

Faubus Agrees to Truce; Troops to Be Withdrawn

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 1 (AP)—Gov. Orval Faubus tonight promised not to obstruct further the historic integration process at Central High School.

In return, President Eisenhower prepared to withdraw all federal troops from Little Rock. No date for the withdrawal was announced.

State Agencies Plan to Start Airport Work

HARRISBURG, Oct. 1 (AP)—Two state agencies went ahead without federal help today in the expansion of Philipsburg State Airport.

The state Aeronautics Commission and the state Highways Department have agreed on a plan for building an extension on one of the airport's runways before the winter sets in. Work will begin tomorrow or Thursday.

Adj. Gen. Biddle, chairman of the Aeronautics Commission, said the agreement was an "emergency procedure."

Under the agreement, the PAA has made available to the Highways Department a total of $174,000 for lengthening the northeast-southwest runway from the present 3000 feet to 5000 feet. Its width will remain 100 feet. The airport's other runway will not be touched.

Federal Spending Rises Despite Economy Drive

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (AP)—The administration announced today that federal spending will rise to 72 billion dollars this year, up 200 million dollars from President Eisenhower's January budget estimate despite the congressional economy drive.

Government income will be 73½ billion dollars, or 100 million less than anticipated, it was said. As a result, the foreseeable surplus has shrunk to 1½ billion dollars, a drop of 300 million.

The pact, worked out through go-betweens, paved the way for a possible end to the gravest civil rights and states rights crisis of modern times.

The regular Army already had withdrawn its task force from the high school. Patrol of the city's first integrated school was turned over to federalized Arkansas National Guardsmen this morning.

Outwardly, all was serene as nine Negro students — the focal point of a tumult that echoed around the world — entered and left the school.

But Mrs. L. C. Bates, state president of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, said that inside the school the Negroes "had a terrible day."

Military authorities had reported all was quiet in the classrooms and corridors. But Mrs. Bates said objects were thrown at the six Negro girls and three boys. She described it as an apparent organized attempt by white students to intimidate the Negroes, the first ever to enter a Little Rock white school as students.

Although 11 Guardsmen were on duty inside the school, Mrs. Bates claimed they provided "no protection at all."

The removal of the regular troops apparently encouraged to a very mild degree anti-integrationist sentiment outside the school. It had been missing for several days.

Warren Refuses to Halt Teamster Union Election

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (AP)—Chief Justice Warren refused today to halt the election of a new slate of officers by the scandal-scattered Teamsters Union.

He denied a petition for an injunction brought by 13 rank and file members who charged the election had been rigged to give the $50,000-a-year post of president to James R. Hoffa.

Warren agreed with the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals that a temporary injunction would go "beyond the necessities of the situation" and "is not required in order to prevent irreparable injury."

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Oct. 1 (AP)—James R. Hoffa's foes for control of the giant Teamsters Union claimed today they had stopped him cold, but Hoffa forces insisted their man is a sure winner.

It appeared Hoffa's three opponents were gaining some ground but that Hoffa, 44, the Midwest Teamsters boss linked to labor scandals, still was ahead in his race to become Teamsters president.

"To enjoin the election of officers of an international union of 891 locals and 1½-million members during the course of its convention proceedings, on allegations of conspiracy supported by the affidavits here, without testimony having been taken, would indeed be drastic action," Warren commented.

Balloting is scheduled to begin at the Teamsters convention in Miami Beach Thursday. With the loss of their suit in the Supreme Court, the 13 dissident Teamsters from the New York area appear to have come to the end of the road in their attempts to halt the election by legal process.
