

12 Grapplers Score Falls In IM Mat Tournament

By BILL JAFFE

Twelve falls and five decisions were recorded in last night's intramural wrestling matches, including a 30-second pin by Sigma Nu's Jim McLaughlin at 145 pounds.

McLaughlin wasted little time in registering a barrel-roll takedown and then wrapping up Fred Doyle, Beaver House, with a reverse nelson and crotch hold.

In another top bout, Richard Luffy, Kappa Delta Rho, proved a small man can still win by pinning his heavier and more experienced opponent, Sam Kurtz, Acacia, in 5:49 with a body press.

At 135 pounds Eugene Woy, Beta Theta Pi, looked sharp in pinning Jim Boyles, Sigma Phi Alpha, in 1:40 of the second period.

Also at 135-pounds, a very fast and aggressive David Jones, Theta Chi, gave up a first period takedown to Kenneth Gregg, Alpha Gamma Rho, but came roaring back to score a fall at 5:45.

Allen Davies, Phi Sigma Kappa, tallied a 4-0 victory over Gerald Moyer, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, in a 145-pound clash.

Pi Kappa Alpha's Douglas Chidlow worked smoothly against Edwin McLaughlin, Sigma Chi, to throw his foe at the 45-second mark of the second stanza.

In another nip and tuck battle, Howard Van Matre, Alpha Tau Omega, pinned Richard Winn, Beta Sigma Rho, at 2:14 after a close first period.

James Benford, Alpha Sigma Phi, and Frank Meacci, Theta Kappa Phi, ended their match in a 4-4 deadlock but Benford had accumulated 1:09 riding time advantage to score the win at 145 pounds.

Sigma Nu's Donald Moyer decisioned Michael Rothen, Pi Kappa Alpha, 9-4, at 135 pounds. In the 145 pound class, Bob McMath, Phi Kappa Sigma, pinned John Stephens, Alpha Gamma Rho, in 3:30.

After a scoreless first period Thomas Burns, Phi Delta Theta, garnered a quick reversal and then pinned Bernard Heubel, Delta Sigma Phi, in 3:16.

In another 155-pound encounter,

Bill Simon, Pi Kappa Phi, pinned Kenneth Ring, Sigma Chi, in 34 seconds of the third period.

Delta Upsilon's Chuck Prutzman ended a close battle by pinning Hubert Heinrichs, Sigma Chi, at 5:02, and Earle Henderson, Phi Gamma Delta, scored a fall over Alan Lipner, Phi Epsilon Pi, at 1:49.

Netting a takedown in the first stanza and a reversal in the third period, plus riding time advantage, Richard Boggs, Sigma Chi, topped Robert Schiffner, Delta Chi, 5-0, at 165 pounds.

Delta Tau Delta's George Campbell registered a 7-2 decision win over Jack Welsh, Theta Xi. David Jaquish, Delta Theta Sigma, was too strong for Pi Kappa Alpha's Gary Young and registered a fall in 37 seconds of the second period.

Scoring forfeit win were Tom Eynon, Theta Chi, over John Hayworth, Phi Delta Theta; Thomas West, Phi Gamma Delta, over Emanuel Orfanon, Phi Kappa Tau; Michael Vignola, Phi Mu Delta, over Donald Zugates, Phi Kappa; and independent Samuel Fry over Glenn Weidler.

West Dorms Softball Action to Start Monday

Lion Infield, Catching Set

(This is the second in a series of articles covering the Penn State baseball team. Today: the catchers and infielders.)

With three starting infielders and the regular catcher back for another season, Lion baseball coach Joe Bedenk is showing no serious concern over his inner defensive unit with opening day only a week away.

Second baseman Lou Schneider was the only regular lost from last year's infield. Schneider graduated last June. At present, sophomore Bob Hoover, a frosh shortstop last season, has first call on the starting post.

According to Bedenk, Hoover is a good fielder who covers a lot of ground. He is also adept at making the double play and Bedenk figures he and shortstop Guy Tirabassi will give the Lions a solid keystone combo. Hoover also is a fair hitter.

Should the sophomore hit a tailspin, junior Jack Michel is next in line. A sub on last year's varsity, Michel is a steady ballplayer with a lot of scrap. He is a weak hitter, however.

Third baseman Steve Baidy rates the starting role at the hot corner. But Baidy, whom Bedenk described as a good field, no hit, is expected to get stern competition from sophomore John Yeosock.

Bedenk said that Yeosock has a good chance to break into the starting nine, especially if Baidy slumps at bat. A good hustler and a fair hitter, Yeosock's only serious problem is his weight. Bedenk said he was a little overweight at present.

Shortstop Tirabassi and first baseman Gary Miller are certain starters again this season. According to Bedenk, Tirabassi is probably the best baserunner on the team, but is weak at the bat. However, Bedenk did say that he was a much better hitter than last year's record indicates. (He hit only .191 last year.)

Miller, a .298 hitter last season, is the conservative type ballplayer who is tough in the clutch. However, he isn't too fast on the basepaths and is just an average fielder.

Sophomore Wayne Breish is the number two shortstop whom Bedenk said has good potential. It is doubtful if he can move Tirabassi, however.

Don Stickler, who is expected to remain in his cleanup spot in the batting order, again reigns as the Lion signal-caller. Tremendous defensively, Stickler is also tough with the stick. He hit .297 last season.
