I. W. Cole, director of the School of Journalism, said a study of University journalism alumni made in 1953 indicated that more than 80 per cent of the school's graduates had been employed in journalistic activities. Since that time, enrollment in the school has not increased, but the demand for its graduates has more than doubled.

Opposition Crushed

He recommended that a new committee be set up which would take into consideration all previous work and research done on the AM station. Martz said the committee could then report to Cabinet "the possibility of such a station and the manner of its inception."

His motion to this effect was defeated with only two supporting votes after Miss Harkison pointed out that a complete report on the station was presented to Cabinet last year.

Only 3 Home Games

Only three games remain on Penn State's home baseball schedule. The Lion batsmen confront Lehigh, May 15, and battle Pitt in a twin bill, May 25.

The set is beautifully simple, the finest of the year.

Under Robert D. Reifsneider's direction, the play held together with an unusual consistency and few rough spots were noticeable. There were, however, several instances where the "Okinawan" of the villagers fall flat. This was especially noticeable in the second act when Joseph Servello, as Mr. Seiko, the village's Chief of Agriculture, sounds as if he were speaking one of the more common Romance languaes in-
