

McMillen Injures Ribs; To Miss W & M Contest

Guard Richie McMillen was the only serious injury loss incurred by the Penn State football team during its 27-13 loss to Army last Saturday at Beaver Field.

McMillen injured his ribs in the first quarter of the Cadet contest and was forced to watch the rest of the game from the sidelines—most of it in street clothes.

The extent of McMillen's injury is still a question mark. But, it is fairly certain that he will definitely miss the William and Mary game Saturday at Beaver Field. Reports are that there is a strong likelihood that he will be out for at least two weeks—if not more.

With McMillen on the injured list, Coach Rip Engle said that he would move Willard (Bull) Smith up to a starting role. Smith, until this time, saw most of his action with Engle's alternate unit. He replaced McMillen in the Army game.

With Smith moving to the first team, the job for the number two right guard post is up for grabs between sophomore Frank Korbini and junior Ray Pottios.

Except for the usual bumps and bruises, the rest of the squad is in good physical shape. Engle said. Fullbacks Maurice Schleicher and Ben Williams are over their injuries and should be in good condition for the Indians. Williams, in fact, played a bit against the Cadets.

Looking ahead to the William and Mary game, Engle refused to take the Indians lightly. "William and Mary has a good football team," he said. "They scored a surprise win over VPI last week and Navy had them by only one touchdown at half-time." (Navy eventually went on to win, 33-7).

Engle also added that the Indians possess "as good a back as there is" in halfback Charlie Sidwell. Sidwell's potential may be

Swim Entry Deadline Set for Wednesday

Entries for the Intramural swimming tournament are due by 4:30 p.m. next Wednesday in the IM office.

A meet will consist of the following five events: 60-yard free style, 60-yard back stroke, 60-yard breast stroke (butterfly permitted), 120-yard relay, and diving (front dive, back dive, and optional).

A team may enter two men in each event, but only one relay team. An individual may compete in only two events, excluding diving.

Lion Win Moves Army Into 'Top 10'

Army moved from 12th to 10th in the weekly Associated Press nationwide college football poll after beating the Nittany Lions, 27-13, at Beaver Field Saturday afternoon.

Oklahoma and Michigan State remained 1-2 in the nation, but there was a bit of shifting around involving other teams in the top 10.

Navy dropped from sixth place all the way out of the top 20 as a result of its 13-7 loss to North Carolina while Pitt moved back into the lineup as the 20th team.

Two of the top 10 teams will clash this week—Michigan State meets Michigan at Ann Arbor and Army lays its newly found ranking on the line against Notre Dame at Philadelphia.

The flu bug bit several of the big teams, notably the Sooners of Oklahoma and Iowa, yet both of these teams held their positions with wins over Iowa State and Washington State respectively.

The top 10:

Oklahoma, Michigan State, Texas A&M, Minnesota, Duke, Michigan, Oregon State, Iowa, Auburn and Army.

The second 10:

Arkansas, Notre Dame, North Carolina State, Mississippi, Rice, Wisconsin, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Tennessee and Pitt.

WRA Tennis Program

The WRA Tennis Club will begin season activities with an open ladder tournament. Instructions for beginners in tennis are being held weekly at White Building.

All girls who are interested in either the ladder tournament or the instructions should contact Linda Quinn, extension 611, for further information.

Rich McMillen ... on injured list illustrated by the fact that he has already been drafted by the Cleveland Browns—and he still has a year of college eligibility left. Sidwell is considered by many experts to be one of the best combination passing-running halfbacks in the country.

Coach Milt Drewer, who replaced the exiled Jack Freeman last spring, has the biggest squad, numerically and physically. William and Mary has seen in the past six years. The Indians are expected to stress the "belly" series out of a split-T formation as its main offensive weapon.

Buhl Opposes Turley In Clincher Attempt

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK, Oct. 9 (AP)—Mickey Mantle and Red Schoendienst probably will be out of action today when the World Series resumes at Yankee Stadium. Milwaukee's Bob Buhl will try for the clincher against the New York Yankees' Bob Turley. The Braves hold a 3-2 edge.

Mantle, crippled Yankee center fielder who hurt his shoulder in Saturday's game, appeared at the stadium for diathermy treatment after X-rays proved negative. It was reported he couldn't raise his right arm. Barring an unexpected change, he won't be able to swing a bat or make a throw.

