

Hat Society Council Accepts Newly-Amended Constitution

Hat Society Council after approving two amendments to its recently revised constitution, gave final approval to the constitution Tuesday.

The council voted to require individual hat societies to choose representatives to the council by the second Monday in May. They also voted to have election of officers by the 18th of May.

Carl Smith, vice president of Delphi hat society, recommended to the council that hat groups should check the unauthorized use or wearing of hats by students who are not members of societies. Council president Harry Oxman
