KDR Skein Stopped At 2 Straight

By LES POWELL
Alpha Sigma Phi won the fraternity Intramural basketball title last night with a 57-33 decision over defending champion Kappa Delta Rho.

The Zips copped the indie crown by downing the Gnarps, 39-34. Three Alpha Sigs connected for double figures to thwart KDR's bid for a third consecutive championship. John Jones topped the winners' scoring column with 18 points. Teammates Mike Rohrbach and Lew Lynch backed him up with 14 and 10, and Ralph Brower added nine counters.

Billy Kane was the lone KDR to score in double digits, tallying 13 markers. Ray Alberigi and Stan Cheslock were next with nine and seven.

Brower opened the scoring with a tip-in and a jump shot, and Jones clicked on a fast break to vault Alpha Sig into a 6-0 lead. The winners led, 9-5, at the close of the first quarter.

KDR made its best attempt to overtake their opponents early in the second stanza. After Rohrbach fired in a jump shot, Kane's three-point play, followed by his set shot, narrowed the gap, 11-10.

After that it was all Alpha Sig. Rohrbach and Jones accounted for 10 markers in a 16-point spree that gave Alpha Sig a 27-17 halftime advantage.

The winners widened the bulge to 37-19 early in the third period to put the contest on ice. Jones sparked this surge with three straight field goals.

KDR made a belated attempt to pull the game out of the fire, with Alberigi, Cheslock and Kane netting four straight fielders, but the Alpha Sigs held a 43-29 margin after three quarters.

Brower was Alpha Sig's defensive mainstay, holding sway on the backboards throughout the game in a battle with KDR's big rebounder, Jack Arnst.

The Zips displayed a fine all-round game in capturing the independent laurels. They maintained control of the boards throughout the tilt, and displayed consistent sharp shooting and passing.

Ken Houck, Tom Ferentino and Bill Haddock teamed up to pace the winners' well-balanced offense. Houck tossed in 12 counters, Ferentino contributed 11, and Haddock chipped in with nine.

The losing Gnarps, led by Jan Thompson and Pete Latta, grabbed a 6-2 lead in the opening minutes of play. The Zips then found the range and came back to knot the count, 10-10, at the quarter's end. Houck showed the way, bagging six of his markers.

The Zips pulled away to a 20-11 advantage midway through the second stanza. Ferentino and Dick Yacovoni sparked this series with four counters apiece.

Haddock and Ferentino each notched a pair of field goals in the third period to show the way to a 31-24 edge, which the Zips protected in the final quarter.

Thompson led the losing attack with 10 points. Latta and Hub Schwartzwelder added six each.
