

2 Nittany Squads Split Tilts with Quakers

Baseballers Top Penn, 14-2; Host Bisons Today

Two wins, no losses—and without the use of their star pitcher as yet. That's the record Coach Joe Bedenk's baseballers carry into today's contest with Bucknell at 3:30 p.m. at Beaver Field.

The game is a rescheduled tilt of the opening-day "snowout" 10 days ago. Bedenk is expected to go with his ace lefty, Ed Drapcho, in quest of win number three.

Drapcho's role will again be determined by the condition of his muscle injury in the hip area. According to latest reports, the little lefty should be ready. If not, either Lynn Harbold or Ron Smith, both righthanders, will get the call.

The Nittanians garnered their second win in as many starts by romping over the outmanned Penn Quakers, 14-2, Saturday afternoon at Beaver Field.

With the exception of a home-run ball in the ninth inning, sophomore southpaw Cal Emery was in control all the way with a masterful four-hit performance.

Emery's only major slip cost him his shutout—shortstop Rich Ross parked one in deep left centerfield with two out to score the Quakers only runs.

Until that time, the Quakers were as helpless as babes in the woods against the powerful offerings of Emery. The talented sophomore struck out 11, walked five, and stranded eight runners.

While the Red and Blue were floundering at the plate, the Lions went to town on righthander Bill

LION THIRD BASEMAN Steve Baidy drops a near-perfect bunt down the third base line during the third inning of the Lions' 14-2 trouncing of Penn. Baidy beat out the bunt and took second on a poor throw by third baseman Ron Glazer.

Assiff's offerings to score four runs on three hits in the first inning.

Jim Lockerman, Don Stickler and Ron Rainey walloped the run-producing singles. The contest was never in doubt from then on—it was only a question of how high the Lions could go.

Jack McMullen's double, the first of his four hits, scored Bob Hoover with the Lions fifth run in the second inning.

Penn Netmen Cop 8-1 Verdict From Lions

The University of Pennsylvania tennis team copped its 15th consecutive court victory over the Nittany Lion netters Saturday afternoon, 8-1.

Penn State's lone point was scored by the duo of Charles Bibleheimer and Charles Questa when they downed Penn's number two doubles team, Bob Robbins and Howard Friedel, 6-3, 6-3.

In singles play Penn scored a clean sweep, although the Lions won the first set in two matches. Powerful John Mangano, Penn's number one man, easily downed Fred Trust, 6-1, 6-4, as Trust was ineffective with his backhand and service.

The Quakers' Ralph Levitan and the Lions' Charles Bibleheimer engaged in the closest match singles game, but Levitan scored a 10-8, 4-6, 8-6 victory over the cautious Nittany sophomore.

Also battling down to three sets was Penn's Howard Friedel and Questa, with Friedel sweeping the last two sets to win, 2-6, 6-1, 6-4. The Lions' Joe Galiardi was defeated in straight sets by Bob Robbins, 8-6, 6-3.

Pete DeDad posted an opening set win over the visitors' Axel Jonasson but could not hold off the Quakers' rally and was defeated, 4-6, 6-0, 6-2.

In the final singles match, the Penn's Dave Lieberman topped Dick Jacobs by identical scores, 6-4, 6-4.

Don Harnett and Don Benner were defeated by Penn's Jerry Finerman and Charles Barclay, 6-3, 6-2, in doubles action.

The final doubles match saw Trust and Galiardi win the first set, 6-2, over Mangano and Levitan, but fall to the Penn rally, 6-1 and 8-6.

Golfers Top Penn, Villanova

The Lion golfers chalked up an impressive victory over Penn and Villanova in the belated opener of their 1957 season Saturday on the Penn State course.

Joe Boyle's linksmen swept the field to cop 7-0 decisions over both the Quakers and Wildcats. The contest was shifted from medal play, as was originally scheduled, to individual match competition. Penn topped Villanova, 6-1.

Captain John Branish, Johnny Boyanowski and sophomore Bill Davidson carded 2 over par 73's to share individual honors for the Lion linksmen. Pat Rielly was next with a 75, John Felus fired a 76 and Leo Kukkola finished with 77 strokes.

Branish, in downing Penn's Bob Rory, 2 and 1, and Villanova's Ron Zurinkas 6 and 5, recovered from a bad start to finish strong. The Lion captain opened with a double bogey, and trailed Rory, 2-down, after five holes. Rory, the outstanding golfer among the Lions' rivals, also shot a 73.

Boyanowski registered decisive 5 and 4 wins over the Quakers' Gerry Mander and Wildcat Frank Kruse. Davidson's impressive performance in his first collegiate match was good enough to beat Penn's Tony Caiazzo, 4 and 3, and the Wildcats' Jim Birlle, 6 and 5.

Rielly, the Lion leadoff linksmen, edged Villanova's Ben Klemanowicz, 1 up, and Quaker Fran Poore, 3 and 2. Felus took the measure of Penn's Charlie Adams, 3 and 2, and Bill Mawn of the Wildcats, 6 and 5.

Kukkola chalked up a pair of 3 and 1 triumphs over Quaker Marv Kramer and Roger Gair of Villanova. Bainbridge, also playing his initial college match, defeated the Wildcats' Jay Gibney, 6 and 4, and Ralph Bennett of Penn, 4 and 3.

Boyle, in summing up his club's showing, said "For the conditions, and the golf our team played was very good."

FREE! INVISIBLE SHIRTS!

It is a little known fact that Van Heusen, in addition to its regular merchandise, also makes a grand line of invisible shirts. Alas, they have never proved very popular. People lose them easily. Laundries are confused by them. And people wearing these invisible shirts are not just walked over, they're sometimes walked through.

So, we're stuck with thousands of them, and we've just decided to give them away. To you! Just write Van Heusen. We will send you free a complete wardrobe of invisible shirts. Not just one or two! Not us. We'll send you hundreds of them. In every style! Every size! Every collar fashion! All handsome. All invisible. Probably the finest you've never seen.

As for visible shirts—and shorts, sport shirts, sweaters, pajamas, handkerchiefs and ties—well, you know Van Heusen. We have most of the new styles before anybody else. And we handle traditional favorites in a way that explains why certain styles last a long, long time. Your local haberdasher carries a large Van Heusen selection. See him soon.
