Hart Enters IM Mat Quarterfinals

Jim Hart, Acacia's classy 128-pound champ, moved into the quarterfinals of the 135-pound class in last night's Intramural wrestling at Recreation Hall.

The mighty mite registered a 9-2 decision over a game John Bittinger, Chi Phi. Hart rolled up a pair of near falls, a takedown, a reverse and riding time, while holding Bittinger to a lone takedown.

Pi Kappa Phi's Bob Wenner, 175-pound runner-up two years ago, pinned Ron Passmore, Delta Sigma Phi, in 3:55. Wenner got off to a 5-2 lead before applying a half-nelson and body press to floor his opponent.

In a battle of grid giants, Lambda Chi Alpha's Jack Calderone toppled Joe Bohart, Phi Delta Theta, at the 2:27 mark of a heavyweight match. With Bohart in the up position after a scoreless first period, Calderone reversed him into an inside crotch and body press to score the pin.

Ben Amato, Alpha Phi Delta, pinned Omega Phi Psi's Arnie Roane, this year's 145-pound boxing king, in 1:10. Amato, whose two-bout wrestling time totals only a minute, 25 seconds, used a reverse nelson to stretch Roane. Theta Kappa Phi's Dick Tkatch, heavyweight IM boxing finalist, put the clampers on Lion footballer Joe MacEcevic, Theta Xi, in 3:30. Leading, 6-3, the Theta Kap grappler used a cradle to pin his opponent.

Jim Coleman, Theta Chi, nosed out Beaver House's Bill Smith in the evening's only referee's decision in a 128-pound scrap. Smith, who scored two takedowns and a pair of near falls, led most of the way. Coleman narrowed the gap with a reverse, escape and takedown, while adding a time advantage to tie it, 6-6. Referee Dave Adams gave the win to Coleman.

Independent 155-pounder Dean Jordan took the "fastest pin" laurels for the night, flooring Gary Wells at 1:07.

Sigma Nu's Rox Carl racked up a lopsided 11-2 count against Jim Knipe in a 165-pound match. Carl tallied a trio of near falls, two reverses, a takedown and riding time, while Knipe could manage only a reverse.

A fast-moving 128-pound encounter saw Bob Comfort, Sigma Nu, edge Theta Delta Chi's Herm Tselepis, 3-1.

Indie Art Stein employed a half-nelson and body press to pin Bill Harding in 3.05 of an exciting heavyweight engagement.

Don Haller, leading 2-0, pinned Ralph Bozorth at 1:30 of a 145-pound independent match.

Lambda Chi's 135-pound Marlin Troutman, holding a 6-0 advantage over Howie Van Matre, Alpha Tau Omega, went on to pin the ATO grappler with an arm bar and body press at 4:48.

A reverse, predicament and time advantage gave Fred Waelchli, Beaver House, a 4-2 triumph over Sigma Phi Epsilon's Bruce Bankes in a 155-pound scrap.

Sigma Chi's Jim Holmes pinned Bob Murray, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, at 3:55 of a scoreless heavyweight bout. John Frey, Beta Theta Pi 155-pounder, scored a 5-0 win over Beta Sigma Rho's Tom Brandeis, on the strength of a reverse, near fall and time advantage.

Two takedowns, an escape and riding time gave Terry Snyder, indie 145-pounder, a 6-0 victory over Frank Shervanick.

Jack Patterson, ahead 3-0 in a 165-pound indie match, flattened Paul Flick at 5:50.

A pair of forfeits marred the schedule. Delta Chi's Bruce Schaeffer won over Jim Riley, SPE; and indie Joe Jones topped Walt Voight.

TKE Takes Lead In Point Standings

Tau Kappa Epsilon moved into first place replacing Phi Delta Theta in the latest All-Fraternity point standings released by the Intramural office.

TKE, who was in third place when the first report was released in December, shot into the top spot on the basis of points picked up in boxing, basketball, and handball-singles. The TKE's have 400 points.

