

Not Enough Coeds, Middle States Says

Lawrence E. Dennis, vice president for academic affairs, said three of the criticisms made by the Middle States Accreditation Team in 1955 were the small number of women students, the lack of internal communication at the University and low salaries.

8 Faculty Resignations Accepted

Resignations of eight faculty members were reported to the Board of Trustees last weekend. They included Dr. Samuel W. Blizzard, professor of sociology and rural sociology, who resigned Aug. 31 to accept a position as sociologist on the faculty of Princeton Theological Seminary; Dr. Clifton A. Anderson, professor of industrial engineering, June 30, to become professor and head of the Department of Industrial Engineering at North Carolina State University.

Edward W. Dawson, professor of engineering research, Sept. 17, to accept a position with Leeds and Northrup Co., Philadelphia; Robert W. Roberts, research associate in engineering research, Aug. 31, to return to industry.

Dr. Sullivan S. Marsden, associate professor of petroleum and natural gas engineering, Aug. 31, to accept an appointment at Stanford University; Vincent G. Hill, research assistant in geochemistry, Aug. 15, to become scientific adviser for the Geologic Survey Department at Saltpond, Ghana, in Africa.

Clarence Hofelt, associate in engineering research, Oct. 4, to accept a position with General Tire and Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, and Gwendolyn K. Burch, extension home economist in Susquehanna county, Sept. 30.

Office Hours Planned By WSGA Committee

The Women's Student Government Association Student Implementations Committee will hold office hours from 9 a.m. to noon today and tomorrow and from 1 to 2 p.m. today in the WSGA office, 203 Hetzel Union.

Committee members will be in the office to answer questions concerning the Honor Code.

Dennis, in an article for the Alumni News, said the team recommended the University take all practicable measures "with deliberate speed" to increase the number of women in the student body.

Dennis said the team "took the University to account" for what the team said was a failure on its part to fulfill its responsibilities for the education of women. But Dennis said the team also believes the entire state is remiss in its responsibilities with respect to the education of women.

"Salaries at Penn State were found to be low by the accrediting team," Dennis said, "particularly in the ranks of full professor and associate professor."

(The unsuccessful attempt by the University to get funds from the state to increase salaries is history now.)

"As an institution grows in size and the scope of its services is broadened, the problem of internal communication becomes increasingly difficult," Dennis said.

The accreditation team, Dennis said, found a serious lack of internal communication at the University.

"Sound educational policy," Dennis said, "requires clearly defined, easily accessible channels of communication among students, faculty, administration of officers and trustees."

Trustees Name 7 to Faculty

The appointments of seven new faculty members were approved last weekend by the Board of Trustees.

They are:

Dr. Sara Ann Rhue, associate professor of education; Dr. Louis B. Dupree, associate professor of anthropology; Dr. Richard M. Colwell, lecturer in accounting; Dr. Mortimer I. Kay, research associate in the x-ray and crystal structure laboratory in the Department of Physics.

Dr. Katsuya Inouye, research associate in geology; Jane B. Marhefka, extension home economist for Juniata county and two visiting research associates from Oxford University, R. D. McCammon in physics and J. C. Tomkinson in chemistry.

—Daily Collegian photo by Harry Furminger

SORORITY RUSHING isn't all a grind for both rushees and sisters as this photograph shows. More than 400 upperclasswomen are now participating in the informal rush program.

Interlandia Group Will Hold Dance

The Interlandia Folk Dance group will sponsor a German-Scandinavian dance from 7:30 to 10:30 tonight in the Hetzel Union ballroom.

A different country will be represented each Friday night by a program of music from that country. Previous experience in folk dancing is not needed to join the group.

Officers are David Houghton, president; William Warren, vice president; Lois Reese, secretary; and Marianna Mares, treasurer.

Thomas A. Edison was once sent home from school because his teacher considered him "too backward."

Krebs Quintet to Appear On Hubzapoppin' Show

The Don Krebs Quintet with soloist Frank Telesca on the alto saxophone will be featured on the Hubzapoppin' show tonight.

The show is broadcast from 8 to 8:30 p.m. over WDFM and WMAJ and originates from the Hetzel Union assembly room. Students attending have been asked to arrive before air time. There is no admission fee.

FOR GOOD RESULTS
USE COLLEGIAN CLASSIFIEDS

Did You Know...

your sport shirts
and dress shirts are both done for the same price ...
25 cents
at the

Launderette

210 W. College Avenue

Barbecued Beef and Ham Sandwiches

ARE NOW FEATURED AT

the TAVERN RESTAURANT

DON'T MISS IT!

•What?

The DIZZY GILLESPIE CONCERT

ALSO SONNY STITT ON THE TENOR SAX

•Where?

REC HALL

•When?

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 13
2:30 P.M.

•Tickets?

HUB Desk and MUSIC ROOM
$1.50

BRING YOUR DATE!

Sponsored by

PENN STATE JAZZ CLUB

to Nittany Office Equipment and see the wonderful new Olympia typewriter. Fast, quiet, troublefree—and SOoo good-looking, you'll be amazed. Stop in today or first thing Monday morning.

You can also see and try the very latest models of Royal, Smith-Corona, Remington, and Underwood portables.

Nittany

OFFICE EQUIPMENT

231 S. ALLEN ST.

AD 8-6125

★ your portable typewriter headquarters ★