

Lucas, Walters Star in Win

Alternate Unit Play Encouraging

Statistics proved that this was certainly the team's best performance to date. Offensively, the Lions' net total was 393 yards—268 on the ground, 115 through the air—for their best performance to date.

But, the defensive statistics proved most impressive. After gaining 139 yards on the ground in the first half, the Mountaineers finished with a 121 total—a net loss of 18 yards in the second half. Passing only netted the luckless Mounties 67 yards for the game.

Speaking of his alternate unit, Engle said that the apparent reason for its success in the past two Lion games was that the sophomores—there are a total of six on the unit—have finally accustomed themselves to varsity play and are now in control of the fundamentals. This was due to the experience gained from actual play, he said.

The victory, which Engle credited to a strong team effort, also had its individual stars. Most prominent of these was sophomore quarterback Richie Lucas—tagged a "wreckless sophomore" by some of the viewing sports writers.

Lucas completed eight of 14 pass attempts—two of them for touchdowns—for a total of 101 yards and finished second in the individual team rushing statistics with 48 yards in seven carries. Besides this, he ran the team with poise so lacking in most sophomores. Engle credited him with a "real fine job."

And then there was Les Walters who, for the second week in a row, displayed the talents that have now pushed him into consideration for all-America honors. He led the pass receivers with five receptions for 59 yards and one touchdown. On defense, he was a stalwart, with a touchdown-saving tackle from behind most noteworthy of his feats.

Others were sophomores Eddie Cate—the Lions' leading ground gainer for the day—and Pat Bofula, fullback Babe Caprara and both unit lines in general, with special notices to tackle Joe Bohart and guard

A HANDOFF, A BLOCK, A RUN... Halfback Andy Mocoyni (14) takes a handoff from quarterback Richie Lucas (33) and follows his blocker, Dave Kasperian (46), for short yardage against West Virginia Saturday afternoon.

Joe Sabol, team captain. Here are the scoring plays:

Andy Mocoyni put the Lions in the lead on the first play of the second quarter with a five-yard skirt around end. Caprara converted.

West Virginia cut the lead to one point on quarterback Mickie Trimarki's one-yard sneak at 10:45 of the quarter. Whitey Mikani's conversion attempt was wide.

Walters gave the Lions another seven-point lead with a six-yard scoring catch of a Lucas pass at 4:10 of the third period. Caprara converted again.

Dave Kasperian scored his fifth Lion touchdown of the season on an eight-yard burst at 7:17 of the third period. Caprara booted his third, and final, extra point.

And finally, Mocoyni scored his second touchdown of the day when he caught Lucas' seven-yard pass on his knees in the end zone at 1:05 of the fourth quarter.

Alpha Sig, TKE, TIM, Nit 22 Win Grid Tilts

By DON CASCIATO

Alpha Sigma Phi, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Nittany 22 and the Timites won intramural football quarterfinal games last night on the University golf course field and thus qualified for semifinal games in their respective divisions.

Alpha Sigma Phi dethroned Phi Delta Theta, last year's fraternity champs, 3-0. The Phi Deltas racked up four first downs in the first half, on the pin-point passing of its ace quarterback, Bill Schwab.

They continued to lead in the second half, despite two Alpha Sig first downs. Alpha Sig had scored these on Dick Ferrari to Ralph Brower pass plays.

It looked like Phi Delta had won the right to enter the semifinals, but then the roof fell in for the losers. Alpha Sig completed two pass plays in three downs to reach Phi Delta's 18-yard line. Then Dick Ferrari threw a short pass to Harry Brown and Alpha Sig was on Phi Delta's 10. It looked like the attack had failed, but then Ralph Brower kicked a fourth down field goal, to give the winners their 3-0 victory. Phi Delta Theta may protest the game on the basis of a disputed fourth down that occurred early in the second half.

In the other fraternity tilt, Tau Kappa Epsilon continued their unbeaten way with a 8-0 victory over Triangle. The victors scored their touchdown on a Herb Ludwig to Jim Durham pass play.

Timites, last year's Indie champs, had to come from behind to remain in contention for this year's crown, as they beat Dorm 25, 14-7.

The other independent scrap saw Nittany 22 edge Nittany 20, 5-2 on first downs, to gain a 1-0 victory.
