Booters Win Maryland,

Soccer Coach Ken Hosterman wasn't kidding last week when he said he expected the Maryland game to be a "rough, tough affair." It was exactly that and more.

Scoring a 2-1 victory before 500 fans at Beaver Field, the contest saw many Lion booters walk off the field with more than their share of bruises.

The major casualty was the Nittanies' sophomore wingman Lou VanRafelghem, who was the victim of a Maryland play-er's "wild foot" in the waning moments of the game. VanRafelghem was removed to the lo-cal infirmary via an ambulance but x-rays later showed no sign of broken bones in his ankle.

"I would have sure hated to lose that one," Hosterman com-mented, "after all we went through. There's no doubt that we outplayed them. We outshot them 37-12 and had nine corner kicks to their three.

"Their goalie was the big dif-ference," Hosterman added. "He played the ball nice, covered up nice, and was pretty quick."

The goal tender was Jim Sims, one of four veterans on the Terp crew who received consideration for all-America last season.

I wouldn't be a bit sur- I don't know what men they Bruce.

Bill Fiedler ... scores winning goal prised," Hosterman continued, "if they went unbeaten from now on. They've got the boys. I'm preity sure they'll be Atlantic Coast champions again.

lost," Hosterman said, referring to the pregame pessimism offered by Maryland, "but they must have been scrubs. They were better this year than last."

Commenting on his own team, Hosterman said, "The defense did Wadsworth, a sophomore re-serve, entered the game at the past Sims for the score.

That fied the score and provided the "oomph" necessary for the victory. Three minutes and 15 seconds later, another sophomore, Bill Fiedler, tallied the second and final goal on a spectacular play involving the passing of Gary Miller, Dave Haase and Per Torgeson.

Maryland's score came with 50 seconds left in the second stanza on a 25 foot kick by sub Asad Shukry. It was a desperate boot which just missed the outstretched hands of goalie Jerry around end at 3:25. Dawkins fol-

(Continued from page six) the quarter with a 10-yard sweep

Before that clinching third quarter, the Lions battled the Cadeis on even terms, for the most part, in the first half.

Taking the opening kickoff, they moved 57 yards in 15 plays for a score — Dave Kasperian going over on a 2-yard sweep. Fullback Babe Caprara's extra-point attempt was partially

After an exchange of the ball, ersions were good.

blocked.

wide.

outcome.

A Glance at . . .

SPORTS

Sports Editor

a grand job. And wasn't Howie (Maierhofer) tremendous a gain. THE LION GRIDDERS PLAYED A SPIRITED GAME (Maierhofer) tremendous a gain. THE LION GRIDDERS PLAYED A SPIRITED GAME
But I hate to single out any indi"The team is as spirited as last year's team." The speaker was vidual. They all did a good job. Penn State Coach Rip Engle and the setting was the Lion locker I was also pleased with Pete room shortly after the final gun of the Army-Penn State grid thriller Saturday afternoon at Beaver Field.

For a coach to say this after walking off the field a 27-13 half with the Lions on the lower loser may seem a bit surprising to many fans. But, after watching end of a 1-0 score. Three minutes his "kids" in action against the Army football machine, we'd have later, the inside forward grabbed to go along with the Ripper . . . the Lions were a beaten but a loose ball from 10 yards in spirited eleven against Army Saturday.

No, we're not alibying for the defeat. Army scored a sound victory over Penn State and that's all there was to it. We'll be the first to admir it-even though we honestly felt in the pregame prognosticating that the Lions were going to be the victor. But. an Army third quarter-and it was all Army's-proved us wrong.

However, that doesn't stop us from praising the Lions for their effort. As a team, the Lions fought as hard as they could to match the powerful Cadet contingent. They have nothing to be ashamed of in defeat because they went down the way all losers should—as fighters. As Engle put it: "They stood and battled."

