

'Nine' Rained Out; Nittany Netters Lose, 6-3

Orange Host Lions Today In Twinbill

The scheduled Lion baseball game with Colgate University yesterday afternoon at Hamilton, N.Y., was rained out—the first cancellation the Lions have suffered since opening day when the Bucknell game was cancelled because of snow.

The Lions are scheduled to meet Syracuse in a twinbill this afternoon on the Orange's home grounds. According to the Syracuse weather forecast, rain is scheduled for the early morning, but should stop by game time. Cloudy skies are forecasted for the afternoon.

The Lions took batting practice at Colgate yesterday afternoon, but then the rains came—and the game went down the drain to only retain the tension which accompanies an 11-game win streak, mostly on the part of Lion fans, for another 24 hours or so.

The ballgame was never started. In fact, Colgate never took its batting practice. No arrangements have been made to reschedule the game as yet. Pitcher Ron Smith said that it is doubtful if any attempt will be made to reschedule the contest because of the tightness of the Lion schedule and the distance to Colgate.

Looking at the cancellation from the Lion point of view, it means that Bedenk will once again be able to start his top hurling duo, Ed Drapcho and Cal Emery, in the Orange twinbill today. Drapcho was slated to hurl against Colgate.

The rest of Bedenk's lineup is expected to be the same as he has used in all previous Lion contests: Steve Baidy, 3b; Bob Hoover, 2b; Captain Jim Lockerman, cf; Don Stickler, c; either Ron Rainey or Jack McMullen, rf; Guy Tirabassi, ss; either Rainey or Dave Watkins, lf; and Gary Miller, 1b.

Turning to Syracuse, Coach

Ron Rainey
Outfield Starter

Ted Kleinhans expects to field a formidable contingent which he hopes will improve on last year's 11-8 record. No information on the present Orange record is available.

Kleinhans is expected to go with either righthander Tom Hallett, an eight-game winner last season, and righty Bill Williams on the mound. Lefty Bill Ryback is another possibility. All three were letter-winners last year.

Bob Kuhne is expected to handle the catching duties and bat in the clean-up post. He hit .315 last season.

The Orange infield, which Kleinhans describes as "capable," will have lettermen Dick Bars-town and Joe McCann at first and second. Sophomore Lou Manara will probably start at short with Joe Krivak at third.

In the outfield, the place where the Orange figure to be the weakest, Kleinhans will pick from Don Althouse, Hal Noyes, Tom Sardinia, Fred Gallagher and John Pannucci. Pannucci is rated the only sure starter—he was first-string shortstop last year.

Last year, the Lions split two games with the Orange, losing the first, 5-2, and coming back to take the second, 14-10, in a free-swinging, wide-open contest. The Orange won the first game with a three-run 10th inning.

Georgetown Hands Lions Sixth Loss

A sophomore-laden Georgetown University tennis team toppled the Penn State netters, 6-3, yesterday afternoon on the Beaver Field courts.

The Lions won two of six singles matches but could only tally one victory in the doubles action. Charles Bibleheimer and Joe Galiardi both scored single wins while Fred Trust and Chuck Questa posted a doubles triumph.

This afternoon the Nittany courtmen face a veteran Syracuse net squad in a 1:30 home ncounter. Penn State's netmen scored a 9-0 shutout victory over the Orange last year and hold a 16-6 series advantage.

Lion Coach Sherm Fogg said after the Hoya match, "The boys just don't have the team spirit or drive to win, and with the exceptions of the winners, the boys played sloppy and careless tennis."

Bibleheimer played his best game of the year in defeating the Hoyas' Pete King, 6-4, 2-6, 6-3. The Lion ace used a strong net game and kept his opponent on the run to score the win.

After winning the first set in close fashion, Galiardi scored his second consecutive singles victory of the season by downing Warren Heeg, 7-5, 6-1.

The injured Fred Trust, held out by Fogg in singles play, teamed with Questa in the number one doubles set to defeat Georgetown's Hegg and Joe Short in straight sets, 7-5, 8-6.

Questa played the number one singles spot for the Lions and was defeated by Short, 2-6, 6-4, 6-3. Short, a junior tennis champ from Puerto Rico, rallied in the final two sets to down Questa.

