Statistics Seminars Will Honor Prof

A series of seminars on statistics has been initiated in honor of the late Dr. H. Arthur Meyer, who was associate professor of forestry until his death two years ago.

Meyer started the informal meetings which have developed into the seminars.

The seminars are sponsored by the University chapter of the American Statistical Association and will be held at 5 p.m. Wednesdays in 208 Willard.

Arnold to Head Seminar

Christian K. Arnold, staff assistant to President Eric A. Walker and associate professor of engineering research, will conduct a technical writing seminar in the monthly magazine, Military Electronics.

Sharp Reported Still Unchanged

The condition of Larry Sharp, freshman in the division of counseling from Drexel Hill who is in the Geisinger Memorial Hospital with paralysis resulting from a broken neck, is "essentially unchanged."

Dr. John M. Krouse, resident doctor, said Sharp will receive post-operative care until he has recovered from the effects of an operation performed Sunday to reduce the dislocation of the neck he suffered in an accident Friday on the trampoline.

Krouse described Sharp's condition as "transverse myelitis." He said Sharp is conscious and that it is to early to predict his future condition.
