Defeat Army for 10th Win

third straight away game today when it battles Navy this afternoon at Annapolis, Md.

Win number 10 came via a 16-7 decision over the West;

Point Cadets, Saturday at West Point, N.Y.

Coach Joe Bedenk said he expects to start sophomore

Cal Emery on the mound against the Middles, Emery, who played first base against Army because of his hitting ability, will be looking for win number six—he's undefeated.

With the exception of first base where Gary Miller will return to a starting role, Bedenk will go with the same lineup that he used against Army. The only question mark is the left field spot where he will use either Ron Rainey or Dave Wat-either Ron Rainey or Dave Warkins, depending on the pitching.

Should a lefty pitch, Watkins will probably be in left with Rainey probably replacing Jack McMullen in right. McMullen is in the midst of a batting slump and was lifted in the fifth inning Second of the Cadet encounter.

The Middle test is the first of four for the Lions this week, They play Colgate Friday and meet Syracuse in a doubleheader Saturday. All games are rway.

The Lions sewed the game up with an eight-run sixth inning to take a 13-2 lead. Army bounced back for four markers,

The Penn State linksmen rebounded from their defeat by Navy with a thrilling 5-2 victory over a surprising Cornell club, Saturday on the home greens.

Two Lions, Johnny Boyanowski and John Felus, had to go extra holes before eking out key wins. Boyanowski, for the second time this season, went 23 holes in edging the Big Red's Harry Halas, 1-up. He shot a 70.

Felus recovered from a threehole deficit on the front nine to seize victory from the grasp of Cornell's Art Hemker in 19 holes.
The little Lion copped team scoring honors with a 69-stroke total.
