

'Tight Budget' Cut Funds For University—Leader

Gov. George M. Leader said last night that he cut the University's appropriation request before submitting it to the General Assembly to enable him to "go in with a tight budget."

Leader said he decided to submit a "tight budget" in order to avoid a possible fight with the Assembly. He noted that he had carried on a "17-month fight" on the budget two years ago.

HUB to Mark 2nd Birthday

The Terrace Room of the Hetzel Union Building will hold two celebrations this weekend, including the second anniversary of the HUB.

Today the Terrace Room will celebrate its second birthday. A 4-tier cake, complete with two birthday candles, will be placed in the center of the cafeteria. The cake will later be cut and distributed.

Smaller replicas of the cake—the same flavor and icing—will be baked and sold to diners at the evening meal.

On Sunday the Terrace Room will celebrate St. Patrick's Day with a 3-tier cake and a 3-foot-high leprechaun.

The cake, of course, will be green.

Interviews

The following camps will interview applicants for counselor positions in 112 Old Main:

Camp Blue Mountain, Pa., March 16; Clear Pool Camp, N.Y., March 20; Hiram House Camp, Ohio, March 23; Trail Blazer Camps, N.J., March 25; Camp Conrad Weiser Pa., March 26.

Camp Pocono, Pa., March 30; Philadelphia YMCA camps, Pa., March 30; Camp Kon-o-Kwee, Pa., April 6; and Camp Menatoma, Maine, April 26 and 27.

Jablonski to Head Indies

Lorraine Jablonski, sophomore in home economics from West Nanticoke, is the sole candidate for president of Leonides.

According to Rosetta Kearney, Leonides president, Miss Jablonski is the only student who applied for the office.

"I am very disappointed that more women did not apply," Miss Kearney said, "but I feel that Miss Jablonski is very capable for the job." The Leonides Constitution states at least two candidates must run for every office.

Miss Kearney said the constitution will be revised.

Vice presidential candidates are Ruth Herr, junior in education from Lancaster, and Sandra Flory, junior in home economics from Waynesboro.

Candidates for corresponding secretary are Jacquelyn Monaco, freshman in home economics from Ford City, and Linda Segar, sophomore in education from Sayre.

Candidates for recording secretary are Nancy Heyman, junior in education from Ambridge and Barbara Sherman, junior in arts and letters from Philadelphia.

Elections will be held Tuesday.

Leadership Certificates Available at HUB Desk

Certificates of completion for students who took the Leadership Training Course are available at the Hetzel Union desk.

Robert Stroup, chairman of the course, said 196 students—mostly freshmen—completed the full course.

Ike Sails for Bermuda

March 14 (AP)—President Eisenhower sailed tonight for Bermuda on the guided missile cruiser Canberra after a visit at Norfolk with old comrades in arms. The warship's 1,200 officers and men stood smartly at attention as the President boarded.

The first Sunday newspaper in the United States was The Sunday Monitor, which was published in Baltimore December 8, 1796.
