

Harriers Sweep Navy

By GEORGE FRENCH
ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 4

The Nittany Lions' varsity and freshman cross-country teams opened the season with duplicate 22-33 victories over Navy here yesterday afternoon.

Captain Fred Kerr came from third place in the last half-mile to win the varsity four-mile test in 20:28.

Ed Moran held on to take second in 20:31, while Navy's Brad Smith faded to finish third, four seconds behind Moran.

Dick Englebrink, with 20:42, and Clem Schoenebeck with 20:55, took fourth and fifth to clinch the victory for the Lions.

Tom Monaghan, Bob Kunkle, Leslie Palmer and Frank Young swept the next four places for the Midshipmen.

Other varsity finishers were George Jones, 10th; Joe Thompson, 11th; Al Jones, 12; Sam White, 17; and Jack Williams, 19th.

Varsity Coach Chick Werner said he was pleased with the squad's competitive spirit, but said its pacing was poor. The time for the first mile was a slow 5:25.

"Considering that we have only had three weeks of practice, we should be a lot better as the season progresses," Werner said. In the freshman meet, Greensburg's Bill Kiggins finished a strong first for Navy in 14:04 over the 2.7 mile course. Denny Johnson, with 14:13, Ken Hunter, 14:18, and Herm Weber, 14:24, took the next three places for the Lion frosh. Navy's Jim Curran took fifth place in 14:40 but was followed

Pigskin Coin Flips . . . Out On a Limb

No helicopters, no black briefcases, no mountain hideaways this week. In fact, no pride on the part of our guessers after last week's hideous results.

With little exception, our writers and Coach Joe Paterno are pretty well agreed on the outcome of today's games. Lucky Lou Prato picks Miami over Baylor all by his lonesome. Lou even thinks Dartmouth will beat Penn.

Joe the coach sees Stanford getting Rice in its hair, while the intrepid Magnificent Matt Mathews sees the Mountaineers badgering Wisconsin.

Army Tilt—

With an experienced quarterback in Bourland and a big line—the biggest in five years at the Academy—, Army has the potential to keep the defense honest with a varied offense. Bourland completed six of 10 passes against Nebraska, one a touchdown toss to Graf. Last week the Cadets totaled 424 yards in offense, proof enough of their power.

Turning to his own squad, Engle said: "The kids have been working real hard and are going to give a fine account of themselves . . . our spirit is good."

The game is rated by the odds-men a near tossup, Army having the edge in point spread—anywhere from 1-7.

The probable starting lineup:

PENN STATE	LE	ARMY
Walters	LT	Ury
Wehmer	LG	Melnik
Sabol	C	Rowe
Rusavage	RG	Kerzan
McMillen	RT	Slater

tics titles in 1953 and 1954. Soccer, gymnastics and wrestling are among the so-called minor sports which enjoy unusual success at Penn State.

Scorer Vets Return

Penn State scoring in 1957 will be spearheaded by Per Torgerson and Mike Stollmeyer, who last year helped the Lion soccer team to an 8-2-1 record. Ken Hosterman's booters make their home debut against Maryland Saturday.

Mr. Motorist

You've probably noticed herds of cute little "dears" darting across College Ave.

They're migrating to NITTANY-DELL—the best feeding grounds in the county.

There, they enjoy the tastiest snacks ever prepared.

Whistle or toot . . . but please don't hit the little "dears".
