

Bernard Will Set 'Scene' At Marriage Conference

Dr. Jessie R. Bernard, professor of sociology, will set the "scene" for marriage at 7:30 tonight in the lounge of the Helen Eakin Eisenhower Memorial Chapel.

Dr. Bernard will speak at the first event of the three-day Marriage Conference. Her speech will be on the changing social scene and how it affects marriage today.

The theme of the fourth annual marriage conference is "Marriage: The Scene, the Dream and the Scheme." It is being sponsored by the Women's Student Government Association, the Interfraternity Council and the University Christian Association.

Before coming to the University in 1947, Dr. Bernard was professor of sociology at Lindenwood College for Women at St. Charles, Minn. She has also been an analyst for the Bureau of Labor Standards.

Dr. Bernard has conducted extensive research, primarily in the fields of family and community organization, and has published many papers in professional journals.

A native of Minneapolis, Minn., Dr. Bernard received her B.A. and M.A. degree from the University of Minnesota and her Ph.D. degree from Washington University.

Dr. Bernard is author of "American Family Behavior," "Origins of American Sociology" with L. L. Bernard, and "Remarriage."

Leetch to Speak To LA Students

George N. P. Leetch, director of the University placement service, will outline the opportunities open to liberal arts graduates in a speech at 7 tonight in 110 Electrical Engineering.

The speech is open to all students in the College of the Liberal Arts.

Leetch said he will attempt to show liberal arts students that they are not faced with a limited field of opportunities after graduation. The speech was arranged by the Liberal Arts Student Council because of the feeling that many students in liberal arts are dubious about their employment chances.

Novelist James Joyce To Be Topic on WDFM

Richard P. Blackmur, professor of English at Princeton, will discuss novelist James Joyce and his works at 7 tonight on WDFM.

The lecture is one of the Simmons Lecture Series presented on tape every Tuesday evening. The series is sponsored by the Department of German.

Professor of family relationships, will speak tomorrow on finding the "right one."

On Thursday a symposium composed of Mr. and Mrs. Ross B. Lehman, Dr. and Mrs. Rustum Roy and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Mountain will discuss building a marriage.

The marriage conference is open to the public.

Psych Club to See Film

The Psychology Club will sponsor a technicolor movie, "A Case Study of Multiple Personality," at 7 tonight in 105 White Hall.

Levin Named Party Head

Herbert Levin, sophomore in pre-veterinary from Jarrettsville, Sunday night was elected All-University Clique Chairman of Campus Party.

Levin defeated Earl Brosius, junior in arts and letters from Northumberland, 39 to 28.

Other officers of the party's All-University clique elected were Gary Young, sophomore in psychology from Clarion, vice chairman; Valentina Kopach, sophomore in education from Ramsey, N.J., executive secretary, and Richard Bullock, freshman in ceramics from Philadelphia, treasurer.

Young and Miss Kopach were unopposed. Bullock defeated Alan Lipner, sophomore in business administration from Bellefonte, 43 to 24.

No one was nominated for recording secretary. The nominations will be held open until the next clique meeting.

Merle Rothstein, Campus Party parliamentarian, proposed a constitutional amendment which would require that the party's next clique chairman be a member of the present executive committee, composed of the party's officers.

The amendment will be voted on at the next clique meeting.