Thiel to Watch Stickmen From Stands Saturday

By MATT PODBESEK Penn State's Lacrosse team will play its first game in 23 years without the "grand old man" when it opens the season against Dickinson College Saturday.

But these days Nick Thiel sits back in his comfortable chair in 214 Recreation Hall and remembers the days when he had to rush around to get dressed at 3:30 every afternoon and also get prepared "mentally."

"I envy (Ernie) Baer," he said in a slightly dejected tone. "And he has all this good spring weather; why he's only missed two practices outside."

"But you can bet I'm sleeping better nights this time of year," the former mentor interjected.

"I feel upon my leaving, Baer is well qualified to succeed me," Thiel said. "He has the knowledge, skill, personality, temperament, and most important, a great enthusiasm for lacrosse."

"I sincerely hope Baer will have a good season," Thiel concluded.

The air wasn't as relaxed in Baer's neighboring cubicle. Assistant John McHugh and Baer were mulling over the problems of the day in preparation for Saturday's 2 p.m. encounter.

"This is just an exhibition," said Baer trying to toss off this first look at his first team. As he said this, midfielder Glenn Fiscus hobbled into the office on his bad ankle sustained in extra-athletic activities.

"I'm a little more concerned this year since I'm in full charge of the squad," conceded Baer, "but only because I'm trying not to forget all the little things in the short time I have before the season opener."

"Down the line, the squad has better balance than in the last four years," admitted the new coach. "With my first group, and I'm going to use two equally-balanced trios of midfielders to keep them fresh, we should be reasonably tough. Provided we improve our conditioning."

Heading the list of returning veterans is attackman Bill Hess who rated an All-America mention last year on his record breaking 41 goals. The previous Lion record was 24.

On either side of junior Hess will be Captain Lou Girard and Tom Seeman which gives Baer a three-man frontline that scored a total of 80 goals last year. Don Snyder will be attackman number 4 according to Baer.

Fighting for the two midfield teams are seniors Jeff Bostock, Kent Chestnut, Don Steinmuller, and Fiscus; junior Fred Donahoe; and sophomores Mike Beattie and John Behne.

Senior Jamie Houck will be tending the goal for the third straight season.

Top defense prospects are Harry Brown, Paul Felton, Francis Markland, Hoy Patience, Don Sanders and Ray Tuleya.

Lion Track Candidates

Candidates for the varsity and freshman track squads should report to either Chick Werner, varsity coach, or Norm Gordon, freshman coach, at 4 p.m. today on the Beaver Field track.

Gene Wettstone, Penn State gymnastics coach, coached the U.S. Olympic gymnasts twice—in 1948 and again in 1956.

HOW WAS THE CROOK TOOK?

QUIMBY, WISC. (March 3). Police today arrested the foul felon who heisted the cash register at Jones' Gas Station. When arrested, the base servant of the devil kept muttering, "Drat the shirt, drat the shirt."

"Let's look at the events leading up to this story. After the holdup, the police quizzed Victim Jones. Jones couldn't identify the yegg. "The wanton jackdaw who cabbaged my cash wore a mask," said Jones. "The only distinguishing feature about him was his shirt. A beauty! The collar was absolutely free of wrinkles. Oh, he was a neat one!"

Meanwhile, the scoundrel, knowing that his wrinkle-free and enviably-neat collar was a dead giveaway, tried desperately to slip some wrinkles into it. He stamped on it with hobnail boots. He slugged away at it with a club. But not a wrinkle! So later, as he skulked down Main Street, his shirt was noticed, admiringly, by a detective and he was arrested lickety-split. Good work, copper!

By now you will have guessed that the miscreant wore a Van Huesen Century Shirt. But of course! It's the only shirt in the world with the soft collar that won't wrinkle ever. It never needs starch, so it's always comfortable. The Van Huesen Century also lasts up to twice as long as ordinary shirts, yet costs no more. $4.00.