Schoendienst, who pulled a groin muscle in yesterday's thriller at Milwaukee, still was hobbled. Normally it takes several days for such an injury to heal.

Neither Manager Casey Stengel of the Yankees nor Fred Haney of the Braves would say positively the two men won't play.

If Mantle can't make it, rookie Tony Kubek probably will be in center field again. Schoendienst's replacement at second base would be Felix Mantilla, the Puerto Rican who did such a fine job filling in yesterday.

This will be the second time Buhl and Turley, a pair of fast-ball pitchers, have been the opposing pitchers. They started the Saturday game at Milwaukee, won by the Yanks 12-3. Buhl failed to survive the first and Turley was taken out in the second inning.

Turley, 27, didn't have much better luck than Buhl. The right-hander gave up three singles and walked four in 1 2/3 innings.

The Braves received a jolt when Warren Spahn, winner of Sunday's 10-inning thriller, came down with a touch of the flu and a sort throat. Spahn will be the pitcher Thursday if the Yanks tie it today. Lew Burdette, a two-time winner, will back him up.

The odds favor Milwaukee by 2 to 1 for the Series. The Yanks are 7 to 5 favorites to win today's game which will be played under good weather conditions.

Army Bumps 'Star' Hewitt

Call it ironic if you want; but Army, en route to a 27-13 victory over the Lions last Saturday, accidentally retaliated against the only Penn State football player ever to score the winning Lion touchdown against the Cadets in the history of the series between the two schools.

The victim of the retaliation was 70-ish Earl Hewitt who, in the series opener in 1899, ran an Army punt back 65 yards for the only touchdown of the game to give the Lions their lone win of the seven-game series.

The play went like this: Hewitt, who has yet to miss a Cadet-Lion encounter, was standing near the Penn State sidelines when quarterback Al Jacks tossed a pass to fullback Babe Caprara in that vicinity.

Army guard Stan Slater, covering the play, made a vicious lunge for the ball and succeeded in breaking up the pass. However, his momentum carried him out of bounds and into the startled Hewitt, who ended up on the ground.

But the oldster, who has a reputation for liking "that body contact," simply picked himself up and brushed himself off. He then continued to watch the game from the same vantage point. Not even an all-America candidate like Slater could keep him down.

COLLEIGAN PROMOTION STAFF:
Please have ALL Fraternity Contracts and
All Homecoming Ads Completed
As Soon As Possible
The Contracts Are Ready—Pick Them Up in the Office!

ENTER VAN HEUSEN'S MAMMOTH "IF I WERE A WRINKLE..." CONTEST

Any college student may enter! Many prizes! No rules! Easy pickings for smart guys!

This is it! The contest you've long awaited... the chance to beat Van Heusen out of some of their glorious goods!

As you may know, Van Heusen is the creator of the world's most fabulous shirt. Namely, the Van Heusen Century Shirt with the revolutionary soft collar that won't wrinkle... ever! This collar banishes wrinkles mercilessly. No matter how horribly you torture it, it simply will not wrinkle. Ever!

Now, out of all this grows our contest. We know... and the buyers of Van Heusen Century Shirts know... that the wrinkles have disappeared. But the question that plagues us all is: Where? What has become of these wrinkles. Some say they are on the brows of elderly professors. Others say they have migrated to the ocean where they cause waves. Where do you think the banished wrinkles have gone? Where would you go if you were a banished wrinkle? For the best answer to this question Van Heusen will award a grand prize of a complete wardrobe of Van Heusen Century Shirts in 5 collar styles. To the 1000 next best answers there will be consolation prizes of a box of genuine wrinkles.

Enter today. Mail your answer to Van Heusen's mammoth "If I were a wrinkle" contest to Phillips-Van Heusen Corp., 417 5th Ave., N. Y., N.Y. Don't forget to send us your shirt size with your entry.

We, too, don't know where, when, or how the wrinkles have gone, but we are willing to help you find a good answer. Stop in!

See the fabulous Van Heusen "Century" at...

Huc's Mens Shop

Old Spice

PRE-ELECTRIC SHAVE LOTION

to get a better shave!

Quicker... closer... smoother... no matter what machine you use. 1.00 plus tax

SHULTON New York • Toronto