

Lion Cagers Bow to Penn, 77-68

Host WVU, Hundley Tonight

By VINCE CAROCCI
 PHILADELPHIA, Pa. — A hustling Penn quintet handed the Lions their third loss in their last six games by a 77-68 score in the second game of a doubleheader at the Penn Pal-estra last night.

Temple edged Duquesne, 64-60, in the first game.

In the early minutes of the game, the score saw-sawed back and forth as both teams traded baskets. The Lions, sparked by Bob Leisher's two field goals—a set and a drive—grabbed a 10-7 lead with 12:58 left in the period.

Tom Hancock's jump and two foul shots gave the Lions a 14-11 lead after Dick Csensitz scored with two fouls and Joe Bowman with a jump to push the Quaker score to 11.

At that point little Greg Schwendeman, making his second start of the year, took control of the Lion attack to lead a drive to a 33-26 Nittany halftime advantage.

The Nittany Lion cagers will entertain the West Virginia Mountaineers at 8 tonight in Recreation Hall. The Mounties, paced by "Hot Rod" Hundley's antics and scoring, own a 22-3 record this season. All three losses came in tournament play. The 6-4 Hundley is averaging 23.6 points per game this season and is prime All-America material. Another Mountie threat is 6-10 pivot man and rebounder Lloyd Sharrar.

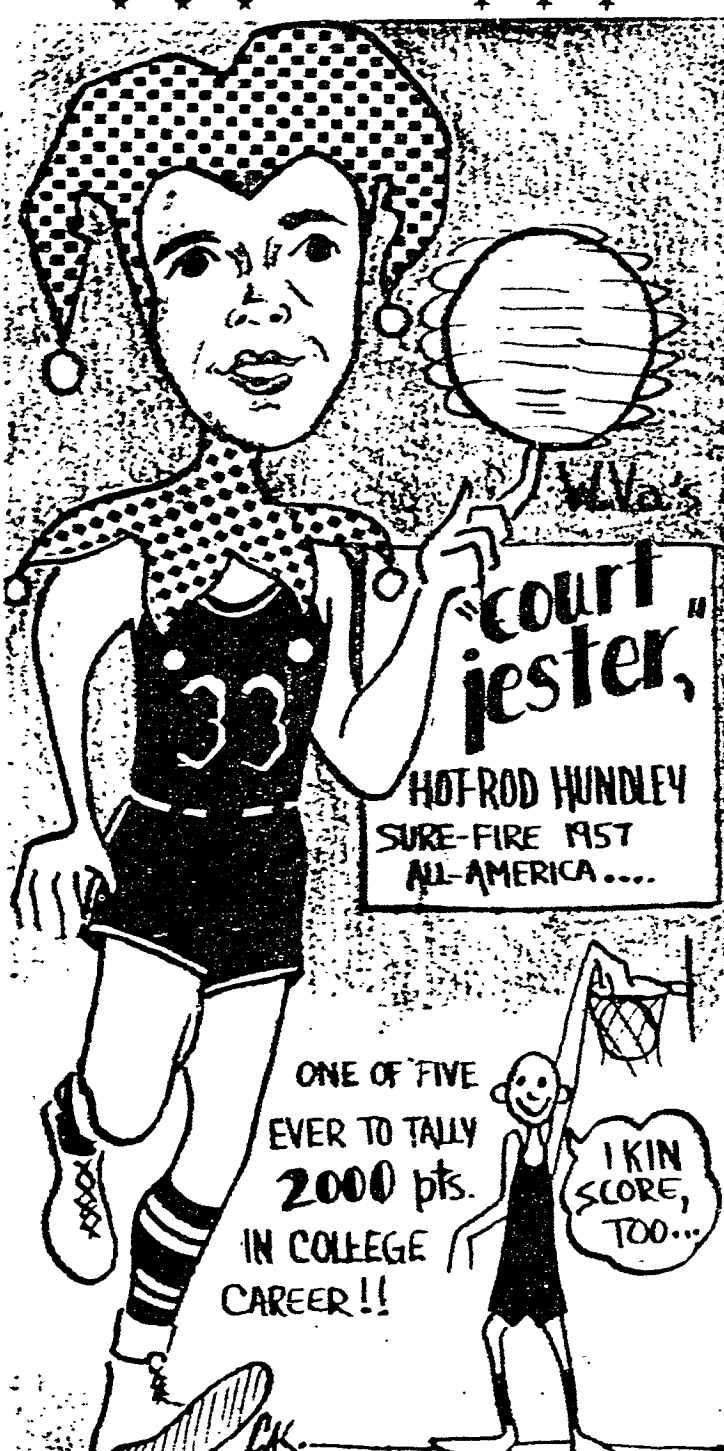

During that period, Schwendeman hit on three set shots and two fouls. Leisher contributed three points to the Nittany surge on a drive up the middle and a foul.

