

Return of Top Scorers Bolster Soccer Hopes

(This is the first of three articles concerning the positions of the 1957 Lion soccer team. Today we cover the center forward and inside slots.)

Like a quarterback in football, the center forward and inside men are the keys to the attack of a soccer team.

That is why the aforementioned three men are usually the scoring leaders of a booter eleven.

This fact couldn't have been more clearly illustrated than last year when Tommy Nute (center was named to the second team NCAA all-America soccer eleven. But both he and Stollmeyer, a junior from Trinidad, B.W.I., can't rest on their 1957 performances.

Says soccer boss Ken Hosterman, "They will have to hustle this year. They can't rest on last year's work alone, for I have several other boys this season who could push them out of a job."

Four respected sophomores and a senior who lettered as a sophomore among those "several other boys."

They include Pete Wadsworth, a starter on last fall's frosh outfit, Lorren Kline, Bill Glatz, Wayne Rodgers and Jim Benford—the lad who won his monogram two years ago.

Rodgers, however, is also an aspirant for a wing or halfback post and may be used very sparingly at the inside.

"Rodgers may turn out to be my number one utility man," Hosterman said. "That's if he can't make the team at any of the first team positions."

At any rate, the insides will have more depth than last season. "I really lacked the depth at inside in 1957," Hosterman said. "When Torgeson and Stollmeyer fired, there weren't too many good replacements on hand.

"Not that Torgy and Mike didn't do a good job," Hosterman continued, "but anyone would wear themselves out if he has to run about four miles a game like the insides have to do.

"And that's what happened to them last year. They played practically every minute of every game and towards the end of the game, they lost much of their finesse. But I won't have that trouble this year because I'll have the boys that can be put in and carry on the job effectively."

Hosterman doesn't expect the graduation of Nute to create a large problem at that other tactical frontline post—center forward.

The reason is one Bill Fiedler, a sophomore who created quite a stir with last season's frosh unit.

"Bill could be one of Penn State's greatest center forwards by the time he graduates," Hosterman said. "He has the potential to rank with Dick Packer and Bill McEwan."

Packer, holder of the Lion individual season scoring record, made the all-America eleven two years in a row as a first team pick, and McEwan was a three-time all-American choice in 1934, 1935, and 1936.

"Bill was quite a high school star," Hosterman said. "He was

Yanks, Cubs, A's Win; N.Y. Within 4 of Pennant

NEW YORK, Sept. 18 (AP)—Two home runs by Yogi Berra and fine relief pitching by Bob Turley carried the New York Yankees a bit closer to another American League pennant today as they defeated the Detroit Tigers again, 4-3.

Berra hit his 21st and 22nd home runs to drive in all of the Yankee runs. Berra's first homer came in the third inning with Gil McDougald and Mickey Mantle on the bases after a walk and a single. The second was a lead off homer in the sixth.

Turley relieved Sal Maglie, who was credited with his second American League victory, after Charlie Maxwell had hit his 24th homer and Frank House had walked with one out in the eighth.

Banks Hits 42nd—
CHICAGO, Sept. 18 (AP)—Ernie Banks regained the major league home run lead with his 42nd round tripper and rookie Dick Drott gained his 15th pitching triumph today as the Chicago Cubs beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 6-4.

Besides unloading back-to-back homers against Robin Roberts in the fourth inning, Banks and Walt Moryn accounted for five RBIs between them. Banks also collected a pair of doubles and Moryn clubbed a run-scoring two-bagger in the eighth.

Gorman Masters Bosox—
BOSTON, Sept. 18 (AP)—Veteran Tom Gorman served a homer to Jimmy Piersall on his first pitch and then blanked Boston the rest of the way today as the lowly Kansas City A's edged the Red Sox 2-1.

Gorman scattered seven hits and was in trouble only in the eighth inning as he went the distance for the third time this year and earned his fifth triumph against nine setbacks.

The worth of that trio can readily be appreciated when it is mentioned that they tallied 39 of the 1957 team's 49 goals.

Luckily for Penn State but not for its opponents, Torgeson and Stollmeyer both return this season. Because of his prolific play last season, Torgeson, a senior, a first team all-Philadelphia soccer choice for three years at three different positions—outside right, inside right, and center forward.

Also in the running with Fiedler is veteran Dave Haase and Ihor Chyzowych (pronounced Chee-zo-vich).

However, Hosterman said he expects to play Haase anywhere on the forward wall and put Chyzowych—a junior from Ogontz Center—on the wing.

Lacrosse Players, Managers Called

There will be a meeting for all varsity and freshman lacrosse candidates at 7 tonight in 114 Recreation Hall, varsity coach Earnie Baer announced yesterday.

The meeting will concern fall practice drills, which will start shortly, and Baer asked that all candidates be present.

Third semester sophomores interested in applying for second assistant lacrosse manager positions should also report at 7 tonight to 114 Rec Hall.

Mat Manager Candidates

Sophomore students interested in becoming wrestling managers are requested to sign their names immediately in the Athletic Office, second floor, of Recreation Hall.

AP 'Pro' Picks College Games

NEW YORK, Sept. 18 (AP)—Imagine walking down a dark alley on a moonless night. That's the sensation we get today in stepping into the first week of college football expiring, armed with little more than tea leaves and a prayer. Excuse the bumps, please.

Oklahoma 20, Pittsburgh 7: The Sooners, with expert coaching and topflight material, win No. 41 straight and take a big step toward their second national championship in a row. Pitt is strong defensively but lacks a Corny Sautterra.

Texas A&M 28, Maryland 7: This is the team that, except for sanctions, would have been in the Colton Bowl. Plenty of team speed and smart quarterbacking from Roddy Osborne and Jimmy Wright.

Others—
 Navy 21, Boston College 0;
 Georgia Tech 14, Kentucky 7;
 Southern Methodist 13, California 7;
 Rice 20, Louisiana State 0;
 Tulane 13, Virginia Tech 12;
 Texas 19, Georgia 7;
 Vanderbilt 20, Missouri 6;
 Oregon State 13, Southern California 12.

Frosh Soccer Candidates

All freshmen interested in trying out for the freshman soccer team should pick up physical examination cards from varsity coach Ken Hosterman or frosh mentor Walter Wiegand any time today in 202 Rec Hall.

Earl Bruce, formerly of Brownsville (Pa.) High School, once again will direct Penn State's freshman football forces.
