

6 Booters End Careers Against Pitt Saturday

By LOU PRATO

What could be a more fitting way to end your collegiate athletic career than by leading your team to a victory over the school's bitterest foe?

That's the way six senior members of Penn State's soccer team hope to end their varsity competition when the Lions host arch-rival Pitt at Beaver Field Saturday afternoon.

Included among the six, who have given more than faithful service to Penn State, are captain Ralph Brower and Jim Hedberg, a pair of 3-year starters; Per Torgerson, a diminutive all-American performer; Dave Haase and Walt Krauser, a couple of 3-year lettermen; and Tony Tremonte, a 1956 sub who blossomed to full growth this season.

Soccer Coach Ken Hosterman will no doubt miss these standouts next fall. Here's what he thinks about his valuable sextet:

Brower—"We're really going to miss Brower next year. He has always been a hard worker and has continually hampered opponents with his size and speed. Ralph's pulled the team together this year. He represents a true captain and leader."

Hedberg—"Jimmy is a never-say-die type of player. What he lacks in ability he makes up in hustle. In three years he has always had the same 'go-go-go, hustle-hustle-hustle' type of attitude."

Torgerson—"He's a real steady ballplayer. He's a great scorer and a fine playmaker. His playmaking has really helped us this season. He possesses a lot of talent for soccer."

Haase—"Dave's been hampered with injuries off and on since he came here, but he has a lot of heart. He's always trying. His attitude is very good and he's very cooperative."

Krauser—"Walt's been a hard worker. He's been out there trying most of the time. I think he was really outstanding in the Colgate game this year. He played like a pro in that game."

Tremonte—"Tony would have been a tremendous fullback if he hadn't been hampered with scholastic and personal difficulties. He's been a hustler and he has a lot of spirit."

Thanks coach—the Pitt victory will be for you.

Gavilan to Fight Byars

CHICAGO, Nov. 19 (AP)—Kid Gavilan, who at 31 has dreams of regaining the welterweight crown, says he is going to prove he is as spry as ever when he meets Walter Byars tomorrow night.

The 10-rounder at Chicago Stadium will be televised and broadcast nationally (ABC) 10 p.m.

—Daily Collegian photo by Joe Patton
SOCCKER COACH KEN HOSTERMAN poses with the six seniors who will end their collegiate soccer careers Saturday against Pitt. They are: left to right, kneeling—Per Torgerson, Walt Krauser, and Jim Hedberg; standing—captain Ralph Brower, Hosterman, Dave Haase, and Tony Tremonte.

Vicious Vince Gains Lead By Two Games in Grid Poll

In one of the greatest displays of courage in many weeks, Vicious Vince Carocci ventured out to the end of the limb Saturday and returned sole possessor of first place in the Daily Collegian's weekly grid poll.

Vince's seven-eight mark doesn't tell of the reckless abandon with which he predicted wins for SMU, Mississippi State, Notre Dame, Stanford, and Iowa. The first three came through to place the relentless editor two games ahead of Lucky Lou Prato and the coaches, tied for second.

Vince holds a 70-50 (.583) chart to 68-52 (.567) for Lou and the Coaches. Despite his Florida-over-Vanderbilt choice, Lou had a five-ten day. Football secretary Louise Nixon picked just six correctly for the coaches.

Miserable Matt Mathews resigned himself to last with a seven-eight showing to stay seven games behind the leader. Matt's card reads 63-57 (.525).

If the current nip-and-tuck pattern for supremacy continues for the remaining two weeks of the contest, a two, or easily a three-way tie could result. In such a case, it is expected the Bowl games would serve as a tie-breaker.

Middies State Position

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19 (AP)—Capt. Slade Cutter, Naval Academy athletic director, made clear today that the Middies won't go to any football bowl game unless they beat Army.

MSU Leads in AP Poll

Oklahoma tumbled from second to sixth place in the Associated Press football poll after dropping a 7-0 decision to Notre Dame, ending a 47-game winning streak for the Sooners.

Notre Dame leaped out of the depths into ninth place on the strength of its upset victory over Oklahoma.

Michigan State jumped from fourth place to the top slot after Texas A&M, last week's top team, suffered a 7-6 setback at the hands of Rice.

The Spartans were on top at the beginning of the season, but lost their lead twice because of a loss to Purdue.

Auburn moved into the second position, followed by Ohio State, Texas A&M and Mississippi.

Navy advanced two notches to seventh place, with Army retaining its tenth ranking. The two service academies will square off one week from Saturday at Franklin Field in Philadelphia.

Iowa dropped from fifth to eighth after bowing to the Buckeyes of Ohio State, 17-14.

Former Basketball Star

One of Penn State's all-time basketball greats, Johnny Barr, of Shamokin, now is coaching at Susquehanna University. Barr played professional basketball with the St. Louis Bombers after World War II.

Learn to Relax

The best time to relax is over a good meal. The meals and the relaxation at Duffy's Tavern are perfect. Start your weekend with a relaxed meal at

Duffy's

In Boalsburg, 4 miles east of State College on Route 322 (turn right at the Texaco Sta.)

Handmade Candy Especially for Mom

Handmade assortments of caramels, creams, nougats and clusters. $1.50 to $1.70 a lb. Also delicious machine-made candy $1.15 a lb.

The Candy Cane

Next to the diner

MIL BALL Queen Contest

NOTICE!

TODAY IS THE LAST DAY FOR CONTESTANTS TO SUBMIT THEIR 5x7 PHOTOS TO THE HUB DESK

Don't Forget

I'm not really asleep on the job

I know you want a portable typewriter for Christmas, but there are so many new models with so many wonderful features, that I just don't know which one to get you. Do you want an American Royal, Remington, Underwood, or Smith-Corona . . . or do you want an imported Olympia, Olivetti, Hermes or Everest? Do you want green, grey, maroon, rust, or a stunning two-tone model?

Why don't you go down to Nittany Office Equipment and compare all these new model portables. When you come home for Thanksgiving vacation you can tell me which one you've chosen and I can send my check into Nittany Office Equipment. It'll be so much easier for me that way. It'll be better for you too, because you can have the portable typewriter you like best. Stop in to Nittany Office Equipment today.

your portable typewriter headquarters

231 S. ALLEN ST.

AD 8-5125

All Seniors in The Colleges of
CHEMISTRY - PHYSICS EDUCATION and
ENGINEERING

Must return their LaVIE proofs to the Penn State Photo Shop by Saturday, November 23

THIS IS DEFINITELY THE LAST REMINDER ALL PICTURES NOT IN BY THE ABOVE DEADLINE, CANNOT BE INCLUDED IN LAVIE

All proofs should be returned in 2 to 3 days

GIBSON Christmas Cards

"SPECIAL VALUE"

25 Cards $1.00

Each card different! A wonderful variety. Come in and select your cards early.

KEELER'S

The University Book Store