The Nittanians' zone defense, headed by the brilliant inside play of Hancock and Bob Edwards, kept the Lion lead intact. Hancock scored six points in the half and played a sterling defensive game as he blocked several Penn field goal attempts.

Penn was a revamped club in the second half. Using a full-court press and a man-to-man defense, the Quakers completely checked the Nittany offense.

Led by the smart front court play of little Paul Kelso, and the scoring efforts of Csensitz, the Quakers put on a strong rally to grab a 50-48 lead with approximately eight minutes remaining in the game.

Two field goals by Ron Rainey and a foul by Hancock gave the Lions a 38-27 lead in the opening minutes of the half. Kelso and Gerry Nensel took command of the Quaker fast break to cut the Lion lead to 44-40 with 13 minutes left to play. Nensel scored seven points on two baskets and three fouls to spark the Penn drive. Kelso, leading the Quaker fast break, began to find the range with his accurate jump shot to push the Quakers out front 52-50 with approximately eight minutes left. During that time, Kelso tallied six of his 11 points. From then on the Lions fought desperately to regain the lead, but to no avail as the Penn offense, once in motion, kept rolling along, full steam ahead. Schwendeman topped the Lion scorers with 14 points. Ron Rainey, with 12, and Leisher, with 13, were the only other Lions to break the double scoring column. Kelso, with 17 points, led the Penn scorers. Csensitz tallied 15, Bowman 16, and Nensel 14, for the other Quaker double figure men.

Wolverines Down Trackmen, 65-49; Norton, Kerr Shine

The Big Ten Champion Wolverines of Michigan, led by a 58' 5 1/2" heave by All-American shotputter Dave Owen, defeated a game Penn State track squad, 65-49, last night in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

The high point of the meet for the Lions came in the 440-yard run. Jim Norton, a junior from Kearny, N.J., raced neck and neck with Michigan's Laird Sloan, nipping the Wolverine sprinter in 50.8 seconds with a last minute leap into the dirt track.

The Nittany diving team again went into action in the two-mile run with Fred Kerr leaping at the tape ahead of Michigan's Helmar Dollwet in 9:38.3.

Sophomore Ed Moran turned in the most spectacular Lion performance of the evening. Moran won the 880-yard run in 1:56.5 and anchored the mile relay team with a brilliant 49.0 for his 440 leg.

Senior Ron Lewis won third place in the 880. In spite of Moran's tremendous effort, Michigan's Milt Robinson, Dick Flodin, Robin Varian and Sloan finished three-tenths of a second ahead of Penn State in 3:24.6.

Lion Captain Rod Perry captured both the 65-yard high and low hurdles, winning the highs in 8.1 seconds and the lows in 7.6 seconds. Perry also took third in the high jump with a leap of 6' 2".

Dick Winston placed second in the broad jump with a leap of 21' 2 1/2", second in the high hurdles and third in the 60-yard dash for Chick Werner's squad.

Football halfback Jimmy Pace won the 60 in 6.4 for the Wolverines. Michigan's Dollwet captured the mile run in 4:19 ahead of Lion cross country captain Don Woodrow. The Wolverine's Geert Kielsrup, an All-American steeplechaser from Denmark, took third.

With the exception of a tie in the pole vault, Michigan swept the first places in the field events.

Irish champion Brendan O'Reilly took the high jump with a leap of 6' 5 1/2". Lou Williams won the broad jump with a 22' 8" effort.

Downingtown's Ogier Norris, making his best jump in a Penn State track suit, tied for first with the Wolverine's Mamon Williams, with a leap of 13' 4" in the pole vault. The Lion's Harry Fuehrer finished third with 12' 6".

Michigan made a complete sweep of the shot put with Joel Boyden and Bob Crownley taking second and third behind Owen's 58' 5 1/2" heave.

Tonight Werner's two-mile relay team of Fred Kerr, Ron Lewis, Don Woodrow and Ed Moran will enter the New York Athletic Club Relays in Madison Square Garden.

The quartet will face Seton Hall, Duke, Boston University, Holy Cross and Boston College.

'200' Games Feature Action In IM Bowling

Seven 200 games featured Thursday night's action in Fraternity "C" and "D" bowling leagues.

Turning in single-game performances of 200 or better were: Dave Lynch, Pi Kappa Phi (223), Girdon Buck, Alpha Gamma Rho (214), Hugh McClinton, Alpha Gamma Rho (212), Cal Emery, Beaver House (208), Gary Hale, Delta Sigma Phi (202), Ed Wroblewski, Alpha Rho Chi (201), and Bill Kovaleski, Theta Kappa Phi (200). Ed Lyon, Beta Theta Pi's weekly bulwark, and Don Tinsman, Acacia, just missed the "200 Club," registering 199 pins.

