

Winless Hilltoppers Rated AP Honors Lucas A Threat by Lion Coaches

To be quite frank about it, Marquette's winless football record in its first seven games this season and in its last 17 straight games altogether, bears no weight in the Penn State planning for the Lion-Hilltopper test Saturday at Milwaukee, Wis.

The Lion squad is going about its pregame preparations for this encounter just as it would if it were playing an undefeated squad rather than a winless team.

The reason for this is quite simple: the Lion coaching staff feels that the Hilltoppers are laying a beartrap for some opponent and the coaches are taking all precautionary measures to see that the Lions are not caught in it.

Assistant Coach Sever "Tor" Toretto, who scouted Marquette for the Lions, holds the Hilltoppers in high regard—despite their losing streak. "Marquette is a well-drilled team," he warned. "I was impressed with this team's spirit because it's pretty difficult to lose 17 straight games and still be enthusiastic."

Toretto pointed to three factors contributing to the Marquette losses. The first is a common football plague—injuries. "Injuries have prohibited them from having their top backs in the lineup as they had hoped to have," he said.

He then singled out Jim Webster, brother of Alex Webster of the New York professional Giants, as a good example of this. Webster, who Toretto described as a "good back with speed," has been hampered all season by injuries and has carried the ball only twice on offense.

The second reason Toretto gave

SWIMMING

Jordan Two beat the Bruins, 26-15 and the Hamilton Fins defeated McKee Two 31-19 last night in intramural swimming at Glendale pool.

Jim Thompson paced the Jordan victory with wins in the breaststroke and diving. He racked up 16.2 points in the diving and swam the 60-yard breaststroke in 52.3. Chow Crease did the 60-yard free style in :34.3. Herb Babakir annexed the 60-yard backstroke distance in :45.0. The relay was won by Jordan on a forfeit.

Preston Bortell was the key to the Hamilton win. He did the backstroke in :50.8, scored 14.2 points in diving and swam on the relay team which eclipsed the 120-yard course in 1:13.1. Bill Riseley did the breaststroke in :57.5 and Larry Guss swam the free style in :37.9.

The Corn Grinders beat the Carps on a forfeit in the other scheduled meet of the night.

BASKETBALL

Nine independent teams won their first intramural basketball games at Recreation Hall Tuesday night.

In League A tilts the Panthers beat Dorm 21, 19-13, and Nittany 25 defeated Nittany 34, 23-18.

League B action saw Nittany 22 edge the Fortinsky Lions, 19-16; Nittany 39 beat the Shieks, 28-22; the Sharpshooters sink Nittany 44, is that Marquette is predominantly a sophomore team. He said only one senior and two juniors are on the starting team—the rest are inexperienced sophs.

The third bugaboo that Toretto mentioned was the excessive number of Marquette fumbles. These fumbles have stalled the Hilltopper attack and made it appear punchless—this is not the case, he said.

Individually, he made note of the two Marquette quarterbacks, Ernie Safran—who he said was the better all-round player—and Tom Sunderbruch, and fullback Frank Mestnik in the backfield.

Along the line, which, incidentally, is larger than Penn State's, Toretto singled out center and team captain Dick Campbell as the corner stone of the forward wall. He emphasized this by mentioning that Campbell has been touted by many professional scouts as a possible number one draft choice.

Toretto's feelings on the ball game run like this: "I look for a real rugged ball game . . . it might be difficult (for the Lions) if they are successful in the early stage on the game . . . I feel we can win, but as you know, any given team on any given Saturday can turn in an upset."

28-21; and the Yellow Jackets defeat Wally's Boys, 32-24.

In League C, the Pierce Frosh won over Nittany 31, 22-19, and the Freed Angels defeated Nittany 24, 30-19.

BOWLING

Alpha Tau Omega, third ranking team in Fraternity League A, swept all three scoring honors in Tuesday night's intramural bowling action. The ATO team tally was 857. Mel Royer bowled two single games with scores (200 and 207) higher than his nearest competitors. His 588 took high series laurels.

In other games, Phi Delta Theta beat Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 4-0; Phi Mu Delta defeated Alpha Epsilon Pi, 4-0; Theta Xi won over Delta Upsilon, 4-0; Alpha Tau Omega beat Theta Delta Chi, 3-1; Kappa Delta Rho defeated Kappa Sigma, 4-0; and Alpha Zeta beat Sigma Nu, 3-1.

The guy the Associated Press called "Reckless Richie Lucas, a sophomore substitute for Al Jacks" wound up second in the AP voting for the "Top Back of the Week."

In his first starting assignment of the year, "Reckless Richie" sparked the Nittany Lions to their prestige-raising 27-6 victory over West Virginia. He completed 8 of 14 passes for 101 yards and a pass completion average of 54 per cent.

His yards-per-pass average is 7.9. Al Jacks has a 5.8 average per pass. But wasn't only Reckless Richie's passing that won him the nation-wide recognition.

His wide-open signal-calling was particularly effective. He also picked up a net of 48 yards running, including a beautiful 19-yard run on fourth down.

When praised for his efforts in the game, the modest sophomore said, "The team really makes me look good. Give the credit to the backs, their faking was really great. And the blocking by the line was about the best all year."

The athlete that beat him out for the top honor was also a former second-stringer, Navy fullback Ray Wellborn. Wellborn figured in all four touchdowns in the 20-6 upset of Notre Dame.
