

Halfback, Fullback Major Booter Woes

(This is the last of three articles concerning the positions of the Lion soccer team. Today we cover the halfbacks and fullbacks.)

Filling the gaps at halfback and fullback is soccer coach Ken Hosterman's most threatening problem.

Only two of the five starters at the three halfback and two fullback posts—halfback Herb Hertner and fullback captain Ralph Brower—return to the lineup this year.

Missing for the first time in four years will be 1956 captain Steve Flamporis and Ward Hill. These two venerable halfbacks were the keys to the Lions' defensive unit the past three seasons.

Also absent this fall is Bob Rosenberger, the other fullback, who dropped out of school.

Another halfback veteran, besides the junior Hertner, is back this season. He's senior Walt Krauser, a two-letter performer, who acted as the number four halfback in 1956.

Paul Bauer also saw action as a relief halfback last autumn but Hosterman is counting on him to help take up the slack at fullback. Bauer is a junior.

Howie Maerhofer, Wayne Rodgers, and Gary Miller are the other halfback candidates.

Maerhofer, a junior, is a transfer from Buffalo who was ineligible last season. Rodgers and Miller were regulars on last season's frosh eleven. All three are highly-rated by the Lion coach.

Hosterman has six men who are competing for the other fullback slot, including Bauer. One of them, senior Tony Tremonte, saw reserve action last year.

The other aspirants are juniors George Stover and Dick America, and sophomores Jim Knipe and Bob Sterner. The latter two were starters on the 1956 frosh unit.

"The halfbacks look very hopeful," Hosterman said, "and it looks like I'll have plenty of depth. The same holds true for fullback. But I'm only sure of one starter and that is Brower. Every other post is undecided."

'Sugar' Tells About Bribes He Rejected

GREENWOOD LAKE, N.Y., Sept. 20 (AP)—Middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson today disclosed he had rejected bribe offers of hundreds of thousands of dollars from "gamblers and hoodlums" but had never reported them because "I didn't want to cause a lot of trouble."

Asked when the offers to throw fights were made, Robinson said, "all through my career."

The champ introduced the subject of bribes himself in the midst of a long speech to newsmen before he held his final boxing workout.

Robinson boxed a three round drill in which he flattened sparring partner Lee Williams with a whistling right to the jaw.

Sugar Ray climaxed his boxing preparations for his title defense against Carmen Basilio at Yankee Stadium Monday night. He has boxed 66 rounds.