PKPhi and Beaver House divided four "D" tilts. Lynch rolled the set's top series, 529. Bede Bender led the Beaver House with a 508 series.

McClinton rolled the best series of the night, a 554 total, to spark Delta Sig to a shutout over Zeta Beta Tau in the "C" league.

TKPhi scored a 3-1 win over Sigma Nu; Beta Theta Pi whitewashed Pi Kappa Alpha; Acacia shut out Sigma Phi Alpha; AGR recorded a 3-1 win over Phi Kappa Sigma; and Chi Phi won three of four from Lambda Chi Alpha.

"D": Phi Sigma Kappa shut out Beta Sigma Rho, Phi Kappa Tau copped three wins from Delta Tau Delta; Alpha Rho Chi scored a 3-1 win over Sigma Tau Gamma; and Sigma Phi Epsilon split with Alpha Phi Delta.

'S' Club to Hear Kadis Drive Plans

A special meeting of the Varsity "S" Club will be held at 10 p.m. tomorrow at Delta Upsilon fraternity.

The club will discuss the fund-raising drive for Dick Kadis, injured Geneva College football player.

Other business to be discussed is the buying of jackets and the dancing classes sponsored by the club.

All "S" Club members, initiated or not, have been urged to attend the meeting.

Theta Kap Halts KDR's Win Skein

The invulnerable law of averages finally overhauled the Kappa Delta Rho basketball team Thursday night. Theta Kappa Phi pulled the biggest upset of the current intramural cage season, eking out a 29-27 win to snap KDR's unbeaten string at 25.

Ron Faris and Dick Dill shouldered the bulk of the winners' scoring load, but Carl Giardini emerged the game's hero, bagging the deciding field goal. Faris and Dill tallied 13 points apiece, and Giardini's three rounded out TK-Phi's point-production.

Pat Reilly, who sank his first four attempts from the field, displaced Billy Kane as KDR's big gun. Reilly tallied 12 counters to pace the losers' attack, while Kane, who suffered the first loss of his IM cage career, was held to eight.

In another fraternity court battle, Ken Fasick netted 10 markers to spark Sigma Phi Epsilon to a 36-28 win over Phi Epsilon Pi. Phi Ep's Dick Lippe also counted 10 points to lead the losing five. Closely played contests marked an independent card tainted by three forfeits.

The Hawks provided the evening's indie highlight, nosing out the Hotshots in a 20-19 thriller. The Terrapins recorded a 25-20 victory over the Clowns. Wilson showed the way for the Terps, firing in 11 points, while Logan, with seven, was the top Clown pointmaker.

Kelley and Whiting paced the Hoyas to a 26-19 decision over the I.I.'s. The pair hit the hoops for 11 counters each to top the Hoya scoring column. Kmetz connected for nine digits to lead the I.I.'s.

On the forfeit ledger, the Red Knight's got the nod over Grande, the Termites took a decision from the Old Ones, and the Nittany Glassers topped the Gunners.

EUROPE
 20 COUNTRIES, 70 DAYS
 SUMMER '57—$1325, all expenses
 EUROPE FOR COLLEGIANS
 254 Sequoia — Pasadena — California

State College TV
 Sells and Services

- Radios
- Phonographs
- TV Sets

State College TV
 232 S. Allen St.

Beginning Sunday

Sally's

will introduce

- New Super SubHos
- The Pizza Steak Sandwich
- Sally's New Giant Burgers
 (1/4-pound of eating pleasure)
 and don't forget our regular size burgers

YOU CAN STILL GET DELICIOUS PIZZA from Sally's

- FAST SERVICE IS OUR SPECIALTY •

PENNA. HIT PARADE
 THESE RECORDS NOW IN STOCK AT THE MUSIC ROOM

Philadelphia

1. Banana Boat Song, Tarriers, Gly.
2. Young Love, S. James, Cap.
3. Singing the Blues, G. Mitchell, Col.
4. Wrangle Wrangle, F. Parker, Dal.
5. Rock-a-Bye Your Baby, J. Lewis, Dec.
6. Too Much, E. Presley, Vic.

Pittsburgh

1. Young Love, S. James, Cap.
2. Too Much, E. Presley, Vic.
3. Young Love, T. Hunter, Dot.
4. Banana Boat (Day-O) H. Belafonte, Vic.
5. Bad Boy, Jive Bombers, Sav.
6. Banana Boat Song, Tarriers, Gly.
7. Moonlight Gambler, F. Laine, Col.
8. Rock-a-Bye Your Baby, J. Lewis, Dec.

THE MUSIC ROOM
 201 N. HARRIS AVE.
 AD 7-2311