

Leonides Council to Give Academy Awards Satire

A satire on the Academy Awards starring local "BMO's" will be presented by Leonides Council at 7 tonight in the Hetzel Union auditorium.

Among the "actors" will be Sam Valentine, captain of the 1956 football team; Harry Martini, junior class president; Rod Perry, captain of the 1957 track team; Lash Howes, president

Alumni Agents To Hear Talk By Williamson

Dr. Merritt A. Williamson, dean of the College of Engineering and Architecture, will address more than 150 University graduates from Central Pennsylvania who are serving as class agents for the 1957 Alumni Fund.

The meeting, third in the series of seven class agent sessions, is scheduled for 8 p.m. Friday in the Hetzel Union assembly hall.

Dr. Williamson, who has served as a class agent for the Yale University Alumni Fund, will speak on his experiences as an agent.

Michael R. Lynch, instructor in agricultural extension, will present an illustrated talk with colored slides, entitled, "For the Glory of Old State."

Ross B. Lehman, assistant executive secretary of the University Alumni Association, will serve as chairman for the meeting. Other speakers will be Bernard P. Taylor, executive director of the Penn State Foundation, and Ridge Riley, executive secretary of the Alumni Association.

Class agents will receive their campaign materials at the meeting.

Bus Ad Nomination Blanks Available

Second- through sixth-semester students in the College of Business Administration with a minimum 2.2 All-University average may pick up self-nomination blanks for the Business Administration Student Council through Friday in 106 Sparks.

Last Friday was not the deadline to pick up these forms, as erroneously reported in The Daily Collegian.

Two wallet-size photographs must be submitted with the nomination blanks. Elections will be held April 3 and 4 with ballot boxes located in Sparks lobby and in front of the Hetzel Union card-room.

WSGA House to Meet

The Women's Student Government Association House of Representatives will meet at 12:30 p.m. today in the Grange playroom.

The elections committee will report on the Honor Arch and Hemlock Chain. Other May Day committee reports will be heard and discussed.

of the Association of Independent Men; John Arnold, freshman class vice president; and Bob Ramsay, varsity basketball player.

Four "Leos" will be presented for the best movie, the worst movie, the best song and the best foreign film. During the intermission the AIM-Leonides Choir will sing two selections and there will be a "commercial" for Embargo Deodorant.

In the best movie category, six satires will be acted out: "Titan" (Giant), "This Is Your Life, Amnesia" (Anastasia), "Lush for Life" (Lust for Life), "Patience" (Baby Doll) and "The Precipitator" (The Rainmaker).

Rod Perry will sing two songs, "True Love," and "Thee I Love," and The Continentals will sing a rock-and-roll song under the best song category. The Don Early Quartet will also play a rock-and-roll number.

Among the movies up for honorable mention are "Beer Garden of the August Moon" (Teahouse of the August Moon), "The Boy Can't Help It" (The Girl Can't Help It), and "Coffee Break" (Tea and Sympathy).

Only one movie has been "nominated" for the best foreign film: La Strada.

"Tender Love" (Love Me Tender) and "Tolstoy" (War and Peace) will compete for the worst movie award.
