

Jones, Forster, Leaphart Honored at Matrix Table

Patricia Jones, senior in business administration from Shamokin, was named Matrix Girl at the annual Matrix Table last night.

Ann Forster, senior in home economics from Wilmington, Del., was named Quill Girl and Lee Leaphart, senior in home economics from Alexandria, Va., received the Cap Girl award.

Maridne Nickles, associate editor of the Saturday Evening Post, spoke at the Table.

Women Elect Quill Girl

The Quill Girl was elected three weeks ago by junior and senior women at the Women's Student Government Association elections. She was elected from the presidents of WSGA, Women's Recreation Association, Leonides, Panhellenic Council, Mortar Board and Scrolls. Miss Forster is president of WRA.

The Matrix and Cap Girls were selected by the members of Theta Sigma Phi, national women's professional journalism fraternity.

The Matrix Girl is a senior woman who has given service to the University and who has not been recognized by a hat society.

The Cap Girl award recognizes the woman who is, or has been, a member of a hat society and has taken part in varied activities.

'Post' History Given

Mrs. Nickles, who is in charge of the humor cartoons and does general editing on the Post, gave a short history of the magazine.

She explained the need for a magazine to have a policy and set standards of good taste and writing.

There are 44 editors on the Post, she said, and each has a love of words, art and magazine work.

Mrs. Nickles told the group that the two requirements of editing are reading constantly and with an unbiased objective viewpoint.

She told potential writers to "just write" principally for facility of style and with editing judgment later.

Sponsored by Theta Sig

Theta Sigma Phi annually sponsors the Matrix Table to honor outstanding women on campus. Over 200 women attended the banquet in the Hetzel Union ballroom.

"Bob's Story," a skit put on by members of Theta Sig, depicted the life of Robert Bahrenburg, All-University president. Lawrence McCabe, former National Student Association coordinator, was master of ceremonies.

Journalism Major Receives Award

Marian Beatty, junior in journalism from Towanda, was one of two students awarded the third annual industrial journalism award by the Associated Editors Society of Pittsburgh.

The award, made in recognition of outstanding achievement in the journalism curriculum, consists of a citation and a $100 grant to be applied to University fees.

A similar award was presented to Patricia Rifko, junior in journalism at Duquesne University.

AAUP Discussion Groups

"Is Televised Instruction One Solution to Increased Enrollment?" will be the subject of a panel discussion sponsored by the American Association of University Professors at 9 tonight in 121 Sparks.

Pan-Am Week Begins Today

Pan-American week, which will be celebrated today through Sunday, will feature a special radio show, a flag-raising ceremony and other programs arranged by the Committee on International Understanding and the Inter-American Club.

The radio program will be a broadcast of Pan-American music by WDFM at 8 tonight.

On Saturday, members of the Air Force drill team will participate in a flag-raising ceremony at noon on the front campus.

A Pan-American Day program will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. The public will be invited there to meet Latin-American students who are studying at the University.

At 5:30 p.m. today a group of

Students Involved In 2-Car Collision

Two cars driven by University students collided at Garner St. and Foster Ave. shortly after 4 p.m. on Friday.

Paul H. Kapleau, junior in business administration from Philadelphia, was driving on Foster Ave., and Richard Tuve II, sophomore in DIR from Silver Spring, Md., on Garner St. when the collision occurred.

No estimate of the damage has been made yet.

No one was injured.

5 O'Clock Theatre Production

"Pearl Handled Knife" by Patricia Paladino, freshman in arts and letters from Mount Pleasant, will be presented by today's 5 O'Clock Theatre in the Little Theatre in Old Main.

Latin-American educators will present a Pan-American program at Rotary Club meeting. A special program has been arranged for Friday morning at the State College high school.

HOW MUCH IS THAT DOGFISH IN THE WINDOW?

Dear Mom and Dad (writes Zelda May Nirdlinger, soph). You have been asking me to account for all the money I spend. There follows a day by day summary of recent expenditures. Don't forget, you asked for it.

MONDAY:

- $2.78 - telegram to the Secretary of the Army, offering to go instead of Elvis.
- $0.26 - pack of Philip Morris, my favorite, and yours, if you know a good thing when you taste one!
- $0.50 - sorority fine for oversleeping and missing my first hour class twelve days in a row.

I bought a rooster named Ralph

- $2.95 - I bought a rooster named Ralph to wake me in the morning. (Can't sleep with an alarm clock ticking all night.)

TUESDAY:

- $0.50 - sorority fine for not cleaning my plate at dinner. (I just couldn't! Dinner was Ralph.)
- $0.50 - sorority fine for dating undesirable boy. (Roderigo is not undesirable! Some people say he is "fast" and a "devil" but I say he is just insecure. Why else would he go steady with eight girls?)
- $0.26 - pack of Philip Morris. What joy! What zest!

WEDNESDAY:

- $557.38 - a motorcycle for Roderigo. (He is giving up all his other girls for me, but they are so widely scattered that he needs a fast conveyance to go around and tell them all goodbye.)
- $0.26 - pack of Philip Morris. (Have you tried them yet? If not, you've got a big treat coming. Light one soon. Light either end.)

THURSDAY:

- $0.50 - sorority fine for staying too long in the shower. (Gee whiz, a girl gets mighty dirty polishing a motorcycle!)
- $0.52 - two packs of Philip Morris - one for Roderigo. (Dear Roderigo!)

FRIDAY:

- $0.26 - pack of Philip Morris - a happy smoke for a happy day. Yesterday Roderigo broke with the last of his girls, and today he is mine, all mine!
- $8.57 - new dogfish for zoology. (I was dissecting a dogfish in zoology when I happened to look out the window and see Roderigo riding by with Mary Ann Beasley on his buddy seat. I got so upset I threw the dogfish at them.)

SATURDAY:

- $2.59 - a carton of Philip Morris, one pack for me, the rest for Roderigo. (I was foolish to be angry about Mary Ann. Roderigo explained that she meant nothing to him - just helping him with English 'n't. Similarly, Grace Krovney is helping him with Spanish, Betsy Pike with econ, Mazda Notkin with psych, Lola Tweet with phys ed, etc. The least he can do is give them all Philip Morrises.)

Well, mom and dad, you can see how expensive college is. Send money. . . Love and kisses, Zeldia May

The price may vary from place to place, but Philip Morris continues to be a natural smoke that daunts no purse, however small. It is made in regular and long size by the sponsors of this column, and is ignitable at either end.
