

2 Teams Cop IM League Titles

By BILL JAFFE

Two independent intramural football teams captured league crowns via forfeit wins last night in IM action. Marilyn Hall won the League K crown by winning over the Marlow Marlins and McKee Two copped League A laurels with its forfeit victory over the Rough Riders. Marilyn Hall is 4-0 for the season, McKee Two 3-0.

In other action, Penn Haven won its first intramural football game of the season by defeating the Fourteen Lions, 7-6, while the green-faced Sigma Pi team won its fifth game by stopping Delta Chi, 26-0.

Triangle remained unbeaten in League J play by defeating Pi Lambda Phi, 15-3; Alpha Gamma Rho used a strong second-half scoring punch to down Kappa Sigma, 9-0; and Tau Phi Delta tripped Kappa Delta Rho, 7-0.

The McKee Rockets posted a 16-7 victory over Watts Hall while the Burns contingent and the Wolves recorded a double forfeit.

Penn Haven used a 3-0 first down advantage to score its 7-6 victory over the Fourteen Lions.

A 60-yard pass-and-run play from the Fourteen Lions' Tom Wutka to Sid Watson gave the Lions their first touchdown. Penn Haven's Rick Ohlsen blocked Jack Besch's attempted conversion.

Penn Haven registered its initial first down in the late stages of the first half but could not score until early in the third period.

Ohlsen received the initial kickoff and passed to Dean Stabley who tossed to Gene Leber for a 40-yard gain. An Ohlsen to Al Creighton pass was good for 10 yards and then Ohlsen scored on a short end run. Ernie Peet's PAT attempt was wide.

Sigma Pi, fresh from scoring a first place victory in the Ugly Man parade, overwhelmed Delta Chi, 26-0, with its accurate passing attack and speedy end corps.

Dave Brown and Dave Palmer did most of Sigma Pi's passing while Jerry Cornell scored twice on long pass plays. After holding Delta Chi on downs after the opening kickoff, Sigma Pi went to work and marched 60 yards in four plays for the score.

Brown passed to Bob Brandt for 11 and 20 yards and then tossed to Jack Abele for six yards before Palmer spotted Cornell in the end zone for a 20-yard completion. Al Benton converted.

Wait Krauser intercepted a Delta Chi pass on the Delta Chi 19-yard line and then Brown passed to Cornell for 15 yards. Brandt connected with Abele for the touchdown. Benton again converted.

In the second half, Brown tossed a 38-yard aerial to Cornell for a touchdown and then heaved to John Emmett from two yards out for the final score.

Triangle jumped off to a 9-0 first half lead over Pi Lambda Phi and then scored a touchdown on a Don Peters to Gordon Rutherford pass play covering 50 yards.

Nick Countryman passed to Rutherford from 15 yards out for the first touchdown and then Don Long caught Pi Lambda Phi's Al Kosiak in the end zone for a safety.

Pi Lam's lone points were scored by Bob Lackey's 12-yard field goal.

Lion Gridders Over 'Bug' Look Toward Syracuse

For the first time since the William and Mary game 11 days ago, Penn State Coach Rip Engle had almost his full complement of football players ready to practice this week for the Syracuse game Saturday afternoon at Syracuse, N.Y.

Only end Paul North, guard Willard (Bull) Smith and halfback Fran Paolone are recuperating from illness or injuries at the moment. North, although he played Saturday against Vanderbilt, is a bit weak from a slight attack of the famed respiratory disease. Smith ran a high fever one-half hour before the Vandy game and did not dress for the contest while Paolone reinjured his ankle against the Commodores.

On the brighter side, fullback Emil (Babe) Caprara, halfback Andy Mocenyi and fullback Maurice Schleicher are all recovered from their attack of the flu and are physically ready for full practice this week.

Engle switched from his usual practice plan Monday by omitting workouts on Beaver Field for the first time this season. Instead, the Nittany gridgers heard a scouting report from Assistant Coach Frank Patrick on unbeaten Syracuse. Patrick was reported to have said that the Orange have started to click since a first-game tie with Iowa State—evidenced by their consecutive victories over Boston University, Cornell and Nebraska.

Meanwhile, Engle reminisced a bit on the Vanderbilt loss by pointing out that the Lions' lack of practice last week due to illness had a tremendous impact on his club. "That game is proof that you've got to practice . . . if you don't practice, you can't play right," he said.

Engle said that Vandy did not use any unexpected pass patterns when it scored four of its five touchdowns through the air Saturday. He just admitted that the Lions made pass defense mistakes against the Commodores that they would not have normally made—and this was attributed to lack of practice.

After looking at the Commodore-Lion movies, Engle praised no one for an outstanding game. However, he agreed with Vandy Coach Art Guepe that Caprara and sophomore halfback Ed Caye were two of the brighter spots in the losing effort.

After the game, Guepe said that "Caprara was a real fine player and Caye ran very well." Engle said that Caprara played a very good game considering he was recuperating from the flu while Caye did an excellent job with his ball carrying—he was second among the Lion ground gainers with 48 yards in 14 carries and one touchdown.

IM Cage Entry Deadline Today

Entries for the Intramural basketball tournament are due by 4:30 p.m. today in the IM office, 202 Recreation Hall.

The marathon tourney—it begins in late October and ends in mid-March—allows teams to play at least eight or nine contests. Most of the games are played between the hours of 8:45 and 11 p.m., including Fridays.

Sooners Regain 1st Place In AP Picks; Spartans Drop to 8th; Cadets 9th

By HUGH FULLERTON Jr.
The Associated Press

The football experts who voted Michigan State into the top collegiate ranking a week ago reversed their opinion yesterday and put Oklahoma back on top and the upset-victim Spartans down in eighth place.

Michigan State was one of four teams knocked out of a high ranking in The Associated Press weekly poll of sports writers and broadcasters after last Saturday's series of upsets.

Minnesota dropped from fourth place to 14th while Oregon State and Arkansas, ranked seventh and 10th a week ago, dropped clear out of sight.

Oklahoma, winning its 44th consecutive game at the expense of hapless Kansas, 47-0, returned to the top position it had held all season and most of last year, by a landslide vote. The Sooners drew top place on the ballots of 89 of the 148 experts who voted and polled 1365 points on the basis of 10 for each first, nine for second, etc.

Texas A&M, moving up from third to second, received five first place votes but collected 1108 points on a strong showing for second and third. The Aggies had to work hard to stay undefeated, beating Texas Christian 7-0.

Behind them came Duke in fourth, after a 34-7 victory over Wake Forest, Auburn, Mississippi, Notre Dame, Michigan State, Army and Louisiana State to complete the Top Ten.

Mat Drills Extended
Lion varsity and freshman wrestling practice sessions have been extended to five days a week. Time of the drills is 3:30 to 6 p.m.
