

'Greek' Work Projects Assigned to 65 Groups

Assignments for 42 fraternities and 23 sororities who will participate in Greek Week work projects on Saturday afternoon were released yesterday by Iris Olbum and Robert Steele, co-chairmen.

Approximately 570 fraternity and sorority members will participate in the 21 projects in and around the State College area. Steele and Miss Olbum worked with Eugene M. Fulmer, executive secretary of the State College Chamber of Commerce in arranging the projects.

Maintain Good Relations
The co-chairmen have urged all groups participating in the projects to complete them to the best of their ability. One of the primary purposes of the work projects day is to foster and maintain good relations between sorority and fraternity members and townspeople.

This is the sixth year Greek Week has been held at the University. The plan for Greek Week was originally innovated in 1944 at the University of Minnesota as a Help Week to replace the traditional Hell Week.

275 Women Will Attend Matrix Fete

Invitations have been sent to 275 women for the annual Matrix Table to be held at 6 p.m. April 8 in the Hetzel Union ballroom.

The banquet is sponsored by Theta Sigma Phi, women's professional journalism honorary fraternity, to honor outstanding women on campus.

'Girls' to Be Named
A Quill Girl, Cap Girl and Matrix Girl will be named at the dinner.

The Quill Girl will be chosen from among the presidents of the Women's Student Government Association, Women's Recreation Association, Leonides, Scrolls, Mortar Board and Panhellenic Council. Juniors and seniors voted for her during the WSGA elections.

A hat society woman will be named Cap Girl for having the most varied activities.

Activities Considered
The Matrix Girl will be a woman who has never been tapped by a hat society, but who has an outstanding variety of activities.

Both the Cap Girl and Matrix Girl will be chosen by the members of Theta Sigma Phi.

The banquet is a formal affair. Admission of $2.75 must be paid at the Hetzel Union desk by noon on April 6. Invitation cards must be presented with the admission payment.

Twelve Appointed To WSGA Boards

Twelve women have been selected to sit on Women's Student Government Association Judicial and Freshman Regulations Boards.

New members of Judicial Board are Alice Beebe, Audrey Jersun, Theodora Losasso, Sandra Reimer, Sandra Grotzky, first alternate and Constance Jones, second alternate.

Those appointed to Freshman Regulations Board are Audrey Finney, Dorothy Newman, Susan Graham, Dorothy Toklish, Barbara Stone, first alternate and Gladys Eroh, second alternate.

Chem-Phys Will Meet

The Chemistry and Physics Student Council will meet at 7 tonight in 214 Hetzel Union.

A report on forthcoming council elections will be given. Installation of new officers is also planned.

French Presents Pucker Problems

At last a male has admitted the worldliness of the opposite sex! Trying to help a slow male with his pronunciation a French professor repeatedly told the student to pucker his lips.

Discouraged with the results, the instructor pointed to another student and said, "Mademoiselle is far ahead of you."

Whereupon, "mademoiselle" proceeded to demonstrate the technique of puckering.

"But she's had more experience," interrupted the evidently frustrated male.

Beatty Becomes 'Farmer' Editor; Staff Named

Russell Beatty, junior in horticulture from McKeesport, has been named editor of the Farmer, Forester and Scientist.

Robert Neff, junior in zoology from Pottstown, will be associate editor and Phoebe Trumbauer, junior in medical technology from Lansdale, assistant editor.

Other staff directors are John Streeter, junior in agronomy from Eliwood City, business manager; Walter Trumbauer, sophomore in pre-veterinary from Lansdale, layout editor; Carol Forbes, sophomore in agricultural and biological chemistry from Rockwood, feature editor.

Photography Class Offered to Novices

A three-session class in elementary photography, open to students and faculty, will be given during the month of April by the Camera Club.

The course will begin on April 1. Registration blanks will be available at the Hetzel Union desk until April 9. No fee will be charged, and registrants will be given the time and place of the first meeting when they apply for the course.

Intended to teach only elementary points of photography, the course is designed for people with no experience in photography. Picture taking and darkroom procedures will be covered.

The most popular correspondence course offered by the University is a new one in news-writing.

There isn't a single wooden structure in the capital city of Hamilton, Bermuda. All houses must be built of stone as a fire safety measure.

AIM, Leonides Plan Indie Week Events

The Association of Independent Men and Leonides will celebrate National Independent Students Association (NISA) week April 7 to 13 with "activities aimed at the independent student," according to Norman Hedding, chairman of the committee for the project.

A highlight of the week will be the "Carnival Time" dance, which will be held from 8 to 12 midnight April 12 in the Hetzel Union ballroom. An independent woman will be crowned "NISA Queen" at the dance.

The queen will be selected from a list of finalists to be announced on April 10.

Any independent coed may be entered in the contest by submitting her name and photograph to the Hetzel Union desk before 5 p.m. Friday.

To Include Band
The week of activities will begin on April 7 when Lash Howes, Association of Independent Men president, and Rosetta Kearney, Leonides president, will participate in the chapel service in Schwab.

On April 9, the third day of the week-long program, the AIM band will play at a jam session from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Hetzel Union ballroom.

Tickets to Be Given
A blood drive, to be sponsored jointly by AIM and Alpha Zeta fraternity, will be conducted during NISA week. In order to increase participation in the drive, prizes will be awarded.

The first 100 independent students to give blood will receive tickets to one of the State College theaters.

The dorm or living unit giving the most blood will receive a prize of $10. Two such prizes will be awarded, one for a men's and one for a women's unit.

On April 12 Leonides will sponsor an Easter seal drive in conjunction with borough agencies. Members of Leonides council will sell the seals in borough theaters that night.

Hat Society Cards Due

The deadline for filing activities cards for Androcles and the Blue Key hat societies is 5 p.m. April 10 at the Hetzel Union desk.

Fourth- and fifth-semester men are eligible for membership.

Senior Gowns To Be Ordered

All seniors except those who will be practice teaching during the last eight weeks of the semester may order their caps and gowns at the Athletic Store on the following days:

College of Agriculture, April 1, 2 and 3; College of Education, April 4, 5 and 6; College of Engineering and Architecture, April 8, 9 and 10; Colleges of Liberal Arts and Business Administration, April 11, 12 and 13; Colleges of Chemistry and Physics, Home Economics, Physical Education and Mineral Industries, April 15, 16 and 17.

Students must give their hat size and leave a $5 deposit when placing orders. Invitations and announcements may be purchased at the Hetzel Union desk on the same day.