For individual efforts, we'd have to lean to the tremendous passing display by quarterback Al Jacks. Jacks completed 17 of 32 passes to tie the Penn State record for completions set by Tony Rados against Purdue in 1952. He had one 20-yard completion—on a brilliant catch by Paul North-called back because of an offside penalty against the Lions. He certainly sparkled in defeat.

And then there was North. If anyone gave a 100 per cent effort Saturday, he was the boy. On offense or defense, he played his heart out-and did a darn good job at it. The catch he made on that called-back completion was one seldom seen during the course of a normal game—but, of course, this was no normal game.

lowed suit some six minutes later Fullback Babe Caprara again played an outstanding game. Anywith a 3-yard end sweep. And way you call it, he was tough—he blocked accurately, he ran hard, fullback Harry Walters climaxed he played his defense creditably, he caught the passes thrown to the machine-like offensive thrust him to pick up vital yardage and his faking was once more at its with a 2-yard scoring plunge at effective best. He's a determined player who gives his all at all 13:55. All three extra point con-times—and even more when necessary.

These weren't the only players to shine in defeat for the Lions. But, they're the ones we especially noticed. Many should come in for plaudits from the fans. Even though they lost, they certainly didn't quit.

And while we're at it, we must congratulate the fans for their backing at the game. Even at the end, the players knew the student body was behind them. Keep up the good work—the season is just starting.

Lacrosse Club Meeting

The first meeting of the se-Army fied the score as halfback Bob Anderson went five yards Club will be held at 7:30 tonight into the end zone on a fourth down dive play. Tackle Maurice Films of last years Syracuse Williams of the penn State Lacrosse Bob Anderson went five yards Club will be held at 7:30 tonight into the end zone on a fourth down dive play. Tackle Maurice Films of last years Syracuse

Hilliard's conversion attempt was game will be shown fo'lowing the The Lions' final score came on male students.

a pretty 18-yard pass play from Jacks to end Les Walters who Wrestling Call Issued was all alone in the end zone. All wrestling candidates -- var-Caprara kicked the conversion sity, freshman, and sophomore But, then came the touchdown managers—will meet at the Rectorrent . . . the fans know the reation Hall mat area today at 4:30 p.m.

The typical cold State College weather is not too far off; have you planned for those cold winter mornings?

If you haven't decided on a warm winter coat, why not stop into Danks Men's Shop and look over our complete line of winter coats? We have one of the largest selections of winter coatscoats for every taste and bud-

We have a full line of top coats in shorts, regulars, and longs. Raglan or set-in sleeves. All types of fabrics including tweeds and wools. The wide price range is within everyone's budget—$39.75 to $59.50.

Our corduroy coats range in price from $19.98 to $29.98. Some of these coats include hoods.

We have a few zippered corduroy coats for $15.98.

Of course we have the toggled car coats.

One of our sharpest coats is fashioned from a herringbone fabric with a quilted lining for only $24.98.

Then there's a Melton cloth coat in a solid or ivy stripe fabric for only $19.98!

Don't freeze; stop into Danks

Entrances on W. Beaver Ave.

-Daily Collegian Photo by George Harrison IT'S NO GOOD . . . End Paul North (82) battles Army's Vince Barta, (32) and Pete Dawkins (24) for a touchdown pass in the third quarter of the Army game. The pass was incomplete-in fact, it hit the crossbar on the goal post after being deflected.

IT'S SMART TO BE COMFORTABLE The newest Clarks original . . . Desert Khan . . . stylishly contoured for comfort in Olive Calf with microcellular Makers of Desert Boots Bostonian Ltd PENN STATE Guy Kresge Jack Harpe 108 West College Ave. Jack Harper

INTERCOLLEGIATE CONFERENCE

on

GOVERNMENT

ICG welcomes you to to a panel discussion by professors Silva, Sorauf, Brewster and McGeary on

Current National Problems TONIGHT 7:30 P.M. Tuesday, Oct. 8 111 Boucke