

Sororities Allowed to Join Kadis Drive

By FRAN FANUCCI
University officials yesterday granted permission to the Varsity "S" Club and the Daily Collegian to collect donations from sorority groups for the Dick Kadis fund.

This was the second gesture on the part of the University to aid in this fund-raising drive for the injured Geneva College football player. On Thursday the University approved the "S" Club's acquisition of the skating rink Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday in order to collect money.

Varsity "S" Club President Paul Roberts has called a meeting for tomorrow night at Delta Upsilon fraternity for the prime purpose of organizing a group of members who will collect the proceeds at the rink and from sororities.

Roberts said that about 25 cents would be asked from each sorority member.

He added that if each member gave 25 cents it would amount to almost $300 for Kadis, whose medical bills now total over $10,000.

Kadis is suffering from a cerebral hemorrhage and has been virtually unconscious since his accident Sept. 29 in a game with Waynesburg. He is listed in "poor" condition in a Cleveland hospital and is still unable to recognize members of his family.

His father has borrowed $3000 but hasn't too much hope of raising more. Geneva College, which has no insurance covering athletic accidents, raised $1000 but it appears almost impossible that it can raise an additional $10,000 to pay the medical bill.

The "S" Club and the Daily Collegian agreed at a meeting Wednesday night to attempt a drive for the sole purpose of collecting donations in an attempt to defray Kadis' mounting bills.

Since Wednesday the "S" Club has met with nothing than success in its discussions with University officials, who feel that this gesture will definitely be an expression of good will on the part of the students toward another Pennsylvania student.

Students, faculty members, and townspeople are urged to get out to the skating rink on either of the three nights the "S" Club will be in charge. A donation of 50 cents will be charged, although higher amounts will be accepted.

Besides skating privileges, donors will be given an added attraction. Mrs. Marilyn Tammen, 1947 United States junior pair champion, will give a skating exhibition every night between 8 and 8:30 p.m.

The skating rink's season is drawing to a close and according to University sources this may be the final week for skating at the University, with a possibility that it may be allowed open for one more week, depending on the weather conditions.

In a mere formality of "kicking" off the drive, a hat was passed at the Wednesday night meeting of the "S" Club, attended by over 50 members, and $35 was collected.

If this can be an indication of future donations the Dick Kadis' medical bill will surely be reduced.

Matmen Seek to Avert Worst Mark Since '48

Penn State's wrestling team will be out to avert its worst season record since 1948 tonight when the Lions meet surprising Syracuse on foreign soil.

Not since 1948 has Coach Charley Speidel's matmen dropped three matches in one year, but that long span may come to an end tonight.

Syracuse, one of the best teams in the East this year, has the potential to send the Lions home whimpering with defeat.

In that disastrous campaign, nine years ago, the Lions posted a 2-3-2 record. Ironically, Syracuse owned one of those deadlocks, a 14-14 result.

Princeton, Lehigh and Navy were the conquerors of the Nittanians. Army scored the other tie.

Syracuse will also be seeking to avenge a 25-5 beating that the Lions gave them last year. In that meet, the Orangemen's only points came at a default in the 167-pound class.

Four men from each team are back this season and two of them will face the same foe as last year.

Sid Nodland, who is unbeaten in five matches at 123, will get his second chance at the Syracuse ace Ed Carlin, who is 5-1 for the season. Last year, the Lion co-captain pinned Carlin in 2:45 with a cradle.

Johnny Johnston, Penn State's 130-pound specialist, will put his six-match undefeated streak against the 4-2 record of George Creason. In 1956, Johnston decided Creason, 10-3.

John Pepe, 137, and Dave Adams, 147, are the other returning Lions and Gordon Carberry, 157, and Bill White, 177, are back for the Orange.

Pepe and Adams both won decisions last year while White—who is unbeaten this year in six meets —was flattened by Joe Krufka and Carberry was decided by Joe Humphreys.

Pepe, with a record of 5-1, will oppose winless Bob McDermott and Adams, unbeaten but twice tied, will go against either Frank Musgrave or Dick Miranda.

