

GOP Blasts Morse For Ike Attack

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—Republican senators linked hands today in a united assault on Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) for saying that President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Dave Beck are "the same kind of immoralists."

But Morse fought back, repeating the charge on the Senate floor: "In my book the President of the United States is guilty of political immorality."

Morse challenged the Republicans to offer a resolution to censure him. No one took the dare.

"Shocking," "very offensive," "unfair," "character assassination," "bad taste"—these were some of the verbal shells the GOP fired in a demonstration of solidarity.

Compares Ike

The sharp-tongued Morse, who used to be a Republican himself, compared Eisenhower to President Beck of the Teamsters Union in a speech at Detroit last Saturday night.

Morse today accused the administration of doing big financial favors for power companies, and said it was guilty of "shocking betrayal" of the interest of future generations in water resources.

Hits Talbott

Hitting at the administration on other scores, he said that when Harold E. Talbott resigned as secretary of the Air Force he was given "a high medal."

"They should have given him a chisel," Morse said. "He was a chiseler."

The counter offensive against Morse was planned by Sen. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, who is chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee and who from time to time has differed with Eisenhower.

AFL-CIO Code Aimed at Graft

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—The AFL-CIO today adopted a code that President George Meany said would have very definitely prevented such misuse of labor funds as is charged to Teamsters boss Dave Beck.

The code contains a set of accounting principles calling for regular audits. It bars union loans to union officers for their personal profit or to firms with which a union has labor contract dealings.

Meany said the code, adopted unanimously by the AFL-CIO Executive Council, was being recommended for adoption by all the federation's 140 unions. He said many already have broad financial safeguards, but others will have to amend their constitutions to adopt necessary changes.

The code was prepared by the federation's Ethical Practices Committee with the help of union secretary-treasurers and five private accounting firms.

Haiti Orders Shooting To End Looting, Arson

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, May 22 (AP)—Haiti's military government issued fire-without-warning orders to police today in an effort to break up looting, arson and sabotage.

The government banned political meetings and demonstrations. The aim was to force this Caribbean Negro republic back into a regime of order after six months of turbulence and government upsets.

Manufacturers Back Budget Cut, Leader Says

HARRISBURG, May 22 (AP)—and-file Republican lawmakers to Gov. George M. Leader said tonight the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Assn. is behind Republican plans to slash his budget by 94 1/2 million dollars.

The governor called on rank-and-file Republican lawmakers to refuse to be used as "lackeys and lickspitties" for the PMA.

"I know there are Republican senators and House members who privately are disgusted with this dictation," he said.

New Twisters Hit West

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A new outbreak of tornadoes kept storm-buffed sections of the mid-continent on the alert Wednesday.

Twisters were sighted in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma.

Fine Fails In Comeback

HARRISBURG (AP)—Former Republican Gov. John S. Fine failed in Tuesday's elections in his bid for a political comeback in Luzerne County, where he had held control of the GOP organization for 30 years.
