

Little Rock Tension Eases On 2nd Integrated Day

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 26 (AP)—Nine Negro students moved smoothly through a second day of integrated classes at Central High School today. They were protected by Army paratroopers, but tension at the buff brick institution seemed to be easing.

There was no blood-letting and there were no skirmishes outside the big school, ringed today as it was yesterday with steel-helmeted, bayonet-ready Army regulars. Students coming out of classes reported no disturbances inside.

With the completion of the second day of integration, the Negro students were escorted from Central High by the paratroopers to an Army station wagon for the trip to their homes. They had been brought in the same manner when school opened for the day.

White students said no incidents occurred inside the school and that tension in classrooms was easing. The Negroes again shared tables with white students in the cafeteria for lunch.

Outside, also, the tension eased to the extent that the almost solid line of soldiers directly in front of the building were moved to a parallel street a block away and out of sight of the school. Officers said it was a move toward greater normalcy for the students, who hitherto have looked out school windows at a scene of bustling military activity.

About a dozen hooky-playing students paraded in front of Gov. Faubus' mansion early in the afternoon. They carried placards indicating their support of Faubus and their opposition to integration. They sought an audience with the governor but said he declined to see them.

About a third of the 2,000 white students boycotted yesterday's classes. But School Supt. Virgil Blossom reported attendance today at about 1,350, or about 100 more than yesterday.

Pitt Will Inoculate Against Asiatic Flu

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 26 (AP)—Students and faculty members of the University of Pittsburgh will be inoculated against Asiatic flu. Chancellor Edward H. Litchfield said today.

The mass inoculations will begin as soon as the vaccine becomes available—probably within the next two weeks.

Hoffa Excused From Testifying Until Elections

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26 (AP)—The Senate Rackets Committee today excused James R. Hoffa from testifying before it until he has won or lost his battle for the presidency of the giant Teamsters Union.

Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) said the committee also has decided to delay the questioning of Benjamin Franklin (Frank) Collins, indicted with Hoffa yesterday on perjury charges brought by a federal grand jury in New York.

But McClellan said the committee has no intention of halting its investigation of Hoffa, already accused by witnesses of misusing union funds and power.

"This committee is going to plow ahead," the senator said.

It had been planned to call Hoffa on Saturday, but George Fitzgerald, his lawyer, pleaded for a delay until after the Teamsters' election in Miami Beach, Fla., next week.

Fitzgerald complained that charges against Hoffa and the Teamsters have been "dropping around us like confetti at a county fair."

Los Angeles Dreams

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 26 (AP)—The City of Los Angeles has appropriated $6000 for its float in the annual Tournament of Roses parade in Pasadena New Year's Day.

The float's title: "Welcome Dodgers."

The parade's theme: "Day Dreaming."

Ike Wants 'Broad' Talk On Integration

NEWPORT, R.I., Sept. 26 (AP)—President Dwight D. Eisenhower told a committee of five Southern governors today he would confer with them Tuesday in Washington but on a broader scale of school integration problems than they intended.

The governors had asked the meeting solely to seek the earliest possible withdrawal of federal troops sent to Little Rock, Ark., under Eisenhower's orders to quell school integration disorders.

Eisenhower's reply made it plain he did not intend to limit discussion to that point.

The President's reply also made clear that Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas would not attend. The President specified that his meeting would be with the governors' committee—and Faubus is not a committee member.

James C. Hagerty, presidential press secretary, confirmed later at a news conference that Faubus would not be present at the White House meeting.

When asked if the governor would be, Hagerty said, "The answer is no, he will not."

Hagerty declined comment on the governors' wish that the meeting be limited to the troop topic, except to refer questioners to the President's reply calling for a more general discussion.

Dixie Officials Ask Withdrawal

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP)—Gov. Luther Hodges said today the sole purpose of a committee of Southern governors who will confer with President Eisenhower next Tuesday will be to seek the withdrawal of federal troops from Little Rock, Ark., "at the earliest possible moment."

Hodges, chairman of the committee, commented that he considered Eisenhower's decision to send in federal troops "a tragic mistake."

Hodges said a resolution adopted yesterday by the Southern Governors Conference at Sea Island, Ga., instructed the committee to confer with the President and Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus, "seeking the withdrawal of federal troops from Arkansas."

Arab Summit Meeting Planned

DAMASCUS, Syria, Sept. 26 (AP)—A new Arab summit conference was reported in the making today as King Saud of Saudi Arabia took up the role of middleman in an effort to prevent a blow up over leftist Syria.

A dramatic sample of Saud's intervention as peacemaker was the arrival here today by Premier Ali Jawdat of Iraq, a member of the anti-Communist Baghdad Pact.

The cousin kings of Hasemite Iraq and Jordan have been feuding with Syria and Egypt over policies which seemed to be opening the gates to Soviet penetration of the Middle East, and have had a generations-old feud with the Saudi Arabians as well.

But the Hashemite-Saudi quarrel appeared patched up last spring when Saud openly supported Jordan's King Hussein in riding his kingdom of its leftist, pro-Egyptian government. Saud also paid a state visit to Iraq.

There were reports here that Saud has now been invited to visit both Iraq and Jordan, and that a meeting of the heads of the Arab states may be arranged to examine differences.

Used Book Agency

will be

Returning Money and Books

Starting

Monday, Sept. 30, 1957—From 1:30 to 4:30

and

Continuing Through Oct. 4, 1957

from 10 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.

UBA is Located in HUB Basement