A native Pittsburgher and former Metropolitan City doubles champ Bob Ruzanic, posted two 6-1 wins over the Lion's Dick Jacobs. Lions Captain Joe Eberly dropped two 6-2 decisions to the only senior in the Hoyas lineup, Al McGimpsey.

Sophomore Don Benner, making his initial singles start for the Nittanics, lost in straight sets to Pete Coleman, 6-4, 6-1.

King and Ruzanic defeated the Lion's duo of Bibleheimer and Pete DeDad, 6-3, 6-2, while Galiardi and Eberly dropped the second Lion doubles match to McGimpsey and Coleman, 6-4, 7-5.

Earl Bruce, freshman football coach, doubles as a member of the varsity coaching staff at Penn State.

'Five Frosh' Win in Soccer

The Five Freshmen added their name to the list of Intramural soccer champions by defeating the Substitutes Thursday night, 7-0.

The 'Five,' in running up the highest score of the current season, won the League B crown and will meet the Lotsis Club for the independent crown on May 15.

Gary Miller sparked the League B champions with four goals. Teammate Pete Wadsworth tallied two and Wayne Rodgers one.

Lotsis, independent league A champs, recorded their fourth straight win with a 2-0 decision over McKee II. Ralph Batdorf scored both goals for the victors.

Football star Milt Plum and teammate Earl Poust each scored goals to give Phi Delta Theta a 2-0 win over Theta Kappa Phi in League O.

McKee V, thanks to a first period goal by Ted Pierce, defeated Co-Op in League A competition.

Kappa Delta Rho won their first game of the year with a forfeit win over Phi Kappa. Both Nittany 22 and the Cougars forfeited.

PKPhi, Sigma Chi in Keg Finals

Pi Kappa Phi and Sigma Chi gained the finals of the Intramural fraternity bowling playoffs, scoring victories in semi-final action Thursday night on the Recreation Hall lanes.

Pi Kapp's keggers registered a 3-1 decision over Alpha Gamma Rho. The Sigma Chi quintet earned the right to meet Pi Kappa Phi for the championship by defeating Kappa Delta Rho by the same count.

John Minnich and Tommy Holmes teamed up to pace the Pi Kapp quintet to victory. Minnich copped three-game honors with a 503 series, including a 171 game. Holmes took singles laurels with a 175 effort, and backed up Minnich by totalling 479 pins. Don Lederer led the AGR keggers in both the one-game and series columns: Lederer rolled a 189 game, tops for both clubs, and notched a 476 total for the set.

Tony Agnone and Ed Lynam combined to lead the way in Sigma Chi's win. Agnone connected for a 173 game and 513 series, and Lynam racked up a 219 single, the evening's top game, and a 510 triple. Blaine Barron led the losing KDR club with a 188 game and a 506 series.

Sophomore Don Benner, making his initial singles start for the Nittanics, lost in straight sets to Pete Coleman, 6-4, 6-1.

King and Ruzanic defeated the Lion's duo of Bibleheimer and Pete DeDad, 6-3, 6-2, while Galiardi and Eberly dropped the second Lion doubles match to McGimpsey and Coleman, 6-4, 7-5.

Earl Bruce, freshman football coach, doubles as a member of the varsity coaching staff at Penn State.

Donothing: Sao, Prayfooser K, can yez thank what me spikes gentmanly aynuf naow? Do we be gung to Coronation Ball towgedder?

Kitchener: Why can't the English learn how to speak? Hey? Why can't a woman be like a man? What? Why can't anybody grow accustomed to my face? So?

Kitchener: Oh, my Aunt Sally, the blighter hasn't learned a thing. I'm lost. But wait. I'll dress him in a Van Heusen Oxford cloth shirt. Then he'll pass as a gentleman for sure! All I have to do is be sure he keeps his big mouth shut. I'm saved, but good!

Enter Gatsby Donothing, a chimney sweep.

Donothing: P'arn me, Perfizer K, oi w'd loik tao lorn 'ow do spike e'en batterwise thun oi spike naow.

Yes, friends, there's nothing like Van Heusen Oxford cloth shirts to make a gentleman of you. Whether you prefer button-downs, other collars, white or colors, see Van Heusen first. And buy. $5.

Kitchener: Ugh! (Aside) Yet, he's a challenge. (To Donothing) All right, loathsome, in six weeks, you'll be speaking well enough to go to the Coronation Ball!
