at Pennsylvania, and Sam Harry, Harrisburg attorney, are the only Penn State entries ever to win the most valuable wrestler award in the championship tournament of the Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association. Ridenour won in 1942, Harry in 1946.

Town House
THE TOWN HOUSE
GIVES TO YOU
IT'S OWN
FORMULA FOR FUN
with
JERRY MILLER
COMBO
4:30
6:00