LA, BusAd Close Cap, Gown Orders

Today and tomorrow are the last days seniors enrolled in the Colleges of the Liberal Arts and Business Administration may order caps and gowns.

From Monday through Wednesday, seniors in the Colleges of Chemistry and Physics, Home Economics, Physical Education and Mineral Industries may place their orders.

Orders are being taken at the Athletic Store. Students must give their hat sizes and leave a $5 deposit when ordering. Invitations and announcements are available at the Hetzel Union desk.

Handbook Applications

Interview applications for students interested in joining the editorial staff of the Student Handbook are now available at the Hetzel Union desk.

The applications must be filled out and returned to the desk by noon next Wednesday. Interviews will begin April 29 and will be conducted by the Cabinet Personnel Interviewing Committee.

20 Senior Women Chosen for 'Arch'

Twenty senior women have accepted invitations from the Women's Student Government Association to participate in the Honor Arch in this year's May Day processional.

Inclusion in the Honor Arch is based on outstanding service to the University and a 2.5 or better All-University average.

These women who will take part in the arch are: Elizabeth Beveridge, Marlene Bishoff, Ann Farrell, Margaret Forster, Jo Ann Fulton, Judith Hance, Virginia Hance, Mary Lou Horner, Elizabeth Ives, Miriam Jones, Rosetta Kearney, Julie Maybury, Mary Louise Moore, Susannah Newlin, Barbara Nicholls, Nancy Showalter, Marilyn Seltzer, Kathryn Simons and Mary Tassia.

and Mrs. Don Meyer, 400 Nimitz Ave., crown bearer; Stephen Hurvitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hurvitz, 317 Homan Ave., train bearer; and Michael Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Green, 212 Homan Ave., train bearer.

House has decided to continue the custom of including the new Cwens who will be tapped this spring in the May Pole dancers' group.

Participants to Meet

The Honor Arch participants will meet at 12:30 p.m. Monday in Grange playroom with the WSGA House costume committee.

Invitations to fifty senior women to participate in Hemlock Chain have been sent out, but all the replies have not yet been received. Participation in the Hemlock Chain will also be based on service. In past years it has been on a "first-come-first-served" basis.

The WSGA Senate has approved a House recommendation that the Mother's Day Tea be held from 2 to 3 p.m. Saturday, May 11. The hours approved for open house in the women's dormitory units are from 2 to 3 p.m. Saturday, May 11 and from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday, May 12.