White will throw his undefeated mark at Les Walters—wrestling for the first time since the Lehigh encounter—and Carberry will tangle with Earl Poust. Poust lost his only appearance earlier in the year to an Illinois opponent.

The rest of the starting lineup will find Bruce Gilmore meeting Hal Lavanhar at 167 and Sam Markle taking on Chuck Dinklemeyer at heavyweight.

Gilmore has only one win to show in six outings while Lavanhar has registered a 4-1 slate. Markle is 1-4-1 in his dual encounters and his opponent owns a 1-3-1 mark.

State will be after its 27th win over the Orange since the series began in 1923. In that period the Lions have lost only three while tying once—that being in 1948.

Both clubs have 4-2 records this season and have met two common opponents, Lehigh and Navy. The Engineers beat the Lions, 16-13, and Syracuse, 21-11, while Navy topped Penn State, 14-13, but lost to the Orange, 16-14.

Gymnasts Seek 3rd EIGL Win

Gene Wettstone and his gymnasts meet an improved Syracuse team this evening in Archbold Gymnasium in a meet that could be very important in determining the final outcome of the Eastern Intercollegiate Gymnastic League.

The Nittany Lions have not been pressed in winning their first three games of the campaign. They swamped West Virginia, 60-36; romped Temple, 70½-25½ and vanquished Navy, 63½-32½. Navy and Temple were league outtings.

Syracuse on the other hand shows a 1-1 record. The Orangemen fell before powerful Army, 51-45 and defeated an improved Pitt team, 49-47.

The meet will exhibit some outstanding performers. Coach Paul Romeo's Orangemen have been outstanding in some events and weak in others, while the Lions seem to have a well-balanced attack.

Romeo's team captain, Lowell Meier is one of the better tumblers in the nation.

Chuck Luttinger is the top man on the parallel bars for Syracuse, while it will be Armando Vega leading the way for the Nittanians. Vega, who rates the favorite role on the bars, will receive plenty of aid from sophomore Gil Leu and captain Dion Weissend.

Mike Shipley, Bill Hogeboom and Jack Hall form a strong rope climb team for the home team, but Penn State's Phil Mullen, Dick Rehm and John Hiding are also unbeaten team-wise and the event promises to be one of the most exciting of the evening.

Paul Barkal is the top Orangeman on the side horse. He will be opposed by Walt Hailer, Leu and Jack Beisterfeldt of Penn State in an event in which the Lions appear just a bit stronger.

MEN

with

LIBERAL ARTS

OR

BUSINESS education :::

CONNECTICUT GENERAL NEEDS YOU!

Why? Because we're growing at an exceptional rate.

You might well ask what can our growth mean to you. It means young men with executive and administrative potential can rise rapidly. You might reason correctly that you can grow faster with us.

We're a leader in our field. In ten years the combined assets of all life insurance companies have doubled. Ours have tripled. Impatient men made us grow. They moved on up. Many more are slated to grow up. To fill their shoes and the new career positions rapidly being created we need you.

See your Placement Director for further information about a career with Connecticut General. When you do, make a date to discuss your future with our representative. He'll be on campus soon. Connecticut General Life Insurance Company, Hartford.

P. S. Job offers are made to qualified college men regardless of their military status

IT'S FOR REAL! by Chester Field

HE-MAN DREW

Rich man of the campus was Danny Drew
Because of his wonderful chest tattoo—
A beautiful lady exquisitely etched—
When he flexed his muscles she got up and stretched
His buddies all gave him their hard-earned dough
For the pleasure of watching his pectoral show.

MORAL: Accept no substitute for real enjoyment. Take your pleasure BIG. Smoke Chesterfield and smoke for real. Made better by ACCU-RAY, it's the smoothest tasting smoke today.

Smoke for real... smoke Chesterfield

$50 for every philosophical verse accepted for publication. Chesterfield, P.O. Box 21, New York 46, N.Y.
© Liggett & Ryan Tobacco Co.

