

Campus Makes Clean Sweep

The Daily Collegian

FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

VOL. 57, No. 110 STATE COLLEGE, PA., FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 22, 1957 FIVE CENTS

27% of Student Body Go to Polls to Vote

By BOB FRANKLIN

Campus Party scored a smashing victory last night when its nominees swept to victory in all nine offices in the spring elections for the second time in its 3-year existence.

A total of 2924 students—about 27.2 per cent of those eligible to vote—cast their ballots during the 3-day voting period. A total of 3501 voted in last year's spring elections.

Robert Steele, junior in arts and letters from State College and vice president of the Liberal Arts Student Council, led his slate to total victory by rolling up a better than 2 to 1 margin over James Schry, junior in industrial engineering from Johnstown, the Lion Party nominee.

Steele received 1937 votes. A total of 947 were cast for Schry.

John Rhodes, secretary of the Association of Independent Men Board of Governors, easily defeated Joseph Shea, a member of the Town Independent Council, 1894 to 970.

Joseph Boehret, junior in arts and letters from Riegelsville, trailed Steele by exactly 200 votes with a total of 1737, but won

Parties File No Protests In Elections

By GINNY PHILIPS

No complaints were filed by either Campus or Lion Party with the All-University Elections Committee last night.

The committee met immediately after the polls closed at 9 p.m. last night.

William Johnson, chairman of Elections Committee, said that both parties committed minor violations but they were not enough to deduct any votes.

Called Good Year

"All in all," Johnson said, "this was a pretty good year as far as political parties are concerned." Lion Party spent a total of $350.00 for campaign expenses and Campus Party's expenses came to a total of $384.98.

The expenses of Lion Party, according to a statement turned in to Elections Committee by Chester Zimolzak, treasurer of the party, were 1600 table-tennis advertisements, $40.17; 5000 posters, $114.85; advertising on radio station WMAJ, $53.57; three reams of paper, $6.18; canvas over the Mall, $4.31; advertising on Telecant, $6.80; advertising in The Daily Collegian, $6.00; 4000 fliers, $81.72; paint supplies, $13.39; and The Austin Wells Trio for playing at the Lion Party publicity dance, $23.00.

Campus Party Statement

The Campus Party expenses submitted to Elections Committee by Herbert Levin, treasurer of the party were 8000 posters, $139.00; advertising on WMAJ, $45.00; 5000 fliers, $55.62; 500 blotters, $10.30; 1000 matches, $20.60; 300 glo-colored posters, $58.71; the banner over the Mall, $15.00; checks, $24.00; and 2500 "Dennis the Menace" cartoons posters, $15.00.

Dennis Will Address Plant Science Group

Lawrence E. Dennis, vice president for academic affairs, will speak on "The Changing Nature of the University" at a meeting of the Plant Science Club at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in 111 Tyson.

Dennis will discuss the changes that the University has made and is making in areas of academic affairs.

Hollander, Sellers Win Class Presidency Bids

By PAT EVANS

Campus Party's three candidates for senior class offices—Thomas Hollander, Richard Martin and Jane Carson—were elected in the party's second sweep of senior offices in three years.

Hollander's total vote was 375. His opponent for class president, Robert Yeager, accumulated 322 votes.

In the vice presidential race, Martin had 408 over the 277 of Lion Party candidate, Robert Kaminski.

The closest race was for secretary-treasurer. Miss Carson defeated Sally Stauffer by a vote of 355 to 340.

Hollander gained 54 per cent of the votes. The new senior class president, junior in arts and letters from Monessen, gave this statement to The Daily Collegian last night:

"Deeply Grateful"

"I'm deeply grateful for the opportunity given to me. Many thanks to those who voted for me, and I hope that I'll be able to carry out my duties to their satisfaction."

Martin, junior in pre-veterinary from Philadelphia, collected 59 per cent of the votes. He made this statement:

"I am indeed very happy to have won the election . . . I consider it an honor and a privilege to serve the University in student government and will do my best for this great University. I sincerely thank all those who cast their vote for me."

Carson Gets 51%

Miss Carson, junior in home economics from North Charleroi, received 51 per cent of the votes. She said:

"I wish the officers the best of luck and success for the coming year. May they have the support of the student body, for without it they can do nothing."

