ASig, Bullets Win IM V-Ball Championships

Alpha Sigma Phi and the Bullets won the 1957 fraternity and independent Intramural volleyball championships last night at Recreation Hall.

Alpha Sig defeated Alpha Chi Sigma, 15-12, 15-4, and the Bullets downed the Dirty Thirty, 15-7, 17-15.

Lew Lynch, Ralph Brower and John Jones were the key men in Alpha Sig's victory. Lynch did the bulk of his team's setting, while Brower and Jones stood out as spikers.

The opening game was a seesaw affair. The Alpha Sig netmen jumped off to a 9-4 lead, but Alpha Chi Sig, led by the spiking of Joe Nock and Ken Christensen, pecked away at the margin and knotted the count at 11-all. After dropping behind, 11-12, on the next exchange, Alpha Sig roared back to take the next four points and the game.

The Bullets gained the finals by trouncing the Drunks, 15-6, 15-3, in the semifinal round. The Dirty Thirty sextet earned the right to meet the eventual champs with a 15-13, 15-9 triumph over the Cougars in the semis.

IM Track Entries Due In IM Office Tuesday

Entries for the 1957 intramural track competition are due 4:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Intramural office in Recreation Hall.

Both fraternity and independent groups may compete. The events to be held are the 100 and 440-yard dashes, the half-mile relay, the high and the broad jumps and the 16-pound shot.

Competition will open in the track events at 6:45 p.m., May 21. Field events will begin at 6:45 p.m. May 22. Finals are set for May 23.

Score Will See Again

CLEVELAND, May 8 (P)—Pitcher Herb Score will see again from the right eye which a line drive smashed last night, but the degree of vision is now the thing in doubt, an eye specialist indicated tonight.

X-rays will be taken tomorrow to further the diagnosis of injury to baseball's most promising young pitcher, who will be 24 next month.

KDR Wins 'A' Bowling Crown

Kappa Delta Rho scored a 4-0 win over Alpha Tau Omega to win the fraternity League A bowling championship Thursday night at Recreation Hall.

KDR won 39 and lost five in second-half play. Theta Xi (36-3) edged ATO (34-10) for second place.

Blaine Barron's 508 series paced the KDR keglers to their white-wash over ATO. Tony Dorrell (192-505) was high for the losers.

Ed Dempsey (193-509) led the Theta Xi quintet in a shutout triumph over Alpha Zeta. Jim Forsythe's 187-473 effort sparked Phi Gamma Delta to a 3-1 victory over Sigma Alpha Mu; Adie Stevens (206-562) triumphed over Phi Sigma Delta.

Coed Golf Elections

Coed Golf Club elections, which were postponed May 2, will be held at 4:15 today at the regular golf instruction meeting. A president, vice president, secretary-treasurer and publicity chairman will be elected.

Grid Tickets Go Up

Mounting costs will bring a boost in football ticket prices at Penn State in 1957. Individual game tickets, which heretofore sold for $3.50, will be priced at $4.00. A season ticket for four home games will sell for $15.00.

Penn State's Eastern champions shattered Pitt's unbeaten string in wrestling during the 1957 campaign.
