IT'S A TOUCHDOWN . . . Lion halfback Dave Kasperian is shown scoring the first Penn State touchdown of the 1957 season with a four-yard slant off tackle early in the first quarter.

'Brash Bob' Enthusiastic About New Job in Majors

NEW YORK, Sept. 30 (P) — Bragan said he had no immediate thoughts concerning changes in the Cleveland club. "I haven't seen the club yet, but it's encouraging that the team has played near .500 ball without their two best pitchers, Herb Score and Bob Lemon."

Bobby, fired Aug. 3 after a year-and-a-half-plus as manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was named by Greenberg last night to succeed ousted Kerby Farrell.

Bragan, 40, said Greenberg telephoned him yesterday morning and "it didn't take me long to accept."

Jacks was again at the helm when the Lions moved 86 yards to their second touchdown. This time the Lions scored in 17 plays—a two-yard pass from Jacks to end Jack Farls accounting for the TD. During the drive, the Lion quarterback completed three of five pass attempts for 25 yards and ran for eight on a keep play for half the yardage march.

In total, Jacks completed 7 of 13 passes for a total of 79 yards. In his six running attempts, he gained 22 yards and lost only one for a net ground game of 21 yards.

Engle was also encouraged by the play of ends Jack Farls and Paul North and the running of Bucky Paolone. Farls was described by Penn Coach Steve Sebo after the game as "probably the best end we'll see all year. He was influential in the Lions' goal-line stand in the third quarter when he stopped halfback Rick McGinnley on the two-yard line on a third down end sweep. Fullback Bill Raser gained only one on fourth down and the Lions took over.

North was a stalwart on defense for Engle's second unit while Paolone was the number two Lion ground gainer behind Kasperian with 52 yards in eight carries. Kasperian had 86 in 17. Paolone also ambled on the Lions' longest run with a 29-yard dash off tackle.

The Lions' third touchdown—the one which proved to be the eventual tale-teller—came on the last play of the third quarter. After Steve Garban recovered a John Wright fumble on the Penn two, Bruce Gilmore bulled his way over for the score. Romeo Panozzo's conversion attempt—as Caprara's second attempt—was wide.

Penn scored its touchdowns in the second and fourth quarters. With 11:23 gone in the half, Penn quarterback Hal Musick—probably the outstanding Penn performer—cut off tackle on a keep play and sprinted away from Gilmore for a 43-yard TD run. Frank Riepl's conversion was good. Musick scored the other Quaker TD on a one-yard sneak with 1:48 remaining in the game. Wright converted.

8 Grid Teams Score Shutouts

By LES POWELL

Three fraternity and five independent teams chalked up shutout victories in nine intramural football contests last night on the University golf course.

Power-packed Pi Kappa Phi whitewashed Acacia, 7-0; the College Co-op gridders topped the Penn Haven Club, 10-0; the Yellow Jackets outclassed Nittany 28, 16-0; Sigma Nu scored a 1-0 win over Delta Theta Sigma in overtime; Phi Mu Delta shut out Chi Phi, 6-0; the Fizz Eiders toppled the Inebriates, 20-0; the Lions edged Nittany 26 in overtime, 1-0; Nittany 21 beat Nittany 24, 14-0, and Phi Epsilon Pi defeated Phi Kappa Tau, 13-6.

The passing and defending of Ron Rainey sparked the Pi Kappa nine to their win over Acacia. After Tommy Holmes intercepted on the Acacia 17, Rainey hit Ed McDowell on the 3, following it up with another toss to McDowell in the end zone for the game's lone six-pointer. Fred Martin converted to give the Pi Kaps a 7-0 edge.

The Yellow Jackets drove for their initial score shortly after the opening kickoff. After a penalty gave Nittany 28 a first down on the Yellow Jacket 17, Jacket lineman Paul Maysfield batted a Nittany pass to Bob Simon, who loped 60 yards for a touchdown.

The Nittany nine attempted to get back in the ball game with a 45-yard field goal, but the three-pointer try was wide.

The Yellow Jackets widened the margin when Walt Miles flipped 29 yards to Bob Larson on the Nittany 21, then threw to Lee Breeze for the TD. Miles converted for a 13-0 lead.

Miles set up the final Yellow Jacket score with an aerial to Bill Euwer at the Nittany 10-yard line. He then booted the pigskin through the uprights for an anti-climactic field goal.

Dale Shakley got the College Co-op gridders out in front by kicking a 22-yard fielder. In the second stanza, Shankley passed to Clark Hawk on an 8-yard scoring play. Shakley kicked the point-after to round out the scoring.

Sigma Nu gained its thrilling overtime victory by virtue of a 50-yard touchdown pass.