Yeager, losing Lion candidate for president, made this statement:

"I think both parties should be commended on the manner in which the campaign was conducted. I know Tom will do an excellent job in serving the future senior class. With his ability he would be an asset to any student government."

By DAVE FINEMAN

Campus Party candidates—George Sellers, Bruce Walsh and Janet Ours—took all three junior class offices last night when the party swept the class elections for the second time in three years.

George Sellers, sophomore in geophysics

and geochemistry from Philadelphia, was elected junior class president; Bruce Walsh, sophomore in business administration from State College, junior class vice president; and Janet Ours, sophomore in business administration from Ridgewood, N.J., junior class secretary-treasurer.

Sellers won out over Lion Party candidate Robert Roth, sophomore in chemical engineering from Scranton in a 494 to 375 vote.

629 For Walsh

A vote of 629 to 247 gave the vice presidency to Walsh over David West, sophomore in business administration from Erie, Lion Party candidate.

Miss Ours' victory was by a 525 to 351 vote over Lion Party's Mariana Moldovan, sophomore in physical education from Farrell.

With victory minutes behind him, new junior class president Sellers said:

"I wish to thank all those who voted for me and were responsible for my election. I will do my best to cooperate with the other members of the student government and uphold good government here at Penn State. I will certainly try to achieve the goals of the Campus Party as set forth in its platform."

'Glad It's Over'

Walsh, the new vice president of the junior class, also wished to thank everyone; he concluded, "It's a lot of work—I'm glad it's over."

In her victory statement, junior class secretary-treasurer Ours said, "I would like to thank everyone for the opportunity afforded me. I feel I have gained a great deal from the experience. I would like to thank everyone for the confidence placed in me, and I will do all that I can to fulfill their expectations."

Unsuccessful candidate for the presidency Roth said:

"I am sure George will do an excellent job as junior class president. I wish to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to all those who helped me campaign and to the students who gave me their support."

Thomas Hollander Senior Class President

George Sellers Junior Class President

Eisenhower, Macmillan Agree on Basic Concepts

TUCKER'S TOWN, Bermuda, March 21 (AP)—President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan today reached "a gratifying measure of agreement" in their talks on how to ease Middle East tension.

An official spokesman for the two leaders put it that way after the President and Prime Minister had discussed Middle East problems for about four hours in two meetings.

Peter Hope, British Foreign Office spokesman, said there still are many details to be worked out. But, he added, "the measure of agreement revealed today was great."

To Bolster Unity

Eisenhower and Macmillan put the Middle East first in their first day of formal consultations aimed at bolstering British-American unity.

At the very outset of their four-day conference at the Mid-Ocean Club they rejected any thought of trying to fix the blame for past differences.

They pledged there would be no recriminations over spilled milk on either side and Eisenhower called British-American friendship the

Lion Predicts Cloudy Skies

The Nittany Lion was recovering this morning from the shock of last night, when he was informed that not only did he lose the election for All-University president, but that he received not one single vote.

The Lion was made even more furious when he was told that the principal reason he fared so badly in the election was that his name was not on the voting machines, and it was therefore impossible for anyone to vote for him. The Lion called this "a lardly bit of foul play," and promised to avenge his defeat by plaguing the new administration at every opportunity.

Today's forecast call for increasing cloudiness, with rain likely in the late afternoon. The high should be between 30 and 35 degrees.

Election Results

Position	Campus Party	Lion Party
All-University Offices
President	Robert Steele, 1937	James Schry, 947
Vice President	John Rhodes, 1894	Joseph Shea, 970
Secretary-Treasurer	Joseph Boehret, 1737	Tyson Moyer, 1131
Senior Class Offices
President	Thomas Hollander, 375	Robert Yeager, 322
Vice President	Richard Martin, 408	Robert Kaminski, 277
Secretary-Treasurer	Jane Carson, 355	Sally Stauffer, 340
Junior Class Offices
President	George Sellers, 434	Robert Roth, 375
Vice President	Bruce Walsh, 629	David West, 247
Secretary-Treasurer	Janet Ours, 525	Mariana Moldovan, 351

Women's Student Government Association results, page 2.

Panhellenic Council results, page 2.

Athletic Association results, page 3.

Women's Recreation Association results, page 3.

May Queen results, page 5.

Leonides results, page 5.