

Hess, Houck, Sanders Win Penn-Del Honors

Junior Bill Hess was named to the Penn-Del Lacrosse All-League team for the second straight year yesterday, while seniors Jim Houck and Don Sanders received second team honors.

Lion captain Lou Girard received honorable mention. Hess, the Lions' high-scoring ace, is only one goal below his own Penn State scoring record of 40 which he set last year in his first season of varsity competition. He is still playing with a cast on his right hand, which he had injured in an Easter game with Adelphi.

Houck has stood out in the goal by averaging over 20 saves a game and setting a Penn State "save" record with 259 to date. The veteran senior is shooting for last year's national record of 274 held by Syracuse goalie Oren Lyons. He needs only sixteen more in tomorrow's season finale with Penn on the golf course.

Sanders played on the defense this year after being a midfielder throughout his collegiate career. Although bothered by a bad leg for the major part of the season, the aggressive defenseman earned the respect of voting coaches for his outstanding work in stabilizing Coach Earnie Baer's defense. Girard is the cool, "heady" stickhandler whom Baer uses mainly as his "feeder" for Hess and the recently injured Tom Seeman. Girard is one of the few players on the team with previous high school experience. The Nittany captain, like Hess, played lacrosse on Long Island.

A surprise on the Penn-Dell team was the nomination of two players from Penn to the first team. Midfielder Charley Greenburg was honored for the second straight year while Irv Leiberman was selected for a defensive spot. Penn, also placed attackman Fred Felsler on the second team and defenseman Al Quinn and midfielder Dave Briggs on the honorable mention list.

However, the All-League-laden Quakers have but three wins over weak opponents. They have beaten only one "mutual" opponent, Lehigh. The scored favored the Quakers, 7-2—the Lions walloped the Engineers, 15-3.

Incidentally, the game was changed from a Saturday contest on Beaver Field to tomorrow on the golf course. The change was necessitated by the PIAA school-boy tournaments starting today.

Penn State's trackmen host the defending IC4-A outdoor champion and 1957 indoor runner-up, Manhattan, Saturday afternoon at Beaver Field in the windup of their dual meet season.

The Jaspers, who are currently ranked second to Villanova in the Eastern Conference on the basis of times recorded, will bring a potent force to the Lions den.

Spearheading the New Yorkers are Olympian Ken Bantum, the ace shot put and discus thrower; 880 man Tom Murphy; Lou Knight, the 60-yard IC4-A hurdle king; javelin throwers Dan McCorty and Jack Winslow; and miler Jim Doulin.

Bantum has won almost every shot put title in sight, except the Olympic crown. His heave of 60' 1/2" earned him the NCAA championship last year but his best this season has been 56' 6". He also throws a pretty fair discus, recording 173' 2 1/2" in this year's Metropolitan Outdoor track meet.

Murphy set a new meet record in the 880-yard run in that Metropolitan engagement with a 1:52.3 clocking.

Knight beat Penn State's Rod Perry for the 60-yard hurdles Eastern indoor title this year. He can take the 120-high hurdles at a :14.6 clip and the 220-yard lows in a :23.6 time.

McGorty and Winslow give the Jaspers a top javelin combination. Both have thrown around the 205' mark in competition this year, but McGorty is rated the better of the two.

Doulin is one of the East's best milers. His fastest time in the outdoor circuit thus far this season is a 4:13.9 run in the Metropolitan tussle.

Bill Lenskold, 220; Ed McAllis-

ter, two-mile run; Dick Shipley, high jump; John Hands, 100-yard dash and shot put; Simmons, 440-yard dash; and Joe Soprano, 880, are other better-than-average performers for Jasper Coach George Eastment.

Potent Jaspers Here Saturday

Penn State's trackmen host the defending IC4-A outdoor champion and 1957 indoor runner-up, Manhattan, Saturday afternoon at Beaver Field in the windup of their dual meet season.

The Jaspers, who are currently ranked second to Villanova in the Eastern Conference on the basis of times recorded, will bring a potent force to the Lions den.

Spearheading the New Yorkers are Olympian Ken Bantum, the ace shot put and discus thrower; 880 man Tom Murphy; Lou Knight, the 60-yard IC4-A hurdle king; javelin throwers Dan McCorty and Jack Winslow; and miler Jim Doulin.

Bantum has won almost every shot put title in sight, except the Olympic crown. His heave of 60' 1/2" earned him the NCAA championship last year but his best this season has been 56' 6". He also throws a pretty fair discus, recording 173' 2 1/2" in this year's Metropolitan Outdoor track meet.

Murphy set a new meet record in the 880-yard run in that Metropolitan engagement with a 1:52.3 clocking.

Knight beat Penn State's Rod Perry for the 60-yard hurdles Eastern indoor title this year. He can take the 120-high hurdles at a :14.6 clip and the 220-yard lows in a :23.6 time.

McGorty and Winslow give the Jaspers a top javelin combination. Both have thrown around the 205' mark in competition this year, but McGorty is rated the better of the two.

Doulin is one of the East's best milers. His fastest time in the outdoor circuit thus far this season is a 4:13.9 run in the Metropolitan tussle.

Bill Lenskold, 220; Ed McAllis-

ter, two-mile run; Dick Shipley, high jump; John Hands, 100-yard dash and shot put; Simmons, 440-yard dash; and Joe Soprano, 880, are other better-than-average performers for Jasper Coach George Eastment.

WIMMER'S SUNOCO
E. College
1/2 block from
Simmons

THANKS
boys for your patronage and support during the last year. We were happy to serve you. See you next fall . . . Jack Wimmer.

Hur's Semi-Annual

Storewide Clearance

Begins Thursday — 9 A.M.

It's your Big Buying Opportunity of the new Summer Season—here's your chance to get quality men's wear at Substantial Savings. Everything included from our regular stock. You know the quality brand names we carry. They're all represented at this BIG Store-wide Event.

SUITS

One Group
Cotton and Dacron Cords
Were 29.95 . . .
18.88

TROUSERS
Entire Stock

Were 7.95	Were 9.95	Were 12.95
5.88	7.88	8.88

All others proportionately reduced
●No Charge for Cuff Alteration

One Group of . . .

Sport Shirts

Values up to 7.95
2 for 5.00

MEN'S SUITS

Were 35.00	Were 45.00	Were 55.00
24.88	34.88	44.88

Some Summerweights Included
●No Charge for Cuff Alteration

TIES

Were 1.50
1.18

2 for 2.00
Ideal for Father's Day

SPORT COATS

Were 25.00	Were 29.95	Were 35.00
18.88	23.88	27.88

Stop in today and $AVE

Hur's Mens Shop
114 E. College Ave.

PhiEp, AChiSig In Net Finals

Phi Epsilon Pi's duo of Mike Shapiro and Gene Greenburg will meet the doubles team of Bill Sekeras and Don Kaufman, Alpha Chi Sigma, in the finals of the Intramural tennis doubles competition.

Shapiro and Greenburg won the Flight One title by defeating Beta Theta Pi's Dan Gray and George Gray. The Phi Ep duo won the first set 6-0. Gray-Gray scored a 6-2 win in the middle set to force Shapiro-Greenburg to fight for a 7-5 triumph in the deciding set.

After posting a relatively easy 6-2 victory in the opening set over Tom Fitzpatrick and Jim Schry, Phi Delta Theta, Sekeras-Kaufman were forced to 20 games to down the Phi Delt duo, 11-9, in the second set.

Pollock Six Wins Dorm Softball Title

Pollock Six copped the inter-dormitory softball championship last night with an 8-7 victory over Hamilton VI. Lou Meyers was the winning pitcher.

The championship tilt ended the dormitory softball competition for the year. Pollock Six won the Nittany-Pollock Softball League crown while Hamilton VI topped the West Halls Softball League.

Joe Boyle, Penn State's first-year golf mentor, played on State's unbeaten Eastern championship team of 1948.

Service and Supplies

- Batteries
- Car Radios
- Portable Radios
- Phonographs

State College TV
232 S. Allen St.