Baby Care Course To Begin Monday

The first meeting in a course on mother and baby care, sponsored by the Red Cross, will be held 7:30 p.m. Monday at 330 W. Beaver Ave.

The course, consisting of seven lecture demonstrations, an evening of films and a trip to the Centre County Hospital maternity division will be taught by Mrs. Marjorie Rix.

It is given free of charge.

Students Asked to File Address, Phone Changes

Students who have changed their local address or telephone number since registering have been asked to file a change of address in 4 Willard if they wish to have the correct information in the Student Directory.

A form should also be filed if the home address of a student has been changed, according to Robert M. Moser, associate registrar.

SNOOPY

Snoopy is the dog who wants to be a human being—or a ferocious lion, an alligator or a snake. He's a kind of canine Walter Mitty. But most of the time his imitations fall flat, giving hearty chuckles to fans of Peanuts comic strip, starting Tuesday in The Daily Collegian.

The University Christian Association, the Cosmopolitan Club, the International Relations Club and the State College Council of Church Women are sponsors of the tea.

The Westminster Foundation will hold its annual get-acquainted party at 7:45 tonight at the Presbyterian Church. The group will discuss "The Church in Student Life" at 6:20 p.m. tomorrow.

The United Student Fellowship will hold a weiner roast at 4:30 p.m. today at Faith Evangelical and Reformed Church. The men will meet at the church and call for the women in the main lobby of each of the women's residence halls.

A picnic will be held tomorrow by the Newman Club at the Holmes-Foster Park. Students will meet at 2 p.m. behind Osmond.

The Hillel Foundation will hold a lox and bagel brunch at the foundation from 11 a.m. to noon tomorrow. The Freshmen Council of the group will meet at 1 p.m. Freshmen may attend.

The group will also have try-outs at 7 p.m. for acting, writing and technical candidates for the Hillel Hour, a radio program heard every Tuesday at 7:45 p.m. over WMAJ.

The Wesley Foundation will hold a Firesire Forum in "What Is Your Role in the Campus Scene?" at 6:15 p.m. tomorrow at St. Paul's Methodist Church.

The Canterbury Association will hold an open house for Episcopal students and their friends at 8 tonight at the student center at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

Career Day--

It also affords an opportunity, by panel discussions, to appraise the duties, obligations and responsibilities of the business community.

Open to Public

The program, which is open to students and the public, consists of question and answer symposiums on accounting, economics, finance, insurance, labor, management, marketing and transportation during the afternoon and an address by a guest speaker in the evening.

Some guest speakers in past years have been Gov. George M. Leader; James P. Mitchell, secretary of labor; and Ralph G. Bunche, former president of the United Nations General Assembly.

Panels are planned in the fields of accounting, economics, finance, insurance, labor, management, marketing and transportation.

Pre-Vet Club Smoker

The Pre-Vet Club will sponsor a rushing smoker at 7 p.m. Thursday at Alpha Zeta fraternity.

The speaker will be Dr. Lyman E. Jackson, dean of the College of Agriculture. Refreshments will be served.

Dr. W. A. Visser't Hooft
Chapel Speaker

Church Official Will Deliver Chapel Sermon

Dr. Willem A. Visser't Hooft, general secretary of the World Council of Churches, will speak on "The Gathering of God's Children" at the chapel service at 10:55 a.m. tomorrow in Schwab Auditorium.

Rev. Visser't Hooft, a theologian and ecumenical leader whose offices are in Geneva, Switzerland, is in the United States to attend meetings of the world council.

The Chapel Choir, directed by Willa C. Taylor, will sing the introit "We Praise Thee, Lord" by Sohren and the anthem "Many Waters Cannot Quench Love" by Ireland.

George Ceiga, University organist, will play "Toccata en Ut" by Sweelinck as the prelude and "Fantasia en Ut" by Van den Kerckhoven for the postlude.

A native of Haarlam in the Netherlands, Dr. Visser't Hooft has been general secretary of the world council since it was started in 1948.

Dr. Vissert's Hooft previously served as secretary of the World Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association and the World Student Christian Association.

He is the author of numerous books, among them "The Background of the Social Gospel in America" and "The Renewal of the Church."

Teachers to Attend English Conference

More than 100 teachers and University faculty members are attending the Pennsylvania Council of Teachers of English yesterday and today on campus.

The meetings will end with a luncheon at 1 p.m. today when Dr. Paul Witty, professor of education at Northwestern University, will speak on "The Role of Television in Modern Education."

The teachers will also hear talks by Dr. A. Bruce Sutherland, acting head of the Department of English; Dr. Ben Euwema, dean of the College of the Liberal Arts; and Dr. Brice Harris, professor of English literature, and panel discussions in which other members of the faculty will participate.

Japan's birth rate dropped from 34 per thousand in 1934 to 20 per thousand in 1953.

Faculty Will Sponsor Art Show Reception

A reception will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. today in the Hetzel Union Building in connection with the Faculty Art Exhibit, which is being held there through Oct. 5.

The reception is open to students and to the public.

The exhibit is the first of several to be held this year.

Among later exhibits will be paintings from the Halpert collection.

The exhibit contains 40 paintings, jewelry, pottery and one piece of sculpture by members of the art, art history and art education faculties.

3 Media Used

The paintings are done in oil, watercolor and encaustic, a type of painting in which beeswax is used instead of oil for mixing.

The jewelry includes rings, pendants and earrings all done in silver. The jewelry was made by Edward L. Mattil, who has had wide exhibits of silverwork.

The sculpture, a statue of metal, was made by Yar G. Chomicky in a welding class held last semester which was designed primarily for art education students. The title of the statue is "Man Emergent."

Most Up for Sale

Most of the art works on exhibit are for sale. A few have been sold and a few are from private collections and are not for sale.

Faculty members who have works on exhibit are Kenneth R. Beittel, Andrew W. Case, Yar G. Chomicky, Dr. Albert Christ-Janer, Stuart H. Frost, Viktor Lowenfeld, Edward L. Mattil, George Pappas, John Y. Roy, Samuel C. Sabeau, Elizabeth Yeager, Edwin W. Zoller, George S. Zoretich and Eleanor Zyglor.

Hostesses for the reception are Mrs. Ben Euwema, Mrs. Albert Christ-Janer, Mrs. Winston Weisman, Mrs. George S. Zoretich and Mrs. Raymond Brown.

Aims, Deeds Cited By APhiO Adviser

Capt. Gordon D. Brigham, adviser for Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, discussed the group's goals and accomplishments with about 100 prospective members at an annual rushing smoker Thursday night in the dining rooms of the Hetzel Union Building.

Guests of honor were William B. Crafts, assistant to the dean of men; Rev. Preston Williams, assistant chaplain; Thomas Williams, Nittany-Pollock area counselor coordinator, and Robert Zimmerman, WDFM program director.

Persons interested in joining the group may report 8 p.m. Monday to 214, 215 or 216 Hetzel Union.
