

Rams Stop Booter Skein, 5-1

Hustle Proves Big Difference In Encounter

Penn State's seven game soccer winning streak came to an end yesterday. It fell victim, as did the Lions' string of 15 home triumphs, to a hustling West Chester Teachers eleven yesterday afternoon on the Beaver Field turf.

The final score was 5-1, but the game was closer than the score indicates. In fact, until 15 minutes had elapsed in the final frame, the Lions were only one point behind, 2-1. But after the Rams had tallied at the 15:30 mark, it was no contest. The visitors poured salt into an open wound with two more markers in the last five minutes.

It was just plain hustle that stopped the Lion booters. This was evident to almost everyone in attendance, including the opposing coaches.—Penn State's veteran Ken Hosterman and West Chester's Mal Lorbeck.

"They just out-hustled us," Hosterman commented after the game. "We were too listless. We seemed to be standing around waiting for the ball. They were really fired up for us."

Lorbeck echoed Hosterman's statements. "We out-hustled them," he said. "That's what beat them. They're the best skilled team that I've ever seen but we best them by hustling."

Kelly grabbed a loose ball and scored from three yards out. That was after 15 minutes had elapsed in the second quarter.

Kelly applied the clincher near the end of the second period. A long pass from mid-field took an opportune bounce off the back of a Nittany defender, giving Kelly a wide-open angle from slightly to the left. Goalie Don Dougald darted in the right direction, but the 15-yard thrust had too much foot behind it.

Oddly enough, it was in the third period that the Lions showed their only sustained drive on attack. Their passing was sharp, but a close-knit Ram defense foiled all scoring possibilities.

eye-catching plays. He had to leap to avert a goal on a bullet from Lion halfback Howie Maierhofer. Several times he snagged goal-mouth feeds with a host of eager Lions surrounding him.

The Rams' center forward, Dave Hubbard, registered the back-breaker as far as the Lions were concerned with a fourth period cross-fire blast into the right corner of the Nittany cage.

A lax Lion defense left Kelly scot-free at the 17-minute mark of the final stanza. He scored easily to make it 4-1. A series of side shots chased Dougald from one corner of the goal to the other before Dick Dietrich found the cords from the left to complete the scoring.

Shots-on-goal favored the visitors by just 16-14, but a factor that doesn't show up in the statistics—hustle—proved the differ-

Nittany 29 Beats 39 For IM Loop Title

By DON CASCIATO

Nittany 29 beat Nittany 39, 7-2, last night, to win its league title in a contest between two previously unbeaten teams at the University golf course.

Nittany 39 took an early 2-0 lead as Pat Patterson tagged George Lazur in the end zone for a safety. Nittany 39 held this slim lead until one minute remained in the half. At this time

John Davenport threw a one-yard pass to Wayne Rodgers for the six pointer. The scoring situation had been set up on a 26 yard lateral pass play. Mike Cush kicked the extra point to make it 7-2.

Nittany 29 dominated play in the second half, but was unable to add another tally. Mike Cush sparked their second half attack with several brilliant runs and outstanding defensive play.

In other action Pollock 9 edged Pollock 10, 7-0; Nittany 31 won 14-2 over Lucky 13; Delta Sigma Phi swamped Alpha Zeta 46-0 and Theta Kappa Phi beat Lambda Chi Alpha on first downs 5-4 in a game that was tied 7-7.

Forfeit victories were obtained by Stans Men, Shieks, Alpha Phi Delta, and Pi Sigma Upsilon.

Lucky 13 scored a safety on Nittany 31's first play from scrimmage to lead for the most part of the first half. Nittany 31 went ahead 6-2 on a Nick Freeman to Steve Ivler pass play. Ivler ran the remaining 18 yards for the score. John Zerby added the extra point.

Nittany 31 added an insurance touchdown in the second half when Ivler intercepted a Lucky 13 pass and ran 21 yards for the score. Zerby again added the extra point.

Delta Sigma Phi could do no wrong in their rout of Alpha Zeta. They started with a touchdown by Bill Walsh on the kick-off as Walsh caught a 31 yard pass from Dick Steins. Walt Barnes added the point to make it 7-0.

Delta Sig scored on their next set of plays on a four-yard pass from Jack Rusnak to Bill Smith. Barnes again added the point. Joe Washko scored Delta Sig's third touchdown on a pass interception. Bill Scatchard culminated a 44-yard pass lateral play for the fourth touchdown of the game. Barnes' extra point made the score 27-0.

Delta Sigma scored three more touchdowns in the second half on a pass from Rusnak to Scatchard, on another aerial to Rusnak to Steins. Garry Hale caught a pass in Alpha Zeta's end zone to end the scoring with Delta Sig on top 46-0.

Grippe Hospitalizes Harrier Engelbrink

Sophomore Dick Engelbrink came down with the grippe yesterday, leaving only two varsity cross-country runners—Ed Moran and Joe Thompson—who have not yet been hit by the rash of respiratory illnesses that have swept the campus.

Engelbrink is in the University Hospital but may be released today.

The varsity and freshman harrier squads had been in good health but only three varsity and three freshman runners reported for practice last Friday.

Engelbrink's health may be the deciding factor in the Lions' dual meet with Michigan State Saturday at East Lansing. In his first two varsity meets Engelbrink took fourth against Navy and fifth against Cornell.

Michigan State's defending NCAA championship team was plagued with leg injuries and flu early this month, but seems to be in nearly top form now. Without the services of several of their top runners, three weeks ago, the Spartans dropped their first meet since 1955 to Western Michigan, 27-36, in the Michigan AAU Championships.

With the exception of Engelbrink, all of the varsity runners have reported back for practice. Varsity cross-country coach Chick Werner said that they had recuperated "amazingly fast" and look "quite strong."

"Chick King was probably the hardest hit of the group, but he has looked really good the last couple of days," Werner said.

The Lion mentor has been giving the squad 12 quarter-mile workouts daily in preparation for the Michigan State meet.

"Specifically, we've been working on pass defense," Werner said jokingly. "Unlike football, we are allowed no body contact in cross-country. The strategy behind pass defense in this sport is to stay ahead of the opposition and run faster when he begins to close the gap."

CAPER. ANYONE?

My name is Cornell Jackson, private eye. Two days ago I was sitting in my office dictating, when suddenly a tall blonde passed my window. I knew she was tall because my office is on the tenth floor.

"Hello," she said, "I need help, Rutgers."

"The name's Cornell."

"Yes. I'm worried about my husband. Every night he stays out till six in the morning. He comes home with his hair mussed, lipstick all over his face. What's up?"

"The butler did it."

"Oh come, come, Yale."

"Cornell, dearie."

"Yes. I think my husband is unfaithful."

I exercised my think-tank.

"The butler did it," I blurted.

"Look, Oklahoma Aggies—tell me what to do?"

"Find out the secret of his success with the femmes—then proceed from there. What brand of shirts does he wear?"

"Van Heusen."

"What brand of underwear and pajamas?"

"Van Heusen."

I threw up my hands—and watched them loft lazily up to the ceiling. "Babe," I said, "you can't fight Van Heusen. There's only one thing you can do. Marry the butler!"

Moral? No ladies worth their salt can resist Van Heusen merchandise. If you want to be popular . . . if you want to walk down the street and have people say, "There goes Jim, he's had more girls on his lap than napkins," here's what to do. First change your name to Jim—then buy Van Heusen merchandise. You can't miss.
