

Panhel Council Approves Formal Rush Program

Panhellenic Council unanimously approved the formal rushing program for the spring semester.

Panhel on Tuesday also unanimously approved the dates for pre-rushing, which will be held in December.

Barbara Rilling, Panhel rushing chairman, said that because of the expected increase in the number of coeds rushing, the number of sororities a coed may visit at each round of rushing, except for formal coffee hours, has been increased.

Soph Warned About Stopping In Auto Mishap

A sophomore electrical engineering student was warned by Tribunal Tuesday night when he was charged with failing to stop after being involved in an automobile accident.

The accident occurred about 9 p.m. on Nov. 2 at the entrance of the parking lot on Shortlidge Road behind Grange dormitory.

The student said he was making a left turn into the lot from Shortlidge Road when the car he was operating bumped into a car driven by a non-student which was exiting from the lot.

The left rear side of the student's car touched the right rear side of the other car, according to the student.

The student said he pulled into the crowded lot and seeing no signs of the operator of the other car, continued on about his business.

No damage was reported to the car struck. But the student said the accident caused about a 3-inch scratch to the car he was operating.

After the student left the lot, one of the occupants of the struck car returned and took the license number of the student's car.

WSGA to Strengthen Drinking Ban

The Women's Student Government Association Senate agreed Wednesday night to try to put "more teeth" into the enforcement of the WSGA drinking rule.

The rule states that drinking by University women is forbidden.

The Senate will send representatives to talk with hostesses in the women's residence halls. The hostesses will be asked to report every drinking offense to the WSGA Judicial Board with the understanding that WSGA will give them wholehearted support.

Anne Friedberg, Judicial chairman, and Susanne Smith, WSGA president, will speak to the freshman hostesses at their meeting on Tuesday with R. Christine Yohe, assistant dean of women.

A member of Judicial and a member of Senate were assigned to each upperclass women's residence hall to talk personally with the hostesses.

Ellen Donovan, junior in arts and letters from Emporium, said in bringing the matter before Senate that at their meeting last week the orientation counselors expressed dissatisfaction with enforcement of the drinking rule.

The counselors said that their freshman counselees seemed unfamiliar with some aspects of the rule. Some freshmen thought the rule was not enforced upon upperclass women and some did not know the penalties given to women who were found drinking, they said.

Miss Smith said that a survey will be made to find out whether women would uphold the present drinking rule if they were permitted to drink when they became 21.

But, she said, affirmative re-

Judd Predicts

World All Communist Or Free in 5 Years

Minnesota Congressman Walter H. Judd predicted Wednesday night that within the next five years the world—including the United States—will become either completely free or completely Communist.

Judd, a Republican, said during a question and answer session after his speech in Schwab Auditorium that the Communist must "shoot the works, and win quickly" or face elimination.

Judd's speech was the last in a series of graduate lectures.

The Minnesota Republican, during his speech on foreign aid, said the $64,000 question of our time is which nation will disintegrate first.

Reappraising the foreign aid program, Judd said although there have been many failures and waste, it has been "overall extraordinarily successful and has saved us money."

Judd said he believes the U.S. cannot defeat Communism from the outside. He said if the free world is to survive it must rely on the 900 million people behind the Iron Curtain.

The target of the United States is the confidence of these peoples and also the free world, Judd said.

Judd suggested a long-range program and a cut-down to essentials in our foreign policy to concentrate on those policies that experience has shown win the hearts and minds of the people. The United States needs a long range policy, Judd said, because we have a long-range problem.

Judd said the first objective of foreign policy should be "to safeguard the security of the nation."

The one ace card we hold, he said, is the some 250 bases abroad, which completely surround the Soviet Union. But he said only those on Okinawa and Alaska are under our control and the rest are in fully independent and sovereign countries and to maintain our bases we must stay on the good side of these nations.

Judd said there is a basic trend of the shifting of world power from the West to the East. Many of the smaller nations are seeking independence, he said, and we should be glad this is happening.

The revolutionary ideas are a basis of our nation, Judd reasoned, thus our teachings are causing these fights for freedom.

Judd said the U.S. must be willing to work with these peoples who have problems similar to ours. He said, "We must be good enough to cooperate or savage enough to die